personal story with the story of the cultural renaissance that was flowering in Baghdad during the years of his young manhood describing how his work as a bookshop manager and a staff writer for the Iraq Times brought him friendships with many of the country's leading intellectual and literary figures. He rounds off his story by remembering how the political and cultural upheavals that accompanied the founding of Israel as well as broad hints sent back by the first arrivals in the new state left him with a deep ambivalence as he bid a last farewell to a homeland that had become hostile to its native Jews.
