Saint John Thomas William Acheson, 1985 Saint John T. W. Acheson, 1993 Saint John New Brunswick was a small stagnant mercantile town in 1800 Its character was set by its British garrison a few prominent Loyalist officials and a small merchant elite But that character changed quickly and dramatically in the first half of the nineteenth century T W Acheson traces the events that lead to the change and analyses their impact on the community Saint John Thomas W. Acheson, 1993-12-15 Saint John New Brunswick was a small stagnant mercantile town in 1800 Its character was set by its British garrison a few prominent Loyalist officials and a small merchant elite But that character changed quickly and dramatically in the first half of the nineteenth century T W Acheson traces the events that lead to the change and analyses their impact on the community The Creative City of Saint John Christl Verduyn, 2018-09-11 This book presents a wide ranging portrayal of the creative work done in Saint John in the hundred years following Confederation Beautiful watercolour and oil paintings early fossil discoveries successful bestselling authors and other examples of the creative city are brought together in this volume Among the many surprising and interesting accounts the contribution to Maritime natural history made by a butterfly found in the city the role of the city's Great Fire in generating a host of visual artists documenting the urban landscape and the little known Hollywood connection that made the city a hotbed of film production in the early 1900s

Urban and community development in Atlantic Canada, 1867-1991, 1993-01-01 This book offers the first comprehensive overview of community development for the Atlantic Provinces The authors take a collaborative approach to their research question and contribute more than just a survey on urban development They also create a framework for understanding the relationship between the development of towns and cities in Atlantic Canada and in other parts of the country Published in English Evangelical Balance Sheet B. Anne Wood, 2010-10-26 Using the journals of W Norman Rudolf 1835-1886 a Victorian merchant Evangelical Balance Sheet Character Family and Business in Mid Victorian Nova Scotia explores the important role of character ideals and evangelicalism in mid Victorian culture Rudolf's diary with its daily weather observations its account of family matters of social and business happenings and of his own experiences as well as occasional literary or naturalistic forays attempts to follow a disciplined regime of writing but also has elements of a Bildungsroman The diary reveals an obvious and significant tension between his inner spiritual search for meaning in his life evangelical inwardness and his outward stewardship duties Rudolf's concept of character then involved a type of balance sheet of his evangelical service record to his God his family his business and his community Needing God's help to transform his will and to interpret the world in a constructive rational manner the underlying intent of his daily journal writing was to keep his commitment to an ethic of benevolence and of the affirmation of the goodness of human beings Wood elucidates the cultivation of civic minded masculinity in the context of Victorian Maritime Canada analyzing the multiple facets of the character ideal and emphasizing its important role in Victorians understanding of their life experiences In the process Wood reveals many underlying assumptions about social change and about civic discourse The book also describes how the tremendous economic upheavals experienced by many entrepreneurs in the late 1860s to 1880s tempered their evangelical zeal and made it increasingly difficult for them to achieve a balanced and humane perspective on their own lives Evangelical Balance Sheet will appeal to a broad audience interested in social history imperial studies gender studies especially changing ideas of masculinity and manhood Atlantic Canada studies and local history of the Pictou region An Urban Biography of Saint John William G. Godfrey,1986 Craft Capitalism Robert B. Kristofferson,2007-01-01 Craft Capitalism focuses on Hamilton Ontario and demonstrates how the preservation of traditional work arrangements craft mobility networks and other aspects of craft culture ensured that craftworkers in that city enjoyed an essentially positive introduction to industrial capitalism Rural Protest on Prince Edward Island Rusty Bittermann,2006-01-01 In Rural Protest on Prince Edward Island Rusty Bittermann examines this conflict and the dynamic of rural protest on the Island from its establishment as a British colony in the 1760s to the early 1840s The focus of Bittermann s study is the remarkable mass movement known as the Escheat movement which emerged in the 1830s in the context of growing popular challenges elsewhere in the Atlantic World The Escheat movement aimed at resolving the land question in favour of tenants by having the state resume escheat the large grants of land that created landlordism on the Island Although it ultimately gained control of the assembly in the late 1830s the Escheat movement did not produce the land policies that tenants and their allies advocated Catholics at the Gathering Place Mark McGowan,1993-01-01 These 17 original innovative studies reinterpret the social and institutional development of one of Canadas largest dioceses
