 ICOLLITE is an annual international conference organized by the Faculty of Language and Literature Education of Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia in the fields of Language Literature Culture and Education This conference embraces interdisciplinary studies representing advances and fresh studies in the fields of language literature culture and education The aim is to bring together leading scientists researchers and academic practitioners to exchange experiences and research results on all aspects of language literature culture and education This year Globalization and Its Impacts on Language Literature and Culture Opportunities and Challenges becomes its theme Presenters and participants are welcomed to discuss and disseminate current issues and offer solutions to the challenges of our time Communication that Counts Pia Patricia P. Tenedero, 2022-11-29 To date communication research in accounting has largely focused on the competencies that define what constitutes effective communication Highly perception based skills focused and Global North centric existing research tends to echo the skills deficit discourse which overemphasizes the role of the higher education system in developing students work relevant communication skills This book investigates dominant views about communication and interrogates what shapes these views in the accounting field from a Global South perspective exploring the idea of good communication in the globalized accounting field Taking the occupational stereotype of shy employees who are good with numbers but bad with words as its starting point this book examines language and communication practices and ideologies in accounting education and work in the Philippines As an emerging global leader in offshore accounting the Philippines is an ideal context for an exploration of multilingual multimodal and transnational workplace communication Language Issues in English Medium Instruction Amy Bik May Tsui, Ernesto Macaro, 2024-12-09 Tsui and Macaro's volume addresses a central issue in English Medium Instruction EMI and draws on research and practice from both content teachers and language specialists It covers a range of academic disciplines and contains contributions by internationally recognized researchers and practitioners in EMI as well as covering both the theoretical orientations and pedagogical practices of EMI The chapters provide an in depth account of how language needs to be integrated into the various academic subjects being taught through the medium of English in higher education in non anglophone countries Its contributors are either second language specialists or teachers directly responsible for teaching in the different disciplines The book calls for much greater collaboration between these actors and for a sense of shared responsibility for ensuring that English Medium Instruction a phenomenon that is now established worldwide is successful for all students It will be of interest to students researchers and teachers of English Medium Instruction in both secondary and higher education

Reflecting the increased use of English as lingua franca in today s university education this volume maps the interplay and competition between English and other tongues in a learning community that in practice is not only bilingual but multilingual The volume includes case studies from Japan Australia South Africa Germany Catalonia China Denmark and Sweden analysing a range of issues such as the conflict between the students native languages and English the reality of parallel teaching in English as well as in the local language and classrooms that are nominally English speaking but multilingual in practice The book assesses the factors common to successful bilingual learners and provides university administrators policy makers and teachers around the world with a much needed commentary on the challenges they face in increasingly multilingual surroundings characterized by a heterogeneous student population Patterns of language alternation and choice have become increasingly important to the development of an understanding of the internationalisation of higher education that is occurring world wide This volume draws on the extensive and varied literature related to the sociolinguistics of globalisation linguistic ethnography discourse analysis language teaching language and identity and language planning as the theoretical bases for the description of the nature of these emerging multilingual communities that are increasingly found in international education It uses observational data from eleven studies that take into account the macro societal meso university and micro participant levels of language interaction to explicate the range of language encounters highlighting both successful and problematic interactions and their related language ideologies Although English is the common lingua franca the studies in the volume highlight the importance of the multilingual resources available to participants in higher educational institutions that are used to negotiate and solve their language problems The volume brings to our attention a range of important insights into language issues found in the internationalisation of higher education and provides a resource for those wishing to understand or do research on how language hybridity and multilingual communicative practices are evolving there Richard B Baldauf Jr Professor The University of Queensland

An Introduction to Business Accounting for Managers W. C. F. Hartley,2014-05-19 An Introduction to Business Accounting for Managers Third Edition reviews developments in the business accounting arena including the crystallization of accounting thought on how to deal with escalating rates of inflation culminating in the proposals for Current Cost Accounting the acute cash crisis itself an offshoot of inflation faced by many companies in the mid 1970s leading to a greater need for awareness and control of cash flow the specter of several major company collapses and scandals leading to a growing demand for accounting standards and the growing use of value added within accounting and reporting systems This book is comprised of 17 chapters and begins with a discussion on the use and abuse of accounting with emphasis on financial accounting and cost accounting management s use of accounting and the reliability of accounting service The reader is then introduced to the principles of bookkeeping marginal