Conflicting Claims to East India Company Wealth, 1600-1650 Julia Schleck, 2025-10-01 Centered on moral critiques of wealth and the unequal distribution of risks and rewards in the lengthy voyages required by the East Indies trade this book examines the debates surrounding England's earliest global trading ventures Arguments over the staggering loss of lives and national resources and struggles over control of the new trade in luxuries reveal the forging of rationales justifying the new capitalist inequalities Yet Company servants traveling abroad to conduct the risky trade resisted this newly coalescing social formation through strategic disobedience to their masters will controlling information and promoting ignorance when it served their financial and sexual purposes Conflicting Claims to East India Company Wealth 1600 1650 interrogates the forces that shaped England's earliest forays into capitalist imperialism by tracing the battles over corporate control of men's finances marriages and bare survival at the dawn of its global trade

The Cambridge History of Travel Writing Nandini Das, Tim Youngs, 2019-01-24 Bringing together original contributions from scholars across the world this volume traces the history of travel writing from antiquity to the Internet age It examines travel texts of several national or linguistic traditions introducing readers to the global contexts of the genre From wilderness to the urban from Nigeria to the polar regions from mountains to rivers and the desert this book explores some of the key places and physical features represented in travel writing Chapters also consider the employment in travel writing of the diary the letter visual images maps and poetry as well as the relationship of travel writing to fiction science translation and tourism Gender based and ecocritical approaches are among those surveyed Together the thirty seven chapters here underline the richness and complexity of this genre

On the Way to the "(Un)Known"? Doris Gruber, Arno Strohmeier, 2022-09-06 This volume brings together twenty two authors from various countries who analyze travelogues on the Ottoman Empire between the fifteenth and nineteenth centuries The travelogues reflect the colorful diversity of the genre presenting the experiences of individuals and groups from China to Great Britain The spotlight falls on interdependencies of travel writing and historiography geographic spaces and specific practices such as pilgrimages the hajj and the harem Other points of emphasis include the importance of nationalism the place and time of printing representations of fashion and concepts of masculinity and femininity By displaying close comparative and distant readings the volume offers new insights into perceptions of otherness the circulation of knowledge intermedial relations gender roles and digital analysis

Jews in the Realm of the Sultans Yaron Ben-Naeh, 2008 Jewish society in the Ottoman Empire has not been the subject of systematic research The seventeenth century is the main object of this study since it was a formative era For Ottoman Jews the Ottoman century constituted an era of gradual acculturation to changing reality parallel to the changing character of the Ottoman state Continuous changes and developments shaped anew the character of this Jewry the core of what would later become known as Sephardi Jewry Yaron Ben Naeh draws from primary and secondary Hebrew Ottoman and European sources the image of Jewish society in the Ottoman Empire In the chapters he leads the reader from the overall urban framework to individual aspects Beginning with the physical environment he moves on to discuss their relationships with the majority society followed by a description and analysis of the congregation its organization and structure and from there to the character of Ottoman Jewish society and its nuclear cell the family Special emphasis is placed throughout the work on the interaction with Muslim society and the resulting acculturation that affected all aspects and all levels of Jewish life in the Empire In this the author challenges the widespread view that sees this community as being stagnant and self segregated as well as the accepted concept of a traditional Jewish society under Islam

Translators, Interpreters, and Cultural Negotiators F. Federici, D. Éirinn & Iran go Brách Mansour Bonakdarian, 2023-12-05 This book analyzes particular patterns of nationalist self configuration and nationalist uses of memory counter memory and historical amnesia in Ireland from roughly around the time of the emergence of a broad based non sectarian Irish nationalist platform in the late eighteenth century the Society of United Irishmen until Ireland's partition and the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 In approaching Irish nationalism through the particular historical lens of Iran this book underscores the fact that Irish nationalism during this period and even earlier always utilized a historical paradigm that grounded Anglo Irish encounters and Irish nationalism in the broader world history a process that I term worlding of Ireland In effect Irish nationalism was always politically and culturally cosmopolitan in outlook in some formulations even in the case of many nationalists who resorted to insular and narrowly defined exclusionary ethnic and or religious formulations of the Irish nation Irish nationalists as nationalists in many other parts of the world recurrently imagined their own history either in contrast to or as reflected in the histories of peoples and lands elsewhere even while claiming the historical uniqueness of the Irish experience Present in a wide range of Irish nationalist political cultural and historical utterances were assertions of past and or present affinities with other peoples and lands

The Commentaries of D. García de Silva y Figueroa on his Embassy to Shāh 'Abbās I of Persia on Behalf of Philip III, King of Spain Jeffrey Scott Turley, George Bryan Souza, 2017-06-06 The Commentaries is the first complete English language translation with complete annotations of a unique and extraordinary memoir from the pen of the erudite Spanish soldier diplomat D García de Silva y Figueroa over the course of his embassy to Persia 1614-1624 The Commentaries transcend the travel literature genre emerging as a precocious European intellectual global history that is remarkable for its encyclopedic breadth its historical depth and its ethnographic and even artistic sensitivity The Commentaries will be of interest to historians ethnographers and literary critics or anyone with an interest in early modern European accounts of the encounter between the Portuguese and Spanish Empires and Safavid Persia during the early modern period
