Shaikh, 2024-03-16 This edited book uses a methodology that includes multidisciplinary collaboration to approach climate issues from several disciplines involved in climate governance The main aim is to showcase collaborative research designed from the point of view of experiences associated with Indigenous Knowledge from an assumption of the equitable importance of its practices methods of search and cultural background that Indigenous Peoples custodians have maintained through time immemorial In showing their applied ethics and activism to protect their traditional land this book's mission is to advocate the concept of climate justice absent from our mainstream academic and legal discourse Their investigation into some real life examples and local practices organised by Nature as their main element offers inter alia a detailed account of Indigenous Knowledge's duty of care towards local biodiversity that can potentially be adopted in policy formulation on environmental management and governance These selected essays represent an international human rights approach a human understanding of genetic resources that existed for centuries alongside the First Nations and their strategies to mitigate the contemporary climate crisis afflicting all of us The book revolves around Indigenous Knowledge of First Peoples tribal and local communities in the Global South In climate justice Indigenous Peoples advocacy to protect our local biodiversity must be crucial change mitigation The Routledge Handbook of Human Research Ethics and Integrity in Australia

Bruce M. Smyth, Michael A. Martin, Mandy Downing, 2024-10-23 The Routledge Handbook of Human Research Ethics and Integrity in Australia highlights why it is important to look at the subject of human research ethics and integrity within the Australian context and what the Australian perspective can offer to all researchers in the social sciences and humanities globally Australia has one of the world's most rigorous ethics governance frameworks This edited collection comprises 35 chapters compiled with the aim of presenting human research ethics and integrity in a way that can be readily understood and applied by undergraduate and postgraduate students early career and seasoned researchers Human Research Ethics Committee members and those who work in the administration of human research ethics Chapters that focus on research ethics with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are likely to be of great interest to an international audience interested in Indigenous research ethics more broadly This collection will act as a prism through which ethical first principles can be seen afresh from the vista of contemporary Australian research ethics frameworks The issues raised in this collection are likely to resonate beyond the Australian context and will speak to researchers and educators in a variety of settings who find themselves grappling with thorny ethical issues ranging from the rapid evolution of data security and privacy concerns to research about cultural heritage and ethical approaches to Indigenous cultural and intellectual property Governance, Natural Resources and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Carl Bruch, Carroll Muffett, Sandra Nichols, 2016-04-07 When the guns are silenced those who have survived armed conflict need food water shelter the means to earn a living and the promise of safety and a return to civil order Meeting these needs while sustaining peace requires more than simply having governmental structures in place it requires good governance Natural resources are essential to sustaining people and peace in post conflict countries but governance failures often jeopardize such efforts This book examines the theory practice and often surprising realities of post conflict governance natural resource management and peacebuilding in fifty conflict affected countries and territories It includes thirty nine chapters written by more than seventy researchers diplomats military personnel and practitioners from governmental intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations The book highlights the mutually reinforcing relationship between natural resource management and good governance Natural resource management is crucial to rebuilding governance and the rule of law combating corruption improving transparency and accountability engaging disenfranchised populations and building confidence after conflict At the same time good governance is essential for ensuring that natural resource management can meet immediate needs for post conflict stability and development while simultaneously laying the foundation for a sustainable peace Drawing on analyses of the close relationship between governance and natural resource management the book explores lessons from past conflicts and ongoing reconstruction efforts illustrates how those lessons may be applied to the formulation and implementation of more effective governance initiatives and presents an emerging theoretical and practical framework for policy makers researchers practitioners and students Governance Natural Resources and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative to identify and analyze lessons in post conflict peacebuilding and natural resource management The project has generated six books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners policy makers and researchers Other books in this series address high value resources land water livelihoods and assessing and restoring natural resources Fatal

