Smack In The Middle Of Life:

One Native Life Richard Wagamese, 2009 In 2005 award winning writer Richard Wagamese moved with his partner to a cabin outside Kamloops B C In the crisp mountain air Wagamese felt a peace he d seldom known before Abused and abandoned as a kid he d grown up feeling there was nowhere he belonged For years only alcohol and moves from town to town seemed to ease the pain In One Native Life Wagamese looks back down the road he has travelled in reclaiming his identity and talks about the things he has learned as a human being a man and an Ojibway in his fifty two years Whether he s writing about playing baseball running away with the circus attending a sacred bundle ceremony or meeting Pierre Trudeau he tells these stories in a healing spirit Through them Wagamese celebrates the learning journey his life has been Free of rhetoric and anger despite the horrors he has faced Wagamese s prose resonates with a peace that has come from acceptance Acceptance is an Aboriginal principle and he has come to see that we are all neighbours here One Native Life is his tribute to the people the places and the events that have allowed him to stand in the sunshine and celebrate being alive

Gen X at Middle Age in Popular Culture Pamela W. Hollander, 2020-12-10 Born roughly between 1964 and 1980 Generation X has received much less critical attention than the two generations that precede and follow it the Baby Boomers and Millennials This essay collection examines representations of Generation X in contemporary popular culture including in television movies music and internet sources Drawing on generational theory cultural studies theory race theory and feminist theory the essays in this volume consider the past identities of Generation X relationships with members of younger generations modern appropriation of Generation X aesthetics interactions of Generation X members with family and the existential values of Generation X

Gooney Bird Greene and Her True Life Adventures Kent R. Brown, 2005 Summer has come to a crashing halt in the little town of Watertown The kids don t want to be back in school they are listless and bored Suddenly the classroom door bursts open and there wearing pajamas and cowboy boots stands red headed Gooney Bird Greene Hi My name is Gooney Bird Greene that s like the color with a silent e on the end and I like to be smack in the middle of everything The class is never the same again Gooney Bird speaks with confidence and dresses in outrageous outfits including Capri pants blue knee socks high topped basketball sneakers and elbow length black gloves But most wondrous of all she casts herself as the hero in the most improbable outlandish stories how she arrived from China on a flying carpet how she got a lovely pair of diamond earrings at the local palace how she directed a symphony orchestra while driving through the center of town and how her beloved cat Catman was consumed by a cow Are these stories really true Of course they are because as Gooney Bird proudly proclaims she only tells absolutely true stories In blending funny and memorable characters with colorful details and her distinctive flair for suspense Gooney Bird awakens the students dormant imaginations They come to realize their lives are as unique as Gooney Bird s and that they too can cast themselves as the heroes in their own true tales of discovery and adventure Publisher s website
