Small Place:

A New World in a Small Place Robert Brentano, 2024-03-29 Distinguished historian Robert Brentano provides an entirely new perspective on the character of the church religion and society in the medieval Italian diocese of Rieti from 1188 to 1378. Combining through a cache of previously ignored documents stored in a tower of the cathedral he uses wills litigation proceedings fiscal accounts and other records to reconstruct the daily life of the diocese. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology. This title was originally published in 1994. The World and a Very Small Place in Africa Donald R. Wright, 1997 This study looks at the effects of global phenomena trans-Saharan trade European expansion the rise of an Atlantic plantation complex industrialization imperialism colonialism world wars growth of a world market political independence and economic dependence on the way of life in Niimi a small area at the mouth of the Gambia river in West Africa now called The Gambia over the last six seven hundred years. Written in clear accessible prose and drawing on archival and oral traditions the work considers global developments from a local regional perspective. A Short History of a Small Place T. R. Pearson, 2003-09-30 Marvelously funny bittersweet and beautifully evocative the original publication of A Short History of a Small Place announced the arrival of one of our great Southern voices. Although T. R. Pearson's Neely North Carolina doesn't appear on any map of the state it has already earned a secure place on the literary landscape of the South. In this introduction to Neely the young narrator Louis Benfield recounts the tragic last days of Miss Myra Angelique Pettigrew a local spinster and former town belle who after years of total seclusion returns flamboyantly to public view with her pet monkey Mr Britches. Here is a teeming human comedy inhabited by some of the most eccentric and endearing characters ever encountered in literature. Wildness in a Small Place Randy Minnich, 2004-11-01 A journal of the author's observations of the passage of a year in an urban nature area supplemented with poems and drawings. A Full Life in a Small Place and Other Essays from a Desert Garden Janice Emily Bowers, 2015-11-01 The frustrations and pleasures of gardening are evident its implications for life are more subtle lurking under a leaf or buried in a compost pile. Janice Emily Bowers senses these implications and communicates them as only a fine writer can. In A Full Life in a Small Place she shows how backyard gardening opens up a broader appreciation of both life and living. Her observations on organic gardening inspire further meditations on nature and wildlife and demonstrate how gardens both complicate and enrich our lives. In their entirety these sixteen essays ask how we shall live and recognize that before we can determine how we need to find out why. Flourishing in a Small Place Paul Emanuel Larsen, 2019-07-10 Born during the Great Depression and the height of the modernist fundamentalist controversies Paul Emanuel Larsen entered pastoral ministries in the late fifties. Rooted in historical evangelical theology he embarked on church planting through expository preaching and evangelism In the mid sixties he also became politically involved in the civil rights movement For over twenty seven years he pastored three churches while pursuing advanced pastoral doctoral studies In 1986 he was elected president of his denomination the Evangelical Covenant Church During his twelve years of service he became involved in both national and international ecumenical affairs For twelve years he served as chair of the Annual Meeting of all United States Church Leaders This included heads of Roman Catholic Orthodox mainline Protestant and evangelical denominations He aided his church in its emergence from its Swedish immigrant culture and its efforts to become an ethnically inclusive church body During his tenure the church grew by more than 50 percent Retiring at age sixty five he spent the next twenty years pursuing evangelization and social justice on behalf of more than a half billion Indian Other Backward Castes and Dalits He was the founding chair of both Truthseekers International USA and the William Carey Heritage Foundation The former worked among the poorest of the poor while the latter developed the first Indian university accredited evangelical PhD in Christian studies This book chronicles the way one pastor has sought to navigate the harsh ongoing polarizations in theology race and politics

Living a Big War in a Small Place Philip N. Racine, 2013-11-15 A history of life in one South Carolina city during the American Civil War featuring personal stories from those who were there Most of what we know about how the Civil War affected life in the Confederacy is related to cities troop movements battles and prominent political economic or military leaders Far less is known about the people who lived in small Southern towns remote from marching armies or battles Philip N Racine explores life in one such place Spartanburg South Carolina in an effort to reshape the contours of that great conflict By 1864 life in most of the Confederacy but especially in rural towns was characterized by scarcity high prices uncertainty fear and bad tempered neighbors Shortages of food were common People lived with constant anxiety that a soldiering father or son would be killed or wounded Taxes were high inflation was rampant good news was scarce and seemed to always be followed by bad The slave population was growing restive as their masters bad news was their good news Army deserters were threatening lawlessness accusations and vindictiveness colored the atmosphere and added to the anxiety fear and feeling of helplessness Often people blamed their troubles on the Confederate government in faraway Richmond Virginia Racine provides insight into these events through personal stories the plight of a slave the struggles of a war widow managing her husband s farm ten slaves and seven children and the trauma of a lowcountry refugee s having to forfeit a wealthy aristocratic way of life and being thrust into relative poverty and an alien social world All were part of the complexity of wartime Spartanburg District A well written account that not only captures the plight of both the black and white population but also offers some amazing cameos especially the life of Emily Lyle Harris who struggled to keep her large family in tact while her husband went off to war This is a lively read and a perfect book to assign for classes covering the Carolina Upstate during the American Civil War Edmund L Drago professor of history The College of Charleston and author of Confederate Phoenix Rebel Children and Their Families in South Carolina Living a Big

