Staging The World:

Staging the World Rebecca E. Karl, 2002-04-22 An historical analysis of how the Chinese constructed their understandings of their place in the world in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Shakespeare and Emotions R. White, K. O'Loughlin, 2015-06-29 This collection of essays approaches the works of Shakespeare from the topical perspective of the History of Emotions Contributions come from established and emergent scholars from a range of disciplines including performance history musicology and literary history Popular Science Monthly and World's Advance, 1919 Staging the Screen Greg Giesekam, 2018-02-06 The use of film and video is widespread in contemporary theatre Staging the Screen explores a variety of productions ranging from Piscator to Forced Entertainment charting the impact of developing technologies on practices in dramaturgy and performance Giesekam addresses critical issues raised by multi media work and inter media work The Business of the FIFA World Cup Simon Chadwick, Paul Widdop, Christos Anagnostopoulos, Daniel Parnell, 2022-04-07 The FIFA World Cup is arguably the biggest sporting event on earth This book is the first to focus on the business and management of the World Cup taking the reader from the initial stages of bidding and hosting decisions through planning and organisation to the eventual legacies of the competition The book introduces the global context in which the World Cup takes place surveying the history and evolution of the tournament and the geopolitical background against which bidding and hosting decisions take place It examines all the key issues and debates which surround the tournament from governance and corruption to security and the media and looks closely at the technical processes that create the event from planning and finance to marketing and fan engagement Analysis of the Women's World Cup is also embedded in every chapter and the book also considers the significance of World Cup tournaments at age group level No sport business or management course is complete without some discussion of the FIFA World Cup so this book is essential reading for any student researcher or sport business professional looking to fully understand global sport business today Staging the Ghost Story Kelly Jones, 2025-06-29 Staging the Ghost Story is the first book to offer a critical appraisal of the centuries long relationship between the ghost story and the English stage The book balances a critical consideration of the ghost story in performance its history its cultural politics and its generic conventions with practical insight regarding the valency of live representations of the supernatural the challenges of embodiment and the power of storytelling Throughout it draws upon accompanying interviews with prominent directors playwrights performers and stage designers in the industry including Mark Gatiss Robin Herford Michael Holt Danny Robins Robert Lloyd Parry Rebecca Vaughan Tajinder Singh Hayer Glen Neath Adam Z Robinson Richard Sutton Paul Voodini and Jonathan Goodwin With a focus upon the seminal elements of theatrical performance time space bodies devices and audience the book invites the elusive shadows of the ghost story to take centre stage Staging 21st Century Tragedies Avra Sidiropoulou, 2022-06-16 Staging 21st Century Tragedies Theatre Politics and Global Crisis is an international collection of essays by leading academics artists writers and curators examining ways in which the global tragedies of our century are being negotiated in current theatre practice In exploring the tragic in the fields of history and theory of theatre the book approaches crisis through an understanding of the existential and political aspect of the tragic condition Using an interdisciplinary perspective it showcases theatre texts and productions that enter the public sphere manifesting notably participatory immersive and documentary modes of expression to form a theatre of modern tragedy The coexistence of scholarly essays with manifesto like provocations interviews original plays and diaries by theatre artists provides a rich and multifocal lens that allows readers to approach twenty first century theatre through historical and critical study text and performance analysis and creative processes Of special value is the global scope of the collection embracing forms of crisis theatre in many geographically diverse regions of both the East and the West Staging 21st Century Tragedies Theatre Politics and Global Crisis will be of use and interest to academics and students of political theatre applied theatre theatre history and theatre theory Staging Masculinity Carla J. McDonough, 2006-07-19 The men in plays such as Arthur Miller s Death of a Salesman or Sam Shephard s True West are often presented as universal little attention is given to the gender dynamics involved in the characters This work looks at how contemporary playwrights including Miller Shepard Eugene O Neill David Mamet and August Wilson stage masculinity in their works It becomes apparent that male playwrights return often to the issues of troubled manhood usually masked in other issues such as war business or family The plays indicate both the attractiveness of the model of traditional masculinity and the illusive nature of this image which all too often fractures and fails the characters who pursue it O Neill s play The Hairy Ape and the character Yank receive much attention World's Work ,1904 The World's Work ,1913
