Harding,2025-08-19 A humanist manifesto for the age of AI Artificial intelligence may be the most transformative technology of our time As AI s power grows so does the need to figure out what and who this technology is really for AI Needs You argues that it is critical for society to take the lead in answering this urgent question and ensuring that AI fulfills its promise Verity Harding draws inspiring lessons from the histories of three twentieth century tech revolutions the space race in vitro fertilization and the internet to empower each of us to join the conversation about AI and its possible futures Sharing her perspective as a leading insider in technology and politics she rejects the dominant narrative which often likens AI s advent to that of the atomic bomb History points the way to an achievable future in which democratically determined values guide AI to be peaceful in its intent to embrace limitations to serve purpose not profit and to be firmly rooted in societal trust Now with a new foreword by the author AI Needs You gives us hope that we the people can imbue AI with a deep intentionality that reflects our best values ideals and interests and that serves the public good AI will permeate our lives in unforeseeable ways but it is clear that the shape of AI s future and of our own cannot be left only to those building it It is up to us to guide this technology away from our worst fears and toward a future that we can trust and believe in Irish Policing Courtney

Marsh,2022-10-03 This book examines the organisational culture of the Irish police service speaking in particular to those interested in policing organisations and organisational culture It is set against a backdrop of considerations such as community policing police accountability the management of change in Irish policing and where the Irish police situates itself in relation to police organisations internationally An Garda S och na the national police service of the Republic of Ireland has a stated community policing style which focuses on an interactive relationship with the community and results in a largely unarmed policing organisation which makes it different to most police organisations Yet the author argues that the organisational culture has prevented them from embodying community policing across the organisation Exploring the organisation's historical context and how they are trained this book draws on new research and data spanning 30 years including tribunals and reports to examine the organisational culture over time including potential misconduct blame culture and resistance to change within the organisation in order to provide a more thorough understanding of a relatively unknown policing organisation