War offers a fascinating unflinching look at the toll the Civil War took on Spartanburg clearly showing divisions that emerged and deftly employing stories of slaves women and other individuals to reveal the experiences of people on the home front Gaines M Foster dean College of Humanities and Social Sciences Louisiana State University and author of Ghosts of the Confederacy Defeat the Lost Cause and the Emergence of the New South 1865 1913 Small Area Estimation J. N. K. Rao, 2005-02-25 An accessible introduction to indirect estimation methods both traditional and model based Readers will also find the latest methods for measuring the variability of the estimates as well as the techniques for model validation Uses a basic area level linear model to illustrate the methods Presents the various extensions including binary response data through generalized linear models and time series data through linear models that combine cross sectional and time series features Provides recent applications of SAE including several in U S Federal programs Offers a comprehensive discussion of the design issues that impact SAE

The Rural Landscape John Fraser Hart, 1998-04-10 Carrying the story of the rural landscape into our frantic era he describes the bow wavewhere city life meets rural agriculture and plots the effect of recreation and its structures on the look of the land Archaeology in Dominica Mark W. Hauser, Diane Wallman, 2020-10-13 This volume examines the everyday lives of enslaved and free workers at Morne Patate an eighteenth and nineteenth century Caribbean plantation helping document the under represented history of slavery and colonialism on the edge of the British Empire Travels and Discoveries in North and Central Africa Heinrich Barth, 1857 Game Laws for 1903 Theodore Sherman Palmer, Henry Oldys, Robert White Williams, 1903

Becoming Arab in London Ramy M. K. Aly, 2015-01-20 This is the first ethnographic exploration of gender race and class amongst British born or raised Arabs in London It takes a critical look at the idea of Arab ness and the ways in which their ethnicities are created and expressed in the city Looking at everyday spaces encounters and discourses the book explores the lives of young people and the ways in which they achieve Arab ness It uncovers stories of growing up in London the social codes at Shisha cafes and the sexual politics and ethnic self portraits which are present in British Arab men and women Drawing on the work of Judith Butler Becoming Arab in London reveals the need to move away from the notion of identity and towards a performative reading of race gender and class What emerges is an innovative contribution to the study of diaspora and difference in contemporary Britain The Will of the Many Marianne Maeckelbergh, 2009-09-07 Never before has the idea of democracy enjoyed the global dominance it holds today but neoliberalism has left the practice of democracy in deep crisis This book argues that the most promising model for global democracy is not coming from traditional political parties or international institutions but from the global networks of resistance to neoliberal economics known collectively as the Alter globalisation movement Through extensive ethnography of decision making practices within these movements Maeckelbergh describes an alternative form of global democracy in the making Perfect for activists and students of political anthropology this powerful and enlightening book offers radical changes The National Cyclopaedia of Useful Knowledge, 1853 The Penny Cyclopaedia of the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, 1842 Auto/Biography across the Americas Ricia A. Chansky, 2016-08-05 Auto biographical narratives of the Americas are marked by the underlying themes of movement and belonging This collection proposes that the impact of the historic or contemporary movement of peoples to in and from the Americas whether chosen or forced motivates the ways in which identities are constructed in this contested space Such movement results in a cyclical quest to belong and to understand belonging that reverberates through narratives of the Americas The volume brings together essays written from diverse national cultural linguistic and disciplinary perspectives to trace these transnational motifs in life writing across the Americas Drawing on international scholars from the seemingly disparate regions of the Americas North America the Caribbean and Latin America this book extends critical theories of life writing beyond limiting national boundaries The scholarship included approaches narrative inquiry from the fields of literature linguistics history art history sociology anthropology political science pedagogy gender studies critical race studies and indigenous studies As a whole this volume advances discourse in auto biography studies life writing and identity studies by locating transnational themes in narratives of the Americas and placing them in international and interdisciplinary conversations
