Sir Robin Day Memoirs:

Two Decades in British Politics Bill Jones, Lynton J. Robins, 1992 Celebrates the 21st anniversary of The Politics Association and offers a reassessment of the continuities and changes in the governments led by Wilson Heath Callaghan and Thatcher The book asks whether 1979 was a political watershed or an undistinguished step in Britain's economic decline

Lord Gnome's Literary Companion Francis Wheen, 1994 His review has got to be in by mid day tomorrow at about 9 pm his mind will grow relatively clear and until the small hours he will sit skipping expertly through one book after another and laying each one down with the comment God what tripe Then suddenly he will snap into it All the stale old phrases a book that no one should miss something memorable on every page jump into their places like iron filings obeying the magnet Thus did George Orwell writing forty years ago in Confessions of a Book Reviewer describe the labours of a typical literary hack Precious little has changed over the intervening decades the servility of the satirical magazine Private Eye Lord Gnome's Literary Companion assembles in thematic order the best of these columns to present an astringent rude and funny survey of publishers and the published

Memories of Maggie Iain Dale, 2000 Memories of Maggie brings together personal reminiscences and anecdotes from those who experienced close encounters with the Iron Lady including Norman Tebbit Cecil Parkinson Kenneth Baker George Bush Helmut Kohl John Gummer and William Hague

Sand and Steel Peter Caddick-Adams, 2019-04-22 Part of a trilogy covering the last year of fighting in the European theater of World War II and in time for the 75th anniversary of D Day Sand and Steel gives us the full story of the Allied invasion of France

White Heat Dominic Sandbrook, 2015-02-05 An active pleasure to read Mail on Sunday Harold Wilson's famous reference to white heat captured the optimistic spirit of a society in the midst of breathtaking change From the gaudy pleasures of Swinging London to the tragic bloodshed in Northern Ireland from the intrigues of Westminster to the drama of the World Cup British life seemed to have taken on a dramatic new momentum The memories images and colourful personalities of those heady times still resonate today mop tops and mini skirts strikes and demonstrations Carnaby Street and Kings Road Harold Wilson and Edward Heath Mary Quant and Jean Shrimpton Enoch Powell and Mary Whitehouse Marianne Faithfull and Mick Jagger In this wonderfully rich and readable historical narrative Dominic Sandbrook looks behind the myths of the Swinging Sixties to unearth the contradictions of a society caught between optimism and decline

Electing Our Masters Jon Lawrence, 2009-03-26 In this engagingly written history of electioneering in Britain from the eighteenth century to the present Jon Lawrence explores the changing relationship between politicians and public Throughout this period he argues British politics has been characterized by bruising public rituals intended to bestow legitimacy on politicians by obliging them to face an often irreverent public on broadly equal terms Face to face interaction was central both to the disorderly civic rituals of eighteenth century politics and to the Victorian and Edwardian election meeting Perhaps surprisingly it also survived in pretty rude health between the wars despite the emergence of the new mass communication media of radio and cinema But the same cannot be said of the post war era and the rise of television Today most politicians are content merely to offer the semblance of meaningful engagement walkabouts canvassing and meetings are all designed to ensure that most senior politicians come into contact only with the smiling faces of that dwindling band the party faithful Lloyd George and Churchill might have relished the rough and tumble of a tumultuous public meeting but their modern counterparts tend to be more risk averse and not without reason given that the cameras are always present to capture their mishaps But this is not another nostalgic lament for a lost golden age On the contrary Electing Our Masters argues that politicians frequently still crave the kudos to be derived from bruising encounters with an irreverent public hence Tony Blair's so called masochism strategy in the 2005 election campaign with its succession of gruelling sessions before live studio audiences As Lawrence points out the vital question for today is can we persuade our broadcasters that such encounters must form a staple of modern mediated politics

The Review of the BBC's Royal Charter Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: Select Committee on the BBC Charter Review, 2005-11 The Committee's report examines the Government's proposals for the future of the BBC as set out in the Government's Green Paper A strong BBC independent of government published by the DCMS in March 2005 for consultation The Committee's conclusions include i that the BBC's mandate and structure should be defined in statute rather than by Royal Charter ii the licence fee is the best way to fund the BBC over the next decade although the system for agreeing the cost of the fee should be more transparent with the BBC bid subject to independent investigation by the NAO iii the Government rather than the licence fee payer should fund the costs of the analogue switch off and iv the Government's proposals for reforming the governance and regulation of the BBC are confusing misguided and unworkable A further report is due to be published by the Committee in Spring 2005 which will focus on the role of the BBC in the nations and the regions the BBC World Service and the broadcasting of sport and religion

Dance of the Peacocks James McNeish, 2013-03-01 The true story of five talented young men in exile in the time of Hitler and Mao Tse Tung Altogether they knew five wars three revolutions and in the case of Ian Milner accused in the Cold War of being a spy a slander Regarded by one critic as the best book published in New Zealand in the last twenty years this is a fascinating story based on letters diaries and interviews in several countries It is the story of a group of Rhodes scholars five young men James Bertram Geoffrey Cox Dan Davin Ian Milner John Mulgan caught up in the turmoil of their times Spain Hitler's Germany Greece and North Africa Eastern Europe China They left New Zealand in the thirties for the dreaming spires of Oxford War intervened Only one returned

