World Literature , 2002 World Literature, World Culture Karen-Margrethe Simonsen, Jakob Stougaard-Nielsen, 2008-12-31 In a global age where people goods and cultural products transcend the boundaries of geography and temporality as never before it is only natural that literary and cultural studies turn their attention to Goethe s nineteenth century notion of a Weltliteratur Offering their own Twenty First Century perspectives across generations nationalities and disciplines the contributors to this anthology explore the idea of world literatue for what it may add of new connections and itineraries to the study of literature and culture today Covering a vast historical material from witness accounts of the fall of Constantinople to Hari Kunzru s contemporary representations of multicultural London these essays by a diverse group of scholars examine the pioneers of world literature Juan Andres Morell Goethe and Hugo Meltzl and the roles played by translation migration and literature institutions in the circulation and reception of both national and cosmopolitan literatures They illustrate how literary analysis can be enriched by attention to the border crossing itineraries followed by migrants writers publishers translators and texts thereby yielding new discoveries about writers and artists such as Catullus Manuel Vicent Jean Luc Godard Dubravka Ugresic Derek Walcott Cabral do Nascimento Thomas Pynchon Asger Jorn and Louis Paul Boon The Language of Literature , 2006 A History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe s concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics

The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen,David Damrosch,Djelal Kadir,2011-09-14 In the age of globalization the category of World Literature is increasingly important to academic teaching and research The Routledge Companion to World Literature offers a comprehensive pathway into this burgeoning and popular field Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of World Literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of World Literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in World Literature including gender politics and ethics a global perspective on the politics of World Literature The forty eight outstanding contributors to this companion offer an ideal introduction to those approaching the field for the first time or looking to further their knowledge of this extensive field Dutch Interbellum

Canons and World Literature A. Roland Holst, M. Nijhoff, J. Slauerhoff Theo D'haen,2023-09-15 This text takes a wholly new look at a major early twentieth century Dutch poet and novelist from the perspective of world literature situating his work in both a national and a world literary context as measured against contemporaries and near contemporaries such as Conrad Pound Brecht Segalen and Malraux Exemplifying how an author from a minor literature may be a major world author this book considers the debates within World Literature regarding the classification of literatures as major and minor canon formation within Dutch literature Slauerhoff s position in the Dutch tradition as well as well as his contribution to world literature particularly focusing on his East Asian poems his East Asian novels and stories and his poetry and prose set in Latin America This book is a key read for scholars and students of comparative literature world literature European literature and Dutch literature Lucid in style innovative in approach surprisingly fresh qua topic this book opens new horizons for literary studies African Literatures as World Literature Alexander Fyfe,Madhu Krishnan,2022-11-03

The enormous success of writers such as Teju Cole and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie demonstrates that African literatures are now an international phenomenon But the apparent global legibility of a small number of mostly Anglophone writers in the diaspora raises the question of how literary producers from the continent both past and present have situated their work in relation to the world and the kinds of material networks to which this corresponds This collection shows how literatures from across the African continent engage with conceptualizations of the world in relation to local social and political issues Focusing on a wide variety of geographic historical and linguistic contexts the essays in this volume seek answers to the following questions What are the topographies of the world in different literary texts and traditions What are that world's limits boundaries and possibilities How do literary modes and forms such as realism narrative poetry or the political essay affect the presentation of worldliness What are the material networks of circulation that allow African literatures to become world literature African literatures it emerges do important theoretical work that speaks to the very core of world literary studies today

Literatures of the World and the Future of Comparative Literature, 2023-08-14 The 2019 congress of the International Comparative Literature Association attracted many hundreds of scholars from all around the world to Macau This volume contains a modest selection of papers to discuss the four hottest fields of the discipline the future of comparison the position of national and diaspora literature in the context of globalization the importance of translation and the concepts of world literature The contributions cover huge geographical and cultural areas but pay special attention to the connections between Western both American and European and Asian especially Indian and East Asian literatures The literatures of the world might be different but they are also connected

Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature Theo D'haen, 2019-07-25 The recent return of world literature to the centre of literary studies has entailed an increased attention to non European literatures but in turn has also further marginalized Europe's smaller literatures Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature shows how Dutch language literature from its very beginnings in the Middle Ages to the present has not only always taken its cue from the major literary traditions of Europe and beyond but has also actively contributed to and influenced these traditions The contributors to this book focus on key works and authors providing a concise yet highly readable history of Dutch language literature and demonstrating how this literature is anchored in world literature

The Future of Postcolonial Studies Chantal Zabus,2014-11-20 The Future of Postcolonial Studies celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Empire Writes Back by the now famous troika Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths and Helen Tiffin When The Empire Writes Back first appeared in 1989 it put postcolonial cultures and their post invasion narratives on the map This vibrant collection of fifteen chapters by both established and emerging scholars taps into this early mapping while merging these concerns with present trends which have been grouped as comparing converting greening post queering and utopia The postcolonial is a centrifugal force that continues to energize globalization transnational diaspora area and queer studies Spanning the colonial period from the 1860s to the present The Future of Postcolonial Studies ventures into other postcolonies outside of the Anglophone purview In reassessing the nation state language race religion sexuality the environment and the very idea of the future this volume reasserts the notion that postcolonial is an anticipatory discourse and bears testimony to the driving energy and thus the future of postcolonial studies

User's Guide to Sears List of Subject Headings M. P. Satija,2019-11-05 The Sears List of Subject Headings an outstanding name amongst subject headings lists is used all over the world in small and medium sized libraries It has constantly been revised and kept up to date both in its methods and contents by incorporating new subjects and updated organizational machinery Being handy simple inexpensive and always current the Sears List is a convenient choice for teaching subject headings work in library schools User s Guide to Sears List of Subject Headings 2nd Edition is a companion book which although based on the 22nd edition of the Sears List should also be useful to the libraries using some previous edition. It attempts to explain the theoretical foundations, history and application of the Sears List as well as of the subject headings work in general. It explicates the various hidden potentials of the system to construct subject headings needed for local situations. The object of this small practical introduction is to be simple, clear and illustrative. The book assumes no prior knowledge either of the Sears List or of subject headings work in general. It is a manual for beginners to understand the importance of vocabulary control, the process of subject analysis, the structure and organization of the Sears List and the methods to locate, specify and construct subject headings and provide cross references for the public catalogue. Subject headings in the complex areas of languages, literatures, biographical and geographical works are given a chapter each. Review questions and exercises conclude most chapters. A bibliography and glossary are valuable features of this work.
