Readings in Gender in Africa Andrea Cornwall, 2005 This is a comprehensive overview on the existing literature on gender in Africa It covers areas such as Western perceptions colonial morality religion and politics

Dialogue and Difference M. Waller, S. Marcos, 2016-09-27 Calling for inclusion and dialogue these essays by an international group of feminist scholars and activists stress the need to put into relation seemingly discrepant approaches to reality and to scholarship in order to build coalitions across the usual North South and East West divides This diverse group of authors who spent fourteen weeks working collaboratively dispense with unity and seek instead to use dialogue and difference in their production of knowledge about effective political action The dialogues materialized here among women's movements that have emerged within different contexts and cosmologies take feminisms challenges to contemporary corporate globalization in new empirical and theoretical directions

Feminism and Modernity

in Anglophone African Women's Writing Dobrota Pucherová, 2022-07-29 This book re reads the last 60 years of Anglophone African women's writing from a transnational and trans historical feminist perspective rather than postcolonial from which these texts have been traditionally interpreted Such a comparative frame throws into relief patterns across time and space that make it possible to situate this writing as an integral part of women's literary history Revisiting this literature in a comparative context with Western women writers since the 18th century the author highlights how invocations of tradition have been used by patriarchy everywhere to subjugate women the similarities between women's struggles worldwide and the feminist imagination it produced The author argues that in the 21st century African feminism has undergone a major epistemic shift from a culturally exclusive to a relational feminism that conceptualizes African femininity through the risky opening of oneself to otherness transculturation and translation Like Western feminists in the 1960s contemporary African women writers are turning their attention to the female body as the prime site of women's oppression and freedom reframing feminism as a demand for universal human rights and actively shaping global discourses on gender modernity and democracy The book will be of interest to students and researchers of African literature but also feminist literary scholars and comparatists more generally

Against Empire Zillah Eisenstein, 2004-08 In Against Empire Zillah Eisenstein extends her critique of neoliberal globalization Faced with an aggressive American empire hostage to ideological extremism and violently promoting the narrowest of interests she looks to a global anti war movement to counter US power

Women Empowerment and the Feminist Agenda in Africa Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipso, 2023-10-24 This book argues that African women's lived experiences are often spoken about authoritatively by people who are not included within this demographic relegating these women to the role of spectators in their own stories The dominant narratives of African womanhood legitimized by intellectual discourse are neither written by African women nor Africans in general This book seeks to place feminism in Africa into its historical context by revisiting the experiences practices vision and theories of feminism and gender in Africa It is intended to serve as a comprehensive introduction to the field and provide a starting point for further and more advanced study of the nexus of feminism gender and development in Africa Women Empowerment and the Feminist Agenda in Africa is designed to initiate post graduate research and studies in the social sciences for directed and critical inquiry into the nature of feminist and gender politics and power relations in Africa It is written for researchers academics and advanced tertiary studies although professional gender and feminist organizations especially those in Africa or focusing on Africa will also find a wealth of information The book is recommended for university libraries post graduate students and staff the non governmental community in Africa women movement organizations in Africa independent researchers and academics and the African community at large

Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins, 2002-06-01 In spite of the double burden of racial and gender discrimination African American women have developed a rich intellectual tradition that is not widely known In Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins explores the words and ideas of Black feminist intellectuals as well as those African American women outside academe She provides an interpretive framework for the work of such prominent Black feminist thinkers as Angela Davis bell hooks Alice Walker and Audre Lorde The result is a superbly crafted book that provides the first synthetic overview of Black feminist thought

African Families in a Global Context Göran Therborn, 2004 The family is one of the most important institutions of African societies Where is it going today How is it affected by global processes cultural and political as well as economic How does it compare with family developments in other parts of the world These are questions which this book addresses The contributors deal with the African family in a comparative global context focusing on patriarchy sexuality and marriage and fertility biological and social reproduction in Ghana under conditions of globalization and structural adjustment Nigerian marriage relations under the impact of current conditions and family changes in the North Britain from a family perspective of the South South Africa

The Womanist Reader Layli Phillips, 2006 Comprehensive in its coverage The Womanist Reader is the first volume to anthologize the major works of womanist scholarship Charting the course of womanist theory from its genesis as Alice Walker's African American feminism through Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi's African womanism and Clenora Hudson Weems' Africana womanism to its present day expression as a global anti oppressionist perspective rooted in the praxis of everyday women of color this interdisciplinary reader traces the rich and diverse history of a quarter century of womanist thought Featuring selections from over a dozen disciplines by top womanist scholars from around the world plus several critiques of womanism an extensive bibliography of womanist sources and the first ever systematic treatment of womanist thought on its own terms Layli Phillips has assembled a unique and groundbreaking compilation

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 2011-04-27 Now in its fourth edition this handbook is an essential resource for those interested in all aspects of qualitative research and has been extensively revised and updated to cover new topics including applied ethnography queer theory and auto ethnography