costing and corporate taxation accounting concepts and accounting standards preparation of balance sheet and ascertainment of a company s profit or loss and financial position and annual accounts of a limited company A comparison of profit and cash flow is also presented and the use of accounting as an aid to management planning and control is explained This monograph will be a valuable resource for accountants and business and financial managers Globalisation of Accounting Standards Jayne Maree Godfrey,Keryn Chalmers,2007-01-01 In this book Jayne Godfrey and Keryn Chalmers explore the intricacies of the globalisation of accounting standards arguably one of the most significant business developments of the wider globalisation process during the past two decades They examine the key issues and implications of this harmonization of accounting standards from the perspectives of a diverse range of worldwide stakeholders Globalisation of Accounting Standards shows that globalisation approaches differ significantly because countries seek to maintain varying degrees of sovereignty over their regulations International differences in economic political legal religious and social characteristics also affect globalisation approaches and in turn influence national accounting standard setting agendas The book explores why countries relinquish their existing national accounting standard setting regimes to join the global movement It also seeks to resolve questions such as To what extent are national incentives altruistic economic political or social Who are the winners and losers in the process This authoritative book is thoroughly researched and expertly informed Written by both academics and regulators it tackles a critical and controversial issue in the globalisation movement As such it will be of great interest to a wide ranging audience including international national private and public sector standard setters economic regulators accounting academics and political economists and strategists The Routledge Companion to Qualitative Accounting Research Methods Zahirul Hoque, Lee D. Parker, Kathryn Haynes, 2017-03-31 Selecting from the wide range of research methodologies remains a dilemma for all scholars not least those looking to study the world of accounting Both established and emerging research methods are frequently advocated creating a challengingly broad range of choices Covering a selection of qualitative methodological issues research strategies and methods this comprehensive compilation provides an essential guide to the choice and execution of qualitative research approaches in this field The contributions are grouped into four sections Worldview and paradigms Methodologies and strategies Data collection methods and analysis Experiencing qualitative field research personal reflections Edited by leading scholars with contributions from experts and rising stars this volume will be essential reading for anyone looking to undertake research in the qualitative accounting field Accounting Reform in Transition and Developing Economies Robert W. McGee, 2008-11-16 Much has been written about the economic and political problems of countries that are in the process of changing from centrally planned systems to market systems Most studies have focused on the economic legal political and sociological problems these economies have had to face during the transition period However not much has been written about the dramatic changes that have to be made to the accounting and financial system of a transition economy This book was written to help fill that gap Accounting Reform in Transition and Developing Economies is the fourth in a series to examine accounting and financial system reform in transition and developing economies The first volume used Russia as a case study The second volume in the series examined some additional aspects of the reform in Russia and also looked at the accounting and financial system reform efforts that are being made in Ukraine Bosnia Herzegovina Armenia Eastern Europe and Central Asia The third volume examined taxation and public finance in transition and developing economies The History of the German Public Accounting Profession Hugh B. Markus, 2021-12-12 First Published in 1997 Accountants in the English speaking world have accorded the development of the Anglo American accounting profession a great deal of attention Perhaps only in the Netherlands has a like interest in the history of the public accounting profession manifested itself although even there without the same degree of preoccupation as in the English speaking world Hugh Brian Markus's History of the German Public Accounting Profession accordingly is a particularly welcome addition to the accounting history literature In the original German it marked new attention to the history of the German public accounting profession and in the English translation offered here it provides English speaking audiences with an insight into the development of a public accounting profession different from their own Accounting Education Research Richard M.S. Wilson, 2015-04-10 An annual prize is awarded for the best paper appearing in Accounting Education an international journal and this book contains the prize winning papers for every year from 1992 to 2012 The journal's primary mission since the first issue was published in March 1992 has been to enhance the educational base of accounting practice and all the papers in this book relate to that mission These papers reporting on research studies undertaken by accounting education scholars from around the world build on research findings from the broader domain of education scholarship and embrace a wide array of topics including curriculum development pedagogic innovation improving the quality of learning and assessing learning outcomes Of particular interest are three themes each of which runs through several of the papers students approaches to learning and learning style preferences ethics and moral intensity and innovation within the accounting curriculum Accounting educators will find many ideas in the book to help them in enriching their work and accounting education researchers will be able to identify many points of departure for extending the studies on which the papers report whether comparatively or longitudinally This book is a compilation of papers originally published in Accounting Education an international journal Bulletin of Crane Junior College, 1929
