Gupta,2016-04-15 In the sixteenth century the saint and scholar Sri Caitanya set in motion a wave of devotion to Krishna that began in eastern India and has now found its way around the world Caitanya taught that the highest aim of life is to develop selfless love for God Krishna the blue hued cowherd boy who spoke the Bhagavad Gita Although only a handful of poetry is attributed to Caitanya his devotional theology was expounded and systematized by his followers in a vast array of poetical philosophical and ritual literature This book provides a thematic study of Caitanya Vaishnava philosophy introducing key thinkers and ideas in the early tradition using Sanskrit and Bengali sources that have seldom been studied in English The book addresses major areas of the tradition including epistemology ontology aesthetics ethics and history and every chapter includes relevant readings from primary sources Religion, Landscape and Material Culture in Pre-modern South Asia Tilottama Mukherjee, Nupur Dasgupta, 2023-02-10 This book highlights emerging trends and new themes in South Asian history It covers issues broadly related to religion materiality and nature from differing perspectives and methods to offer a kaleidoscopic view of Indian history until the late eighteenth century The essays in the volume focus on understanding questions of premodern religion material culture processes and their spatial and environmental contexts through a study of networks of commodities and cultural and religious landscapes From the early history of coastal regions such as Gujarat and Bengal to material networks of political culture from temples and their connection with maritime trade to the importance of landscape in influencing temple building from regions considered peripheral to mainstream historiography to the development of religious sects this collection of articles maps the diverse networks and connections across regions and time The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of history archaeology museum and heritage studies religion especially Hinduism Sufism and Buddhism and South Asian studies The Heart of a Vaishnava B. P. Puri, 2017-08-01 A book that glorifies sadhu sanga the association of devotees and carries aloft the banner of pure devotional service in the modern world The Heart of a Vaishnava reminds us of Krishna s words The worship of My devotee is greater than even the worship of Me To the uninitiated this is a puzzle for Krishna also says The devotee is My heart and I am His But here Swami B P Puri shows that without the association of devotees there is no Krishna The Lord is present in this world through his devotees If we want to find Krishna we must look for him in the midst of Vaishnava association This book glorifies the Vaishnava it tells us of the necessity of Vaishnava association how to recognize the Vaishnava and how to serve the Vaishnava Chaitanya Amiya P. Sen, 2019-04-08 A saint a reformer an avatar of Lord Krishna Chaitanya Mahaprabhu 1486 1533 is perceived as all these and many others In this book on Chaitanya Amiya P Sen focuses on the discourses surrounding the mystic s life which ended rather mysteriously at the age of 48 Written in a lucid manner and for a wider audience this book is a fresh attempt to historically reconstruct Chaitanya s life and times in Bengal and Odisha as well as Vrindavan the key centre of medieval Vaishnavism in north India This work critically evaluates how Chaitanya has been understood contemporaneously and posthumously particularly as an icon in colonial Bengal Addressing an important gap in scholarship which hitherto concentrated on religious and philosophical discourses Sen offers a full length biographical account of Nimai or Gaur by drawing on a wide range of sources in English and Bengali He also argues against the belief that Chaitanya is the sole proponent of Vaishnava bhakti in Bengal choosing to situate him in the wider devotional cultures of the region
