Worlds in Shadow Patrick Nunn, 2021-08-05 Discover ancient civilizations that have disappeared beneath the ocean's surface and explore how the science of submergence adds to our knowledge of human history The traces of much of human history and that which preceded it lie beneath the ocean surface broken up dispersed often buried and always mysterious This is fertile ground for speculation even myth making but also a topic on which geologists and climatologists have increasingly focused in recent decades We now know enough to tell the true story of some of the continents and islands that have disappeared throughout Earth's history to explain how and why such things happened and to unravel the effects of submergence on the rise and fall of human civilizations In Worlds in Shadow Patrick Nunn sifts the facts from the fiction using the most up to date research to work out which submerged places may have actually existed versus those that probably only exist in myth He looks at the descriptions of recently drowned lands that have been well documented those that are plausible and those that almost certainly didn't exist Going even further back Patrick examines the presence of more ancient lands submerged beneath the waves in a time that even the longest reaching folk memory can't touch Such places may have played important roles in human evolution but can only be reconstructed through careful geological detective work Exploring how lands become submerged whether from sea level changes tectonic changes gravity collapse giant waves or volcanoes helps us determine why when and where land may disappear in the future and what might be done to prevent it

things she said she can see An old family friend and neighbor However this old friend is not what he seems and the old stories he shares with Alice are more than just fables and old myths Gods are real and so are demons Alice might share a name with a heroine from a classic story but the rabbit she is chasing is much older and was in myth long before humans could no longer see through the veil With the help of a wily fox and a legendary hero she must try to save the world from a darkness created to destroy it A Journey to the west inspired tale of a girl named Alice and her journey to find a missing rabbit Scribner's Magazine ... ,1922 In the Shadow of the Hills George Clifford Shedd,1919 Going the Distance Michael Joyce,2013-09-17 Finalist for the 2013 ForeWord IndieFab Book of the Year Award in the Literary Category Finalist for the 2013 CASEY Award presented by Spitball The Literary Baseball Magazine Going the Distance is a baseball novel with a difference a multilayered love story a celebration of both America s game and the New York landscape John Jack Flynn was a major league pitcher with all star promise But on the day of the 1979 All Star game he finds himself back in the North Country of New York where he was born his career cut short by an injury no recollection as to how he came to be back there with a beautiful woman he doesn t recognize beside him in the passenger seat of his car The mystery of this passenger is but the first of many mysteries in this richly poetic deeply moving and sometimes comic novel Flynn faces losses much greater than the end of an athletic career In a journey both to recover his past and to find a place and time to begin life anew he faces perhaps the most difficult decision a human being must make In the process he garners support from a band of magical characters a mystical girl who tells fortunes with baseball cards a onetime bird dog baseball scout who dresses in a hazmat body suit to avoid polluting himself with human contact a former teammate a homerun hitter and juju man who comes to the rescue from the sky and most of all that woman beside Flynn who teaches him how to love again or perhaps for the first time Scribner's Magazine Edward Livermore Burlingame,Robert Bridges,Alfred Sheppard Dashiell,Harlan Logan,1922 Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre Tony McCaffrey,2023-04-26 Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre offers unique insight into the question of voice in learning disabled theatre and what is gained and lost in making performance It is grounded in the author s 18 years of making theatre with Different Light Theatre company in Christchurch New Zealand and includes contributions from the artists themselves This book draws on an extensive archive of performer interviews recordings of rehearsal processes and informal logs of travelling together and sharing experience These accounts engage with the practical aesthetics of theatre making as well as their much wider ethical and political implications relevant to any collaborative process seeking to represent the under or unrepresented Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre asks how care and support can be tempered with artistic challenge and rigour and presents a case for how listening learning disabled artists to speech encourages attunement to indigenous knowledge and the cries of the planet in the current socio ecological crisis This is a vital and valuable book for anyone interested in learning disabled theatre either as a performer director dramaturg critic or spectator God and the
