Forget Baudrillard? Chris Rojek, Professor Bryan S Turner, Bryan Turner, 2002-11-01 Without doubt Jean Baudrillard is one of the most important figures currently working in the area of sociology an dcultural studies but his writings infuriate as many people as they intoxcicate This collection provides a wide ranging measured assessment of Baudrillard's work The contributors examine Baudrillard's relation to consumption modernity postmodernity social theory feminism politics and culture They attempt to steer a clear course between the hype which Baudrillard himself has done much to generate and the solid value of his startling thoughts Baudrillard's ideas and style of expression provide a challenge to established academic ways of proceeding and thinking The book explores this challenge and speculates on the reason for the extreme responses to Baudrillard s work The appeal of Baudrillard s arguments is clearly discussed and his place in contemporary social theory is shrewdly assessed Baudrillard emerges as a chameleon figure but one who is obsessed with the central themes of style hypocrisy seduction simulation and fatality Although these themes abound in postmodern thought they are also evident in a certain strand of modernist thought one which embraces the writings of Baudelaire and Nietzsche Baudrillard's protestation is that he is not a postmodernist is taken seriously in this collection The balanced and accessible style of the contributions and the fairness and rigour of the assessments make this book of pressing interest to students of sociology philosophy and cultural studies Mannerist Fiction William Donoghue, 2014-03-21 In Mannerist Fiction William Donoghue re conceptualizes the history of formalism in western literature Rather than presuming that literary experimentation with form distorting space and time began in the twentieth century with Modernism Donoghue identifies the age of Copernicus as the crucible for the first experiments in spatial de formation which appeared in mannerist painting and literature With wide ranging erudition Mannerist Fiction connects these literary and pictorial developments and traces their repetition and evolution over the next five hundred years Time and again Donoghue explains scientific and literary paradigm shifts have occurred in parallel Rabelais and Jonson wrote in the aftermath of changes in the western sense of space wrought by Copernicus and the voyages of discovery Jonathan Swift and the Marquis de Sade in the age of Newton Thomas Pynchon in the age of Einstein With his analysis Donoghue establishes disfigurement and deformation as perennial sources of literary Atlantic Afterlives in Contemporary Fiction S. Ahlberg, 2016-04-08 Atlantic Afterlives in Contemporary Fiction fascination offers fresh readings of what has been called transatlantic literature In selected twentieth and twenty first century texts it discovers a shift from oceanic place based knowledge to an atmospheric placeless circulation of information Consonant with the displacements of the Information Age this book reads contemporary narrative as it imagines and navigates today s virtual spaces An important conclusion of the book is that intellectual resources are finite and should be used sustainably Thus arguing against a conventional comparative approach this book proposes reading practices that resist the tendency toward an oversupply of reworked literary contexts that seems bent on matching the reach of the World Wide Web Instead the book reimagines place as a practice in the way it is communicated and narrated Ultimately this book empowers the reader to Recovered Legacies Keith Lawrence, Floyd Cheung, 2005-07-29 reimagine a future for narrative in the Information Age Rediscovering the writings of early Asian America The Material, the Real, and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow, 2004-01-01 In The Material the Real and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow explores the fascinating interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern French writers Arthur Rimbaud Guillaume Apollinaire Francis Ponge and Jacques R da She demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern French poetry for today s readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post Baudelairian lyric Harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry Where purer forms of postmodernist thinking have stressed the dissolution and dispersal of the human subject new approaches informed by cultural studies autobiography theory and gender studies work to recover fictions of experience and retrieve submerged narratives of the self Probing the activity of textual self recovery among the debris of history and fantasy visuality and desire and culture and corporeality The Material the Real and the Fractured Self imparts something of the startling beauty and the raw urgency of poetry writing across the broad modern period Revista de estudios hispánicos University of Alabama.