Black Feminist Thought, 30th Anniversary Edition Patricia Hill Collins, 2022-05-16 In the first major update to this classic book in many years Collins traces the history and contours of Black women's ideas and actions to argue that Black feminist thought is the discourse that fosters Black women's survival persistence and success against the odds Through meticulous research that synthesizes the important intellectual work done by Black women Collins's timely update demonstrates that Black women's ideas and actions are not marginal concerns but rather are central to the future of social justice within democratic societies The combination of the text's classic arguments and a preface and epilogue written expressly for this edition speak to people who have long been working on social justice and to a new generation of readers who are encountering the ideas and actions of Black women for the first time For this 30th year anniversary edition Patricia Hill Collins examines how the ideas in this classic text speak to contemporary social issues and identifies the directions needed for the future of Black feminist thought

30-Second Feminism Jess McCabe, 2019-10 30 Second Feminism offers readers the fastest way to enter the world of sexual politics fully briefed with an overview of the main ideas in Feminism today and an explanation of how they came into being Women Filmmakers Jacqueline Levitin, Judith Plessis, Valerie Raoul, 2016-02-29 This wide ranging volume of new work brings together women filmmakers and critics who speak about what has changed over the past twenty years Including such filmmakers as Margarethe von Trotta Deepa Mehta and Pratibha Parmar and such critics as E Ann Kaplan this comprehensive volume addresses political artistic and economic questions vital The Politics of Cultural Knowledge Njoki Wane, Arlo Kempf, Marlon Simmons, 2011-10-25 The advent and implementation of European colonialism have disrupted innumerable epistemological geographies around the globe Countless cultural ways of knowing and local educational practices have in some way been displaced and dislocated within the universalizing project of the Euro Colonial Empire This book revisits the colonial relations of culture and education questions various embedded imperial procedures and extricates the strategic offerings of local ways of knowing which resisted colonial imposition The contributors of this collection are concerned with the ways in which colonial education forms the governing edict for local peoples In The Politics of Cultural Knowledge the authors offer an alternative reading of conventional discussions of culture and what counts as knowledge concerning race class gender sexuality identity and difference in the context of the Diaspora Feminism Without Illusions Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, 1991 In arguing that feminism has neither adequately acknowledged its ties to individualism nor squarely faced the extent to which many of its campaigns for social justice are based on the insistence of rights for the individual over good of the community this Media Across the African Diaspora Omotayo O. Banjo, 2018-07-04 This volume gathers scholarship from varying disciplinary perspectives to explore media owned or created by members of the African diaspora examine its relationship with diasporic audiences and consider its impact on mainstream culture in general Contributors highlight creations and contributions of people of the African diaspora the interconnections of Black American and African centered media and the experiences of audiences and users across the African diaspora positioning members of the Black and African Diaspora as subjects of their own narratives active participants and creators In so doing this volume addresses issues of identity culture audiences and global influence Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Postcolonial Imaginations and Moral Representations in African Literature and Culture Chielozona Eze, 2011-12-16 The postcolonial African culture as it is discoursed in the academia is largely influenced by Africa's response to colonialism To the degree that it is a response it is to considerably reactive and lacks forceful moral incentives for social critical consciousness and nation building Quite on the contrary it allows especially African political leaders to luxuriate in the delusions of moral rectitude imploring at will the evil of imperialism as a buffer to their disregard of their people This book acknowledges the social and psychological devastations of colonialism on the African world It however argues that the totality of African intellectual response to colonialism and Western imperialism is equally if not more damaging to the African world In what ways does the average African leader indeed the average African judge and respond to his world How does he conceive of his responsibility towards his community and society The most obvious impact of African response to colonialism is the implicit search for a pristine innocent paradigm in for instance literary philosophical social political and gender studies This search has its own moral implication in the sense that it makes the taking of responsibility on individual and social level highly difficult Focusing on the moral impact of responses to colonialism in Africa and the African Diaspora this book analyzes the various manifestations of delusions of moral innocence that has held the African leadership from the onerous task of bearing responsibility for their countries it argues that one of the ways to recast the African leaders responsibility towards Africa is to let go on the one hand the gaze of the West and on the other of the search for the innocent African experience and cultures Relying on the insights of thinkers such as Frantz Fanon Wole Soyinka Kwame Anthony Appiah Achille Mbembe and Wolfgang Iversen this book suggests new approaches to interpreting African experiences It discusses select African works of fiction as a paradigm for new interpretations of African experiences

Hindu Gods in West Africa Albert Wuaku, 2013-07-11 In Hindu Gods in West Africa Wuaku offers an account of the histories beliefs and practices of the Hindu Monastery of Africa and the Radha Govinda Temple two Hindu Temples in Ghana Using historical material and data from his field work in southern Ghana Wuaku shows how these two Hindu Temples build their traditions on popular Ghanaian religious notions about the powerful magicality of India s Hindu gods He explores how Ghanaian soldiers who served in the colonial armies in India Sri Lanka and Burma during World War II Bollywood films and local magicians have contributed to the production and the spreading of these cultural ideas He argues that while Ghanaian worshippers appropriated and deployed the alien Hindu religious world through their own cultural ideas as they engage Hindu beliefs and rituals in negotiating challenges their own worldviews would change considerably
