Stakeholder Approach To Corporate Governance Managing In A Dynamic Environment

David Wasieleski, James Weber

Stakeholder Approach To Corporate Governance Managing In A Dynamic Environment:

A Stakeholder Approach to Corporate Governance Abbass F. Alkhafaji, 1989-09-26 Alkhafaji presents the fundamental concepts of corporate governance and suggests a new approach to the subject that focuses on the stakeholder. As Alkhafaji demonstrates, corporate governance has moved far from traditional concerns with purely business issues like growth and profitability and now includes public issues such as pollution, equal employment opportunities, insider trading, and criminal conduct. Using data from his own empirical studies, Alkhafaji argues that the conventional board model no longer functions as originally intended. He analyzes potential management reaction to alternative forms of governance bodies and concludes that the data suggest a stakeholder board would be best suited to current American conditions. Organized into five parts, each of which builds upon concepts discussed in the preceding chapters, the volume begins by discussing the concept of the company and the changing environment in which it operates. In the second section, Alkhafaji addresses corporate governance in specific terms and includes survey data showing management's reaction to traditional and nontraditional forms of corporate governance. Part three looks at corporate governance in the context of social responsibility, ethics, and business government relations, while the following chapters discuss the ongoing restructuring of American business and its relation to corporate governance. The final section examines the role played by corporate governance in strategic management. Numerous tables, figures, and models support points made in the text.

The New Social Entrepreneurship Francesco Perrini, 2006-01-01 This book aims to define a novel conception of what social entrepreneurship (SE) actually is and what it is not, starting from a sharp and focused vision of SE it entails innovations designed to explicitly improve societal well being housed within entrepreneurial organizations which initiate change in society In so doing it provides a critical and comprehensive framework for current and future research in the area Francesco Perrini adopts a novel approach to the SE phenomenon considering it as a dynamic process created and managed by innovative social entrepreneur an individual or team who strives to create new social values in the market and community at large By now SE has attained a wider and more enthusiastic acceptance in corporate thinking and practice than in the literature This double line of reasoning partly theoretical and partly practitioner based drives the bottom line of the book In the first part The New Social Entrepreneurship looks for a consistent answer to a muddle of still unresolved questions How can SE be defined How can SEVs be identified What are the main dimensions along which organizations vary and what factors lead to success What does success mean Does the way in which an SEV is designed matter Does it make sense to talk about a social business plan Is an SEV aligned with traditional sources of financing And so on In the second part the book changes perspective examining several practical examples of how perspectives on SE are translated into concrete phenomena LocalFeed CafeDirect The Sekem Initiative Teleserinita the NYC Watershed Agreement and sustainable tourism in Turkey and so on They illustrate theoretical frameworks each enlightening specific aspects of SE and making theory and practice comparisons

The Cambridge Handbook of Stakeholder Theory
 Jeffrey S. Harrison, Jay B. Barney, R. Edward Freeman, Robert A. Phillips, 2019-05-09 A comprehensive foundation for stakeholder theory written by many of the most respected and highly cited experts in the field Stakeholder Management
 David Wasieleski, James Weber, 2017-06-02 This book brings together leading scholars in the field of stakeholder management to bring to light new and cutting edge perspectives on this important field It is intended as a resource for both emerging and established scholars to create innovative advances in stakeholder management ENVIRONMENTAL CONFLICTS IN COASTAL URBAN AREAS
 Ahmed Z. Khan, Le Xuan Quynh, Frank Canters, Eric Corijn, 2013-10-29 Emergent Globalization
 C. Choi, B. Hilton, Carla Millar, 2004-03-31 The world and humanity are changing at an unprecedented rate This book explores the processes that underlie this changing but coherent canvas What is fuelling them What is driving them Can we control them Mankind has always found ways to order life so as to reduce uncertainty and has sought to enhance the wellbeing of individuals peoples and nations In the modern and postmodern world business and enterprise play a big role Their tendency towards globalization needs to be understood and harnessed not opposed out of hand or wished away particularly because the tendency has not yet fully worked itself out For sound understanding it is necessary to avoid seeing the issues through the eyes of one particular discipline Hence this book also draws on material from history anthropology development economics ICT sociology and political science to help the reader gain insight into the processes that are occurring It provides a signpost towards a new dynamic in an increasingly integrated world in which we observe an emergent form of globalization affecting the planet as a whole and the future of the people on it

The Political Determinants of Corporate

Governance in China Chenxia Shi, 2012-03-15 This book investigates the key factors shaping corporate governance in China and presents a sophisticated study of corporate governance in China from a comparative and historical perspective Drawing on extensive corporate governance literature this book articulates why path dependence theory is the most effective framework for interpreting the development path of Chinese corporate governance Chenxia Shi reviews the historical role of government in commercial development and regulation in dynastic China and in early corporate law making followed by an account of China's legal and economic development over the last three decades This historical inquiry identifies government control as the key feature of economic and market regulation in China In particular this book canvasses the evolution of governance of State Owned Enterprises and listed companies major corporate governance problems regulatory challenges posed by China's increasing participation in economic globalization and enforcement difficulties particularly in relation to investor protection directors duties and accountability Ultimately Political Determinants of Corporate Governance in China demonstrates that corporate governance in China is largely determined by political imperatives and those political imperatives have been shaped and re shaped in a historical process

Multinational Companies in Low-Income Markets Dina Badry, 2009-10-15 Alleviating poverty through the pursuit of profit has become a catch phrase for many entrepreneurs and business people who started to focus their businesses on the lower incomes segments of the population at the Base of the Pyramid BOP Despite such business interests there is as yet insufficient theoretical and empirical work done in this emerging field Social embeddedness which facilitates the leveraging of local knowledge and expertise and the earning of the trust of the local people is deemed essential for the successful implementation of a BOP strategy What does social embeddedness mean What does it entail for the businesses How should businesses be embedded in the local networks Dina Badry seeks to answer these questions in her excellent dissertation through her conceptualization and empirical research which examines the different strategic intentions of business units operation at the BOP level and their potential network partners following social network theory I have little doubt that this study has contributed to our understanding of social embeddedness and will prove itself to be invaluable for academics as well as practitioners Prof Dr Li Choy Chong VII
