Beyond Cadfael Lucy C. Barnhouse, Winston Black, 2023-06-01
Medievalism and medieval medicine are vibrant subfields of medieval studies enjoying sustained scholarly attention and popularity among undergraduates. Popular perceptions of medieval medicine however remain understudied. This book aims to fill that lacuna by providing a multifaceted study of medical medievalism defined as modern representations of medieval medicine intended for popular audiences. The volume takes as its starting point the fictional medieval detective Brother Cadfael whose observations on bodies, herbs and death have shaped many popular conceptions of medieval medicine in the Anglophone world. The ten contributing authors move beyond Cadfael by exploring global medical medievalisms in a range of genres and cultural contexts. Beyond Cadfael is organized into three sections the first of which engages with how disease, injury and the sick are imagined in fictitious medieval worlds. The second on doctors at work looks at medieval medical practice in novels, films and television and public commemorative practice. These essays examine how practitioners are represented and imagined in medieval and pseudo medieval worlds. The third section discusses medicine designed for and practiced by women in the Middle Ages and today with a focus on East Asian medical traditions. These essays are guided by the recognition that medieval medical practices are often in dialogue with contemporary medical practices that fall outside the norms of Western biomedicine.

Community Building in East Asia Lee Lai To, Zarina Othman, 2016-09-01 This volume is a collection of papers written by nationals or former nationals of the respective country in ASEAN and Northeast Asia Unlike other works written by scholars outside ASEAN or East Asia it offers an insider's point of view of the 10 ASEAN states China Japan and South Korea on regional community building While a nationalist perspective may permeate throughout the study it is also clear that pursuing regional cooperation is considered to be important by the respective author denoting the non exclusivity between nationalism and regionalism and the mutual reinforcement of the two Each author of this volume has made a deliberate effort to introduce and survey the developmental challenges and experiences of his or her country from a historical perspective All authors without exception have emphasized the importance and advantages in staying with ASEAN or linking up with ASEAN

by China Japan and South Korea in political security economic and socio cultural terms Their papers also reveal that the self help and self strengthening mechanism emphasized by the ASEAN Plus Three process will take time to bear fruits In the meantime it seems that bilateral interactions and cooperation between ASEAN and Northeast Asian states remain to be more dominant as shown in this study One can argue that bilateral interactions are the building block of multilateralism interactions To be sure there is a deliberate effort in this study to highlight unity in diversity in East Asia in general and ASEAN in particular
