Slaves Peasants And Capitalists In Southern Angola 1840 1926:

Slaves, Peasants, and Capitalists in Southern Angola, 1840-1926 W. G. Clarence-Smith, 1990 Slaves, Peasants, and Capitalists in Southern Angola, 1840-1926 W. G. Clarence-Smith, 1979 Slaves, Peasants and Capitalists in Southern Angola 1840-1926, 1979 Mobility Makes States Darshan Vigneswaran, Joel Quirk, 2015-05-05 In Mobility Makes States political scientists, historians, sociologists, and anthropologists examine the role of mobility in shaping how states are formed and how they behave. Focusing on links between power and migration across sub-Saharan Africa, the book explores how and why states have sought to harness movements towards their own ends. Fighting for Honor T. J. Desch-Obi, 2021-04-12 A groundbreaking investigation into the migration of martial arts techniques across continents and centuries. The presence of African influence and tradition in the Americas has long been recognized in art, music, language, agriculture, and religion. T. J. Desch-Obi explores another cultural continuity that is as old as eighteenth-century slave settlements in South America and as contemporary as hip-hop culture. In this thorough survey of the history of African martial arts techniques, Desch-Obi maps the translation of numerous physical combat techniques across three continents and several centuries to illustrate how these practices evolved over time and are still recognizable in American culture today. Some of these art traditions were part of African military training, while others were for self-defense and spiritual discipline. Grounded in historical and cultural anthropological methodologies, Desch-Obi's investigation traces the influence of well-delineated African traditions on long-observed but misunderstood African and African American cultural activities in North America, Brazil, and the Caribbean. He links the Brazilian martial art capoeira to reports of slave activities recorded in colonial and antebellum North America. Likewise, Desch-Obi connects images of the kalenda African stick-fighting techniques to the Haitian Revolution. Throughout the study, Desch-Obi examines the ties between physical mastery of these arts and changing perceptions of honor. Including forty-five illustrations, this rich history of the arrival and dissemination of African martial arts in the Atlantic world offers a new vantage for furthering our understanding of the powerful influence of enslaved populations on our collective social history. Oil, Democracy, and Development in Africa John R. Heilbrunn, 2014-04-21 This book focuses on the history, key industry, and policy actors and political-economic outcomes in oil-producing African states, filling a gap in the literature on resource-abundant countries by providing an optimistic assessment of circumstances in contemporary Africa. The Aesthetics of Belonging Claudia Gastrow, 2024-10-25 After centuries of colonial rule, the end of Angola's three-decade civil war in 2002 provided an irresistible opportunity for the government to reimagine the Luanda cityscape. Awash with petrodollars cultivated through strategic foreign relationships, President Jos? Eduardo dos Santos rolled out a national reconstruction program that sought to transform Angola's capital into what he considered to be a modern world-class metropolis. Until funds dried up in 2014, the program in conjunction with sweeping private investments in real estate involved mass demolitions of vernacular architecture to make way for high-rise buildings, large-scale housing projects, and commercial centers The program thus underestimated the values enshrined in the materials and designs of Luanda s existing informally constructed neighborhoods or musseques The Aesthetics of Belonging explores the political significance of aesthetics in the remaking of the city Claudia Gastrow s archival and ethnographic work which includes interviews with city planners architects nonprofit leaders and urban dwellers shows how government infrastructure projects and foreign inspired designs came to embody displacement and exclusion for many This Gastrow argues catalyzed a countermovement an aesthetic dissent rooted in critically reframing informal urbanism as Indigenous a move that enabled the possibility of recognizing the political potential of informal settlements as spaces that produce belonging

Bulls, Bears, Boers and Brits Ian Phimister, 2025-01-07 In the 1890s financial speculation and market manipulation were prominent features of the Southern African gold mining industry Extravagantly capitalised starved of working capital and poorly managed many mines could not be made to pay Investors suffered more at the hands of Randlords than they did from those of the Boer Government in Pretoria By failing to take any of this into serious consideration accounts that focus on mining company complaints as the root cause of the Jameson Raid and the outbreak of war in 1899 are missing a key dimension of the past

Enslaving Spirits José C. Curto, 2003-12-01 Long recognized as having played many important roles in the slave export trade of western Africa foreign alcohol and its various functions within this context have nevertheless escaped systematic analysis This volume focuses on the topic at Luanda and its Hinterland where the connections between foreign alcohol and the slave export trade reached their zenith Here following the mid 1500s an extremely close relationship developed between imported intoxicants and slaves exported by the thousands in any given year into the Atlantic World first fortified Portuguese wine and following 1650 Brazilian rum emerged as crucial trade goods for the acquisition of slaves But the significance of Luso Brazilian intoxicants goes far beyond this singular fact they also served a number of other functions some of which were directly tied to slave trading and others indirectly underpinned the business The volume addresses the problem of alcohol in African history historicizes indigenous alcoholic beverages in West Central Africa at the time of contact analyzes the introduction and increasing use of foreign intoxicants for the acquisition of exportable slaves ponders the profits that such transactions generated within the Atlantic world reconstructs the other uses of imported alcohol in directly and indirectly underpinning the export slave trade of Luanda and assesses the impact of foreign alcohol upon West Central African consumers

Transformations in Slavery Paul E. Lovejoy,2011-10-10 This history of African slavery from the fifteenth to the early twentieth centuries examines how indigenous African slavery developed within an international context Paul E Lovejoy discusses the medieval Islamic slave trade and the Atlantic trade as well as the enslavement process and the marketing of slaves He considers the impact of European abolition and assesses slavery's role in African history The book corrects the accepted interpretation that African slavery was mild and resulted in the slaves' assimilation Instead slaves were used extensively in production although the exploitation methods and the relationships to world markets differed from those in the Americas Nevertheless slavery in Africa like slavery in the Americas developed from its position on the periphery of capitalist Europe This new edition revises all statistical material on the slave trade demography and incorporates recent research and an updated bibliography

Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West's technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today
