

THE LAST SAFE HOUSE

A STORY OF THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD

Late one night in June 1856, a "package" is delivered to the Reid family in St. Catharines, Ontario. The package is 11-year-old Eliza Jackson, on the run from a southern plantation. She is one of many escaped slaves who followed a network of hiding places and forest trails, traveling to free northern states and later across the border into Canada. For Eliza, the Reids' home is the last safe house at the end of a long road to freedom known as the Underground Railroad.

As twelve-year-old Johanna Reid listens with horror to Eliza's story of her escape from slavery, she develops a deep admiration and respect for her new friend. The Reids' willingness to open their home to escaped slaves means that Eliza can finally be free. But one day, when the girls are alone, a slave-catcher appears at the door. For the first time, Johanna comes face-to-face with the terror Eliza has been fleeing.

Stories, information and activities bring history to life in this moving portrayal of slavery and friendship, cruelty and kindness, prejudice and courage.

BARBARA GREENWOOD, the award-winning author of A Pioneer Story (Pioneer Sampler, Houghton Mifflin) and The Kids Book of Canada, weaves together the fictional story of Eliza Jackson and Johanna Reid with factual accounts of the people and events that made the Underground Railroad a lasting symbol of freedom. Barbara lives in Toronto, Canada.

HEATHER COLLINS has been illustrating children's books for 20 years. She illustrated the award-winning A Pioneer Story and the Canadian bestseller, The Kids Cottage Book, as well as Pioneer Crafts, Mating, Writing: A Fact and Fun Book, A New Butterfly, A Seed Grows and Hungry Animals and most recently a series of nursery rhyme board books. Heather lives in Toronto.
