of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke s empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language

Imagining the Present Richard Kalina, 2012-11-12 Bringing together twenty nine of Lawrence Alloway s most influential essays in one volume this fascinating collection provides valuable perspectives on the art and visual culture of the second half of the twentieth century Lawrence Alloway ranks among the most important critics of his time and his contributions to the spirited and contentious dialogue of his era make for fascinating reading These twenty nine provocative essays from 1956 to 1980 from the man who invented the term pop art bring art film iconography cybernetics and culture together for analysis and investigation and do indeed examine the context content and role of the critic in art and visual culture Featuring a critical commentary by Richard Kalina and preface by series editor Saul Ostrow Imagining the Present will be an enthralling read for all art and visual culture students

Saving Abstraction Ryan Dohoney, 2019-09-16 Saving Abstraction Morton Feldman the de Menils and the Rothko Chapel tells the story of the 1972 premier of Morton Feldman s music for the Rothko Chapel in Houston Built in 1971 for people of all faiths or none the chapel houses 14 monumental paintings by famed abstract expressionist Mark Rothko who had committed suicide only one year earlier Upon its opening visitors responses to the chapel ranged from spiritual succor to abject tragedy the latter being closest to Rothko s intentions However the chapel s founders art collectors and philanthropists Dominique and John de Menil opened the space to provide an ecumenically and spiritually affirming environment that spoke to their avant garde approach to Catholicism A year after the chapel opened Morton Feldman s musical work Rothko Chapel proved essential to correcting the unintentionally grave atmosphere of the de Menil s chapel translating Rothko s existential dread into sacred ecumenism for visitors Author Ryan Dohoney reconstructs the network of artists musicians and patrons who collaborated on the premier of Feldman s music for the space and documents the ways collaborators struggled over fundamental questions about the emotional efficacy of art and its potential translation into religious feeling Rather than frame the debate as a conflict of art versus religion Dohoney argues that the popular claim of modernism s autonomy from religion has been overstated and that the two have been continually intertwined in an agonistic tension that animates many 20th century artistic collaborations
