The Kibing Place:

The wall as living place Francesco Cacciatore, 2014-03-19 There is ample evidence as to how the modern masters in their shared pursuit of formal inventions and constructional inventions variously referred to past examples they had freely chosen as guides that could inspire and support them in their strenuous pursuit of new things The buildings shaped like soft clouds and gelatinous bowels or the spiked bravura pieces designed by today's fashionable architects have no relation with either construction or history Louis Kahn instead kept form structure and history paradigmatically together The book systematically reviews the intense structural experimentation that in terms not just of building engineering but of spatial and representational potential marked Kahn's work since the beginning and would eventually lead him after a long apprenticeship to an almost constant adoption of hollow structural forms By reviewing this long and intense journey of research the book underlines how Louis Kahn in each work and based on a constant dialogue between structural innovation building tradition and figural evocation succeeded in awakening our interest in a new fascinating structure and at the same time our emotion for a deeply meaningful universal and timeless form Living in the Blessed Place Bishop Timothy J. Congress. Senate. Committee on the District of Columbia, 1919 Suspended Living in Temporary Space Marco Vaudetti, Valeria Minucciani, Simona Canepa, Nilufer Saglar Onay, 2018-03-30 On 9th October 2017 the international conference Suspended

Living in Temporary Space was held at the headquarters of the Architecture School of the Polytechnic of Turin. Some scholars architects but not only have found themselves reflecting on the role of the architect and architecture within the almost apocalyptic scenario of the great migratory waves following disasters and emergencies with specific attention to the context of the Mediterranean area. In this scenario there are those who flee alone and with the whole family, people who leave a promising profession and others who leave almost nothing unaccompanied minors and adults. For everyone we must first and foremost guarantee the fundamental right of a refuge. It is easy to see how many studies, idea competitions, experimental projects carried out by architects to tackle this problem, but if we refer to common practice then we must recognize that the role of architecture as a discipline has been decidedly secondary. The contributions collected here testify to this double track where the most innovative experiments haven't often interfered with the reality of the facts. The origin of the participants at this conference: Turkey, Spain, Tunisia and Italy also underlined how the problem of housing emergency is particularly felt and debated in these countries also within the universities.

The Living Age, 1883 Minimum Space, Maximum Living Barty Phillips, 2007-03

Those who live in small houses and tiny apartments will welcome this treasury of ideas for using limited space elegantly and efficiently. The suggestions are ingenious and stylish from commercially available solutions such as folding chairs and tables, roll away storage bins and under the bed chests of drawers to inexpensive built ins such as fold away kitchen work surfaces, mini sleeping lofts and under the stairs shelving. Along with ways to create more physical space there are fascinating ideas for creating the illusion of space making small areas look larger with the use of color, reflection, light and trompe l'oeil effects. Small can be beautiful. It can also be convenient and livable with the ideas and inspiration in this handsomely illustrated guide.

Living in Dry Places J. Wesley Boyd III, 2009-04-10

God will so tailor the events of our lives so that all roads will lead to Him. What happens is we become so used to depending on our resources until we fail to rely on our source. So what he will do is allow our brooks to run dry in order to refocus our attention back toward Him. He did for Abraham when he required the very life of his son Isaac. He did it for Moses after he murdered an Egyptian and had to flee for his life, hiding on the backside of a mountain. He did it for David just after he was anointed king and he finds himself on the run from King Saul and ends up hiding in a cave in Adullam with a few hundred dysfunctional potential giant killers. He did it for the prophet Elijah as he was escorted by God Himself eastward to Cherith where he would be provided for with flesh and water from the brook only to have the brook run dry And Hes done the same for me so walk with me if you will on this journey as we discover and unfold how to handle our seasons of drought Learning & Living in the 21st Century i for H.s.' 2007 Ed. , The Living Word™ Leisa Anslinger,Mary A.
