Small Ceremonies, the Box Garden, Swan Carol Shields, 1976 Includes all three novels small ceremonies the box garden and swann Carol Shields and the Writer-Critic Brenda Beckman-Long, 2016-01-27 Throughout her literary and critical career Canadian writer Carol Shields 1935 2003 resisted simple categorization Her novels are elegant puzzles that confront the reader with the ambiguity of meaning and narrative yet their position within Shields critical feminist project has until now been obscured In Carol Shields and the Writer Critic Brenda Beckman Long illuminates that project through the study of Shields extensive oeuvre including her fiction and criticism Beckman Long brings depth to her analysis through close readings of six novels including the award winning The Stone Diaries Elliptical open ended and concerned with women writing about women these novels reveal Shields critique of dominant masculine discourses and her deep engagement with the long tradition of women s life writing Beckman Long s original archival research attests to Shields preoccupation with the changing efforts of waves of feminist activism and writing A much needed reappraisal of Shields s innovative work Carol Shields and the Writer Critic contributes to the scholarship on life writing and autobiography literary criticism and feminist and critical theory Larry's Party Carol Shields, 2011-10-05 The Stone Diaries marked a new phase in a literary career already ablaze with achievement As well as the many international awards it received including the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Critics Circle Award and the Governor General s Award the book also met with universal critical acclaim and topped bestseller lists around the world Carol Shields raved Maclean s has crafted a small miracle of a novel The Stone Diaries said the New York Times Book Review reminds us again why literature matters The San Diego Tribune called The Stone Diaries a universal study of what makes women tick Now in Larry s Party Carol Shields does the same for men Larry Weller born in 1950 is an ordinary guy made extraordinary by his creator s perception irony and tenderness Larry s Party gives us as it were a CAT scan of his life in episodes between 1977 and 1997 that flash backward and forward seamlessly As Larry journeys toward the new millennium adapting to society s changing expectations of men Shields elegant prose transforms the trivial into the momentous We follow this young floral designer through two marriages and divorces his interactions with parents friends and a son And throughout we witness his deepening passion for garden mazes so like life with their teasing treachery and promise of reward Among all the paradoxes and accidents of his existence Larry moves through the spontaneity of the seventies the blind enchantment of the eighties and the lean mean nineties completing at last his quiet stubborn search for self Larry s odyssey mirrors the male condition at the end of our century with targeted wit unerring poignancy and faultless wisdom The Word in the Wind Bruce L. Taylor, 2019-07-26 The growing use and appreciation of the Common Lectionary Revised has stimulated renewed attention to the Christian calendar in its fullness and an enrichment of liturgical worship In this volume Bruce Taylor offers a collection of theologically rich sacramentally sensitive and biblically centered sermons for the Sundays and feast days in the first half of Year A of the Lectionary featuring

Gospel readings from Matthew with attention to the accompanying Old Testament and epistolary texts Included is a sampling of sermons written as engaging stories and a sermon presented during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Preachers will find here encouragement for their own homiletical observance of the liturgical year and ecumenical celebrations and the mutual and intimate relationship between Word and Sacrament All readers will find a thoughtful and stimulating resource for their own life of faith witness and devotion Les Belles Étrangères Jane Koustas,2008-03-10 While translation history in Canada is well documented the history of the translation of Canadian fiction outside the nation remains obscure Les Belles trang res examines the translation of Canadian English language fiction in France This book considers the history of this practice the reasons for the move away from Quebec translators as well as the process and perils involved in this detour Within a theoretical framework and drawing on primary sources this study considers the historical theoretical and concrete aspects of this practice through the study of the translations of authors such as Robertson Davies Carol Shields Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ann Marie MacDonald and Alistair MacLeod The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of English language novels poetry and plays published and translated in France over the past 240 years Dressing Up for the Carnival Carol Shields,2001-05-01 A bestselling collection of short stories from the author of The Stone Diaries winner of the Pulitzer prize and Larry's Party winner of the Orange prize All over town people are putting on their costumes X slips into his wife's lace trimmed night gown and waltzes around his bedroom Tamara is no longer the dull clerk receptionist when she wears that yellow skirt she evolves into a stunning creature exuding passion and vitality In Weather a couple's life is thrown into utter chaos when The National Association of Meteorologists go on strike what will they wear What will they eat In Soup du Jour a young boy contemplates life the cracks in the pavement and his mother's soup making Each story encapsulates the human spirit its diversities complexities and absurdities Shields observes with compassion the carnival that goes on in each of our lives and the realities that we create for ourselves Carol Shields second collection of short stories celebrates the extraordinary details that are found in ordinary everyday lives Literary Culture and Female Authorship in Canada 1760-2000 Faye Hammill,2021-10-18 There are two ladies in the province I am told who read writes Frances Brooke's Arabella Fermor but both are above fifty and are regarded as prodigies of erudition Brooke's The History of Emily Montague 1769 was the first work of fiction to be set in Canada and also the first book to reflect on the situation of the woman writer there Her analysis of the experience of writing in Canada is continued by the five other writers considered in this study Susanna Moodie Sara Jeannette Duncan L M Montgomery Margaret Atwood and Carol Shields All of these authors examine the social position of the woman of letters in Canada the intellectual stimulation available to her the literary possibilities of Canadian subject matter and the practical aspects of reading writing and publishing in a post colonial country This book turns on the ways in which those aspects of authorship and literary culture in Canada have been inscribed in imaginative autobiographical and critical texts by the six authors It traces the evolving situation of the Canadian woman writer over the course of two centuries and explores the impact of social and cultural change on the experience of writing in Canada

