St Josephs Blatt 1896 1919:

The St. Josephs-Blatt, 1896-1919 ,1988 The St Josephs Blatt was a German language newspaper published by the Benedictine monks of Mt Angel Abbey from 1896 through 1952 The only fully extant collection of the St Josephs Blatt resides in the archives of Mt Angel Abbey The current archivist and Mt Angel historian is Fr Martin Pollard who graciously allowed me to examine original copies of the newspaper and gave me the benefit of his personal historical expertise about both the paper and Br Colestin For my research on the newspaper I did not use the original bound copies of the Blatt which were too sensitive and brittle to handle safely but a microfilm copy of the St Josephs Blatt made by the University of Oregon Library in 1965

The St. Josephs-Blatt, 1896-1919 Steven W. Harmon,1989 The St Josephs Blatt an important German language publication on the west coast from 1896 1952 was a barometer of the ideals thoughts and fears of the German American Catholic population This book chronicles the newspaper s editorials and articles from 1896 through 1919 as they relate to the xenophobia anti Catholicism and anti German sentiment of World War I faced by the German American and Catholic populations of the United States

Germans as Minorities during the First World War Panikos Panayi,2016-04-15 Offering a global comparative perspective on the relationship between German minorities and the majority populations amongst which they found themselves during the First World War this collection addresses how public opinion the press parliament and ordinary citizens reacted towards Germans in their midst The volume uses the experience of Germans to explore whether the War can be regarded as a turning point in the mistreatment of minorities one that would lead to worse manifestations of racism nationalism and xenophobia later in the twentieth century

Race, Radicalism, Religion, and Restriction Kristofer Allfeldt,2003-03-30 In 1924 America passed legislation that effectively outlined which immigrants were to be considered beneficial to the national body and which were not Albert Johnson a Washington State Congressman sponsored the Act This study examines the role of the Pacific Northwest in the change of national sentiment that led up to this legislation Throughout the period this region experienced massive growth in its immigrant population Its forests and small towns were the scenes of many clashes with the alien radicals resulting in the creation of anti Catholic legislation and the laws against land ownership by the Japanese Analyzing issues of race religion and political radicalism Allfeldt determines that the region was highly influential in the national debate Most immigration studies of this era focus on the East Coast or on California but Allfeldt finds that Northwestern politicians and populists responding to regional events as much as national sentiments often set the national immigration agenda Diverse organizations such as the APA the Ku Klux Klan and the IWW gained powerful local support and had significant influence on the region s attitudes towards immigrants Rather than following California s lead in the opposition to Asian immigration the Northwest actually set the path for its southern neighbor in many important aspects
