Resources in Education, 2001-04 Global Issues in Higher Education Pamela B. Richards, 2007 In most developed countries a high proportion of the population up to 50 percent now enter higher education at some time in their lives Higher education is therefore very important to national economies both as a significant industry in its own right and as a source of trained and educated personnel for the rest of the economy It follows that there are enormous stakes involved for a particular country even though the payoff of serious reforms may take decades and thus be counterproductive to the political forces responsible for designing and implementing such reforms since their horizons tend to be very short This new book tackles important issues in this dynamic field

Critical Issues in Global Sport Management Nico Schulenkorf, Stephen Frawley, 2016-10-04 The social cultural and economic significance of sport has never been more evident than it is today Adopting a critical management perspective this book examines the most important themes and challenges in global sport management From match fixing doping bribery and corruption to corporate social responsibility governance and new media it helps students researchers and practitioners to understand the changing face of the global sport industry Written by leading international sport management experts Critical Issues in Global Sport Management includes twenty chapters and real life case studies from around the world It examines contemporary governance and management issues as well as the ethical challenges faced by the global sport industry including questions of integrity and accountability in recent drug scandals that have been widely reported and debated This book deals with such questions and many more highlighting the fact that the global sport system is in urgent need of new and innovative solutions to these ongoing problems Based on cutting edge research from the US UK Australia Europe and beyond this book will add depth and currency to any course in sport management sport business sport development or sport events