Communicating Politics in the Twenty-First Century Karen Sanders, 2017-09-16 From propaganda to protests this book provides an in depth study of politics and the media today Using historical and contemporary examples Sanders covers the essential theory and key research in the field Topical and comprehensive this book covers everything students need to know about the global world of political communication

Independent Television in Britain Jeremy Potter, 2016-07-27 The ITV network was designed as a federation of companies different in size and character jointly and severally constructing programme schedules in which strands of entertainment were interwoven with news bulletins drama with sport feature films with documentaries church services with broadcasting for schools The purpose of this volume is to convey some impression of diversity by illustrating and illuminating the rich assortment of companies and programmes making up ITV s overall service to the public in the operation of a plural system on a single television channel during a peak period in British broadcasting

Mr Wonderful Takes A Cruise John Nott,2011-06-08 What happened when former Tory cabinet minister and now bus pass wielding OAP Sir John Nott decided to discover modern London for himself Real London Beyond Kensington Chelsea As far even as Tooting It all began when Sir John decided to take a crash course in ballroom dancing for an upcoming cruise holiday Whilst flicking through the Ballroom Dancing section of the Yellow Pages directory he chanced upon the Mr Wonderful Tea Dances After a single trip to a Mr Wonderful lunch in Bromley the onetime Defence Secretary was hooked And so began an extraordinary odyssey in which Sir John discovered a whole new side to Britain and began to question the notion of what exactly it means to be British in this day and age In the name of research he risked reconnaissance to China White Spearmint Rhino and the Countryside March His observations along the way are irreverent and hilarious whether venting his spleen over EU farming regulations or enjoying a colourful wander round Tooting market varied emotional experiences Having made his name as the National Trust's country houses expert and a writer on architecture he now established himself as a novelist and biographer With some misgivings he published his wartime diaries little imagining that it was as a diarist that he would achieve lasting fame David Steel David Torrance, 2012-09-18

Michael Foot was speaking affectionately when in 1979 he quipped that David Steel had apparently gone from rising hope to elder statesman without any intervening period whatsoever But the remark also neatly captured a career which had seen the Boy David enter the House of Commons aged only twenty six become leader of the Liberal Party in 1976 at thirty eight years old one of the youngest party leaders in British history and then within months of his election lead his party into a controversial Lib Lab Pact with James Callaghan's Labour government Taking the lead in demanding cooperation with the new Social Democratic Party Steel helped the Alliance poll an unprecedented share of the vote for a third party in the 1983 election Alongside David Owen of the SDP he fought another memorable election four years later as one of the two Davids and later became the major force behind the troubled birth of the Liberal Democrat Party Based on extensive interviews and fresh archival research this biography with which Steel has cooperated charts both the rising hope and elder statesman phases in Steel's career as well as his role as the first Presiding Officer of the Scottish Parliament and his political legacy in light of the post 2010 Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition New Statesman Society, 1989-10 Diary from 1659 to 1669, with Memoir Samuel Pepys, 1890 MJBQC Michael Beloff KC, 2022-04-21 Michael Beloff QC is one of the outstanding lawyers of his generation In this insightful and intimate book he brings the reader on a journey through a career of highlights These include his election as head of the Bar Association's administrative law and sports law and his presidency of Trinity College Oxford His judicial roles included appointments at the Courts of Appeal of Jersey and Guernsey He arbitrated at five summer Olympics and chaired the ethics and disciplinary bodies in two major international sports cricket and athletics Such a stellar career can't help but result in a fascinating memoir Long Road from Jarrow Stuart Maconie, 2017-07-20 The Sunday Times Bestseller A tribute and a rallying call Guardian Three and half weeks Three hundred miles I saw roaring arterial highway and silent lanes candlelit cathedrals and angry men in bad pubs The Britain of 1936 was a land of beef paste sandwiches and drill halls Now we are nation of vaping and nail salons pulled pork and salted caramel In the autumn of 1936 some 200 men from the Tyneside town of Jarrow marched 300 miles to London in protest against the destruction of their towns and industries Precisely 80 years on Stuart Maconie walks from north to south retracing the route of the emblematic Jarrow Crusade Travelling down the country's spine Maconie moves through a land that is in some ways very much the same as the England of the 30s with its political turbulence austerity north south divide food banks and of course football mania Yet in other ways it is completely unrecognisable Maconie visits the great cities as well as the sleepy hamlets quiet lanes and roaring motorways He meets those with stories to tell and whose voices build a funny complex and entertaining tale of Britain then and now The Joy of Essex Pete May, 2012-10-15 Liberty Equality Tiptree jam In 1990

Essex Man swaggered onto the scene in his shiny suit driving a flash car and with his white stiletto wearing missus on his arm. It was a step up from sovereign rings and done up Ford Cortinas but brash vulgar and breathtakingly right wing. Mr and Mrs Essex were still the target for pity, condemnation and nationwide mockery. Twenty odd years on something strange has happened. From Russell Brand and Jamie Oliver to Phill Jupitus and Ray Winstone via the runaway success of TV shows like The Only Way is Essex and Gavin and Stacey, Essex is now the most iconic county in the UK and the essence of Essex is everywhere. But there's more to the county than stereotypes as Brentwood reared Pete May discovers when he takes an eye opening journey through the Essex tundra. Along the way May finds bluebells in Billericay, sculpture in Harlow, Hollywood style signs on the A127, below sea level life in Canvey Island and endless chip shops and asks the vital question: is the only way Essex or is there maybe another one?