The Stone Diaries Carol Shields, 2011-09-28 Winner of the Governor General's Literary Award and the Pulitzer Prize and Shortlisted for the Booker Prize Born in 1905 Daisy Goodwill Flett drifts through the chapters of childhood marriage widowhood remarriage motherhood and old age bewildered by her inability to understand her own role in the unsettled decades of the twentieth century At last reflecting on her unobserved and unconventional life Daisy attempts to find a way to tell her story within a novel that is itself about the limitations of autobiography In The Stone Diaries one of the most successful and acclaimed novels of our time Carol Shields weaves the strands of Daisy's life together in a rich sensuous and poignant work that delivers lasting insights into the nature of life and fiction

The Republic of Love Carol Shields, 2022-03-15 With a viewpoint that shifts as crisply as cards in the hands of a blackjack dealer Carol Shields introduces us to two shell shocked veterans of the wars of the heart There's Fay a folklorist whose passion for mermaids has kept her from focusing on any one man And right across the street there's Tom a popular radio talk show host who has focused a little too intently having married and divorced three times Can Fay believe in lasting love with such a man Will romantic love conquer all rational expectations Only Carol Shields could describe so adroitly this couple who fall in love as thoroughly and satisfyingly as any Victorian couple and the modern complications that beset them in this touching and ironic book

Carol Shields, Narrative Hunger, and the Possibilities of Fiction Ted Farrell, 2003-01-01 Award winning Canadian writer Carol Shields has garnered praise from scholars and an international audience of readers Inspired by the quality and scope of Shields's work Carol Shields Narrative Hunger and the Possibilities of Fiction addresses her creative exploration of postmodernism As the first thorough examination of the Pulitzer Prize winning author this collection of essays establishes the groundwork for future studies of her oeuvre The collection begins with a significant new essay from Shields herself Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard perhaps her most substantial commentary upon her own aims as a writer In addition scholars from Canada England the United States and Australia explore the complexity of Shields's work and her contributions to the genre of the novel These lively essays reflect Shields's verve and her playful approach to today's sophisticated critical thinking Among the topics are Shields's use of biography and autobiography metafiction popular romance and symbolism While the essays foreground the unreliability of language and hence our inability to know one another or even ourselves the contributors argue that Shields has taken a step beyond postmodernism by suggesting that we can transcend the limitations of its epistemology Containing several essays on Swann and The Stone Diaries Shields's most popular works and the most extensive annotated bibliography available of works by and about Shields this collection will appeal widely to scholars students and readers of Carol Shields and Canadian fiction

Prizing Literature Gillian Roberts, 2011-01-01 When Canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the Governor General's Literary Award to the Man Booker Prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country's cultural capital Discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan How have these writers identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation

The Canadian Shields Carol Shields, 2024-09-09 Newly discovered work by one of Canada's favourite writers The Canadian Shields brings together fifty short writings by Carol Shields 1935-2003 including more than two dozen previously unpublished short stories and essays and two dozen essays previously published but never before collected Invaluable to scholars and admirers of Shields's work the writings discovered in the National Library Archives by Nora Foster Stovel and presented to the public here for the first time reflect Shields's interest in the relationships between reality and fiction mothers and daughters and gender and genre They also reveal her love of Canada especially Winnipeg her home for twenty years Originally written for women's magazines travel journals convocation addresses and even graduate school term papers Shields's imaginative essays explore ideas about home Canadian literature contemporary women's writing and the future of fiction Whether autobiographical cultural or feminist in focus these works vividly illuminate the multiple chapters of Shields's writing life Margaret Atwood and Lorna Crozier frame Shields's texts with tributes to her work and impact An introduction by Stovel situates Shields as a Canadian author and subversive feminist writer demonstrating how American born and raised Carol Anne Warner became the Canadian Shields a quintessential and beloved Canadian writer and the only author to win both the Pulitzer Prize and the Governor General's Gold Medal for Fiction

Ramon,2009-10-02 This book offers a comprehensive reassessment of the work of Carol Shields Arguing against enduring conceptions of Shields s fiction as celebratory domestic miniaturism the study presents her work as more expansive and equivocal than has sometimes been recognised reading her texts as liminal spaces situated on a series of formal and thematic borders Close attention is paid to Shields s stylistic experimentation to her subversions of auto biography and historiography and to the significance of her critical writing while works which have previously received very little analysis such as her early poetry collections are also examined Intertextual links between Shields s work and that of a range of other writers including Phillip Larkin Iris Murdoch Alice Munro and Margaret Atwood are identified and explored and the study also draws extensively on manuscript materials which give an insight into Shields s working methods and extend debate about her experiments with narrative perspective and genre mixing The Collected Stories of Carol Shields Carol

Shields,2010-07-23 Carol Shields the Pulitzer Prize winner author of the novels Unless The Stone Diaries and Larry s Party was also a renowned short story writer Now readers can enjoy all three of Carol Shields s short story collections Various Miracles The Orange Fish and Dressing Up for the Carnival in one volume along with the previously unpublished story Segue her last With an eye for the smallest of telling details a woman applying her lipstick so the shape of pale raspberry fits perfectly the face she knows by heart and a willingness to explore the most fundamental relationships and the wildest of coincidences Shields illuminates the absurdities and miracles that grace all our lives From a couple who experiences a world without weather to the gentle humor of an elderly widow mowing her lawn while looking back on a life of passion to a young woman abandoned by love and clinging to a slender handrail of hope Shields s enormous sympathy for her characters permeates her fiction Playful charming acutely observed and generous of spirit this collection of stories will delight and enchant Carol Shields fans everywhere Excerpt from The Collected Stories of Carol Shields Let me say it I am an aging woman of despairing good cheer just look into the imaginary camera lens and watch me as I make the Sunday morning