Consequences Geoff Williams, 2015-04-08 A senior police officer is brutally murdered at a bogus domestic disturbance in an unoccupied house in a quiet street on Sydney s North Shore Assigned to the case is the infamous chief inspector Stephen Dunn with his sidekick Detective Sergeant Raymond Ellis from Sydneys largest police headquarters overlooking the iconic Harbour Bridge and the Sydney Opera House The finger points to several suspects one of which has them travelling across Australia to Perth where Dunn has the daunting prospects of coming face to face with his past when he meets up with his ex wife and old friend The two detectives survive a near death experience and after further investigations it occurs to them that the culprit may be closer to home than they first thought when they discover a colleague is hiding secrets of his own No matter what position we hold in life we are all capable of committing murder The Lives and Legacies of a Carceral Island

Ann Curthoys, Shino Konishi, Alexandra Ludewig, 2022-09-30 This book is a biographical history of Rottnest Island a small carceral island offshore from Western Australia Rottnest is also known as Wadjemup or the place across the water where the spirits are by Noongar the Indigenous people of south western Australia Through a series of biographical case studies of the diverse individuals connected to the island the book argues that their particular histories lend Rottnest Island a unique heritage in which Indigenous maritime imperial colonial penal and military histories intersect with histories of leisure and recreation Tracing the way in which Wadjemup Rottnest Island has been continually re imagined and re purposed throughout its history the text explores the island s carceral history which has left behind it a painful community memory Today it is best known as a beach holiday destination a reputation bolstered by the quokka selfie trend the online posting of photographs taken with the island s cute native marsupial This book will appeal to academic readers with an interest in Australian history Aboriginal history and the history of the British Empire especially those interested in the burgeoning scholarship on the concept of carceral archipelagos and island prisons

'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen, 2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth s controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen s achievement is to take elements of all the pre existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated policing and criminal justice system that developed often of questionable legality was what Royal Commissioner Roth termed a brutal and outrageous state of affairs Every Mother s Son is Guilty is a significant contribution to Australian and colonial criminal justice history Subject History Aboriginal Studies Criminal Justice policing

The Lion that Didn't Roar Nigel Davidson,2016-10-06 In 2017 it will be Australia s turn to chair the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme KP an international organisation set up to regulate the trade in diamonds Diamonds are a symbol of love purchased to celebrate marriage and it is therefore deeply ironic that the diamond trade has become linked with warfare and human rights violations committed in African producer countries such as Sierra Leone the Democratic Republic of Congo and more recently Zimbabwe and Angola In their quest for diamonds or by using diamonds to purchase weapons armed groups in these countries have engaged in recruiting child soldiers amputating limbs and committing rape and murder In response to the problem the international community non governmental organisations and key industry players such as De Beers combined forces to create the Kimberley Process in 2002 The KP uses an export certificate system to distinguish the legitimate rough diamond trade from so called blood diamonds which are also known as conflict diamonds This book considers the extent to which the KP supported by other agencies at the international and national levels has been effective in achieving its mandate In so doing it presents an original model derived from the domain of regulatory theory the Dual Networked Pyramid as a means of describing the operation of the system and suggesting possible improvements that might be made to it Shadowlines Stephen Kinnane,2020-06-01 A powerful and lyrical work by a writer of vision and imagination

Shadow Lines is the story of Jessie Argyle born in the remote East Kimberley and taken from her Aboriginal family at the age of five and Edward Smith a young Englishman escaping the rigid strictures of London In a society deeply divided on racial lines Edward and Jessie met fell in love and against strong opposition eventually married Despite unrelenting surveillance and harassment the Smith home was a centre for Aboriginal cultural and social life for over thirty years Global

Reforming Mining Law Christian Matabaro, 2019-03-22 The Democratic Republic of Congo is endowed with immense mineral wealth Its minerals include cobalt copper diamond gold iron manganese tantalum tin tungsten and zinc Yet the contribution of mineral abundance to the country's economic development is poor The Congolese mining sector was initiated in 1905 with the creation of OKIMO Office des Mines du Nord de Kilo Moto and UMHK Union Minière du Haut Katanga The rapid development of mining companies improved economic growth until 1973 when President Mobutu introduced a variety of inadequate economic policies including zairianization and radicalization that slowed down economic development The actual mining code was adopted in 2002 to enhance a mining sector that already collapsed This study suggests a variety of mechanisms and measures that are meant to energize the Congolese mining sector and hence allow the country to benefit entirely from its mineral abundance
