Joseph Conrad and H. G. Wells L. Dryden, 2015-05-24 This book traces the literary friendship between Joseph Conrad and H G Wells from their early correspondence through to the differences that caused their estrangement including their respective responses to the First World War It thus gives an overview of the literary scene in the late Victorian and early Edwardian period

Sleep and the Novel Michael Greaney, 2018-04-04 Sleep and the Novel is a study of representations of the sleeping body in fiction from 1800 to the present day which traces the ways in which novelists have engaged with this universal indispensable but seemingly nondescript region of human experience Covering the narrativization of sleep in Austen the politicization of sleep in Dickens the queering of sleep in Goncharov the aestheticization of sleep in Proust and the medicalization of sleep in contemporary fiction it examines the ways in which novelists envision the figure of the sleeper the meanings they discover in human sleep and the values they attach to it It argues that literary fiction harbours on its margins a sleeping partner one that we can nickname the Schlafroman or sleep novel whose quiet absorption in the wordlessness and passivity of human slumber subtly complicates the imperatives of self awareness and purposive action that traditionally govern the novel

Look Homeward, Angel. A Story of the Buried Life Thomas Clayton Wolfe, 2021-12-24 In Look Homeward Angel A Story of the Buried Life Thomas Clayton Wolfe presents a richly woven tapestry that captures the tumult of early 20th century American life Through the lens of the Gant family the narrative explores the profound themes of identity aspiration and the struggle to escape one s roots Wolfe s lyrical prose infused with vivid imagery and emotional depth serves as both a coming of age tale and a nuanced critique of the provincial life in Asheville North Carolina He employs a stream of consciousness style that challenges conventional narrative structures

reflecting the complexities of human experience and the often buried desires within individuals Thomas Wolfe born in 1900 was deeply influenced by his own tumultuous upbringing and the eclectic cultural milieu of his time His experiences growing up in a family of diverse characters in Asheville directly inform the semi autobiographical elements of the novel Wolfe s profound psychological insight and passionate prose were shaped by both his academic pursuits and his personal quest for self understanding making him one of the most significant literary figures of the American Renaissance For readers seeking a deep and transformative literary experience Look Homeward Angel is an essential read It not only provides a profound exploration of human emotions and ambitions but also invites reflection on the universal search for self in a world filled with constraints This novel remains a timeless classic resonating with anyone who has ever yearned to break free from the past

Illustration in Fin-de-Siècle Transatlantic Romance Fiction Kate Holterhoff,2022-03-07 This book examines illustrations created to accompany fictions written by several of the most popular authors published in Britain and America between 1885 and 1920 By studying the lavish illustrations that complemented not only initial serializations but also subsequent publications of fictions by H Rider Haggard Rudyard Kipling James De Mille Robert Louis Stevenson and H G Wells the book demonstrates the significance of images to the fin de si cle romance form In order to make fantastic plots seem possible graphic artists worked hand in hand with authors to not only fill gaps in audience understanding but also expand and deepen the meaning of these marvels The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture illustration studies British and American history and British and American literature Rereading the Harlem Renaissance Sharon L.

Jones,2002-12-30 African American writers of the Harlem Renaissance generally fall into three aesthetic categories the folk which emphasizes oral traditions African American English rural settings and characters from lower socioeconomic levels the bourgeois which privileges characters from middle class backgrounds and the proletarian which favors overt critiques of oppression by contending that art should be an instrument of propaganda Depending on critical assumptions regarding what constitutes authentic African American literature some writers have been valorized others dismissed This rereading of the Harlem Renaissance gives special attention to Fauset Hurston and West Jones argues that all three aesthetics influence each of their works that they have been historically mislabeled and that they share a drive to challenge racial class and gender oppression The introduction provides a detailed historical overview of the Harlem Renaissance and the prevailing aesthetics of the period Individual chapters analyze the works of Hurston West and Fauset to demonstrate how the folk bourgeois and proletarian aesthetics figure into their writings The volume concludes by discussing the writers in relation to contemporary African American women authors Beyond Bond Wesley Britton,2005-06-30 At a time when the methods and purposes of intelligence agencies are under a great deal of scrutiny author Wesley Britton offers an unprecedented look at their fictional counterparts In Beyond Bond Spies in Film and Fiction Britton traces the history of espionage in literature film and other media demonstrating how the spy stories of the 1840s began cementing our popular conceptions of what spies do and how
