Survivor, 89, of Minnesota
Civil War Group Honors
Buddies at Banquet

Stillwater, Minn., July 21—(U.P.) —Charles Lockwood, 89-year-old last survivor of Minnesota's Last Man club, paid another debt of memory today to the 99 Civil war volunteers who marched away with him to the battlefront 70 years ago.

"It doesn't seem just right for me to be all alone," he said, "but maybe pretty soon I'll be marching after them to the place where there are no wars."

Lockwood told the story of his comrades and of the club which they founded at a banquet tonight attended by more than 100 state officials and veterans of other wars.

Thirty-three vacant chairs draped in black represented the departed members of the club. The club was closed out a year ago today when Lockwood, straight and sprightly despite a long life of hard work, drank a toast from the bottle of wine.

"Maybe this will be the last year," Lockwood mused at the banquet, "but I'd like to be here to vote for President Hoover in 1932, though."
