Saints and Sainthood around the Baltic Sea Carsten Selch Jensen, Kurt Villads Jensen, Tuomas M S Lehtonen, Nils Holger Petersen, Tracey Sands, 2018-04-15 This volume addresses the history of saints and sainthood in the Middle Ages in the Baltic Region with a special focus on the cult of saints in Russia Prussia Finland Sweden Denmark Estonia and Latvia Livonia Essays explore such topics as the introduction of foreign and old saints into new regions the creation of new local cults of saints in newly Christianized regions the role of the cult of saints in the creation of political and lay identities and the potential role of saints in times of war The Architecture of the Churches of Denmark Alfred Heales, 1892 Medieval Wall Paintings in English & Welsh Churches Roger Rosewell, 2008 Surveying the images and iconography that made the medieval church a riot of colour this book brings together many of the best surviving examples of medieval church wall paintings It uses new technologies to allow us to visualise these works as the artists first intended Rosewell's text accompanies the images Medieval Wall Paintings Roger Rosewell, 2014-02-10 The medieval wall paintings that remain in English churches are for the most part shadows of their former selves the rare fragments of this beautiful art to have survived not only the Reformation but also successive waves of iconoclastic zeal and unsympathetic restoration The whitewashed walls of most parish churches belie the riot of colour and decoration that once adorned them but the remnants of paintings tucked into corners or rescued from later layers of paint help us to understand the role of art in medieval religion Roger Rosewell here offers a guide to the role played by medieval wall paintings as religious didactic and commemorative works of art telling the stories of those who created them and those who used them on a daily basis He also compares and contrasts religious and domestic wall paintings using beautiful colour photography throughout Were We Ever Protestants? Sivert Angel, Hallgeir Elstad, Eivor Andersen Oftestad, 2019-09-23 This anthology discusses different aspects of Protestantism past and present Professor Tarald Rasmussen has written both on medieval and modern theologians but his primary interest has remained the reformation and 16th century church history In stead of a traditional Festschrift honouring the different fields of research he has contributed to this will be a focused anthology treating a specific theme related to Rasmussen's research profile One of Professor Rasmussen's most recent publications a little popularized book in Norwegian titled What is Protestantism reveals a central aspect research interest namely the Weberian interest for Protestantism's cultural significance Despite difficulties he finds the concept useful as a Weberian Idealtypus enabling research on a phenomenon combining theological historical and sociological dimensions Thus he employs the Protestantism as an integrative concept to trace the makeup of today's secular societies This profiled approach is a point of departure for this anthology discussing important aspects of historiography in reformation history Continuity and breaks surrounding the reformation contemporary significance of reformation history research traces of the reformation in today's society The book relates to current discussions on Protestantism and is relevant to everyone who want to keep up to date with the latest

The Nordic Storyteller Susan Brantly, Thomas A. DuBois, 2008-12-18. The Nordic Storyteller: Essays in Honour of Niels Ingwersen consists of a set of nineteen research essays plus an introduction written by colleagues and admirers of Niels and Faith Ingwersen, leaders in the field of Scandinavian Studies in North America for some four decades. A first section of seven essays entitled Songs and Tales in Oral Tradition presents research in the area of folklore studies including balladry, saints' lives, incantations, healing, legendry and personal experience narrative. Articles take up such issues as classification, thematic, cultural and historical change and the effects of technology on daily life. A closely related second section, From Oral Tradition to Literature, includes three essays which examine the adaptation of oral tradition to literary forms, focusing on the works of P. Chr. Asbjørnsen, Esias Tegnér, Elias Lönnrot, F. R. Kreutzwald and the illustrations of Arthur Rackham, all figures important in the rise of folklore as a key interest of Romantic nationalism. A further set of nine essays, grouped under the title Tales in Literary Form, examine aspects of the writings of some of the greatest storytellers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, including H. C. Andersen, Herman Bang, Henrik Ibsen, J. V. Johnson, Magnús Bjarnason, Charles Dickens, Thomas Mann, Isak Dinesen, Martin Andersen Nexø, Billy August, Hans Scherfig, Peter Hegel, Klaus Rifbjerg, Leif Panduro and Kjartan Fløgstad. Articles address topics including autobiography, source criticism, symbolism, personal and national identities and the representation of political ideals. Together, the essays of this volume demonstrate the unflagging salience of narrative and storytelling in the personal lives and social experiences of Scandinavians and their neighbors past and present.
