Small Gardens for City and Country Alice Recknagel Ireys,1978 The Urban Archetypes of Jane Jacobs and Ebenezer Howard Abraham Akkerman,2020-01-09 Ebenezer Howard an Englishman and Jane Jacobs a naturalized Canadian personify the twentieth century s opposing outlooks on cities Howard had envisaged small towns newly built from scratch fashioned on single family homes with small gardens Jacobs embraced existing inner city neighbourhoods emphasizing the verve of the living street From Howard s idea the American Dream of garden suburbs had emerged yet his conceptualization of a modern city received criticism for being uniform and alienated from the rest of the city Similarly at the turn of the new century Jacobs inner city neighbourhoods came to be recognized as the result of commodification vacillating between poverty and newly discovered hubs of urban authenticity Presenting Howard and Jacobs within a psychocultural context The Urban Archetypes of Jane Jacobs and Ebenezer Howard addresses our urban crisis in the recognition that city form is a gendered allegorical medium expressing femininity and masculinity within two founding features of the built environment void and volume Both founding contrasts bring tensions but also the opportunities of fusion between pairs of urban polarities human scale against superscale gait against speed and spontaneity against surveillance Jacobs and Howard in their respective attitudes have come to embrace the two ancient archetypes the Garden and the Citadel leaving it to future generations to blend their two contrarian stances Garden Cities of To-Morrow Ebenezer Howard,2013-01-11 Originally published in 1898 as To Morrow A peaceful path to reform the book writes F J Osborn holds a unique place in town planning literature is cited in all planning bibliographies stands on the shelves of the more important libraries and is alluded to in most books on planning yet most of the popular writers on planning do not seem to have read it or if they have read it to remember what it says The book led directly to two experiments in town founding that by imitation and imitation of imitation have had a profound influence on practical urban development throughout the world The book was responsible for the introduction of the term Garden City in numbers of languages Cite Jardin Gartenstadt Ciudad jardin Tuinstad and set into motion ideas that have helped transform the scientific and political outlook on town structure and town growth With urban renewal and the development of suburban communities as features of the contemporary American scene Garden cities of To Morrow becomes must reading In the words of Lewis Mumford This is not merely a book for Technicians above all it is a book for citizens for the people whose actively expressed needs desires and interests should guide the planner and administrator at every turn This book was first published in it s current form in 1965 Landscape for Living United States. Department of Agriculture,1972 Landscape for Living The Yearbook of Agriculture 1972 by the U S Department of Agriculture explores the vital role that plants and landscaping play in the environment highlighting their importance in both aesthetic and functional aspects of living spaces The publication covers topics related to the design and maintenance of gardens landscape architecture and horticulture Ecology and the Literature of the British Left H. Gustav Klaus,Valentine

Cunningham,2016-04-29 Premised on the belief that a social and an ecological agenda are compatible this collection offers readings in the ecology of left and radical writing from the Romantic period to the present While early ecocriticism tended to elide the bitter divisions within and between societies recent practitioners of ecofeminism environmental justice and social ecology have argued that the social the economic and the environmental have to be seen as part of the same process Taking up this challenge the contributors trace the origins of an environmental sensibility and of the modern left to their roots in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries charting the ways in which the literary imagination responds to the political industrial and agrarian revolutions Topics include Samuel Taylor Coleridge s credentials as a green writer the interaction between John Ruskin s religious and political ideas and his changing view of nature William Morris and the Garden City movement H G Wells and the Fabians the devastated landscapes in the poetry and fiction of the First World War and the leftist pastoral poetry of the 1930s In historicizing and connecting environmentally sensitive literature with socialist thought these essays explore the interactive vision of nature and society in the work of writers ranging from William Wordsworth and John Clare to John Berger and John Burnside Challenge , , The King's Crown Basil Guy,2005 Basil Guy is Professor Emeritus of French University of California Berkeley A decorated World War II veteran he is the author of several books and editions including an outstanding translation of Charles Joseph de Ligne Coup d oeil sur Beloeil University of California Press 1986 His work reflects a wide variety of academic interests ranging from Voltaire and Rousseau to art history and the literature of gardens to European perceptions of China in the 18th century He has directed and participated in directing numerous theses and dissertations in French history and art history at the University of California Berkeley He has forged enduring academic and intellectual friendships across both the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans His former students teach at universities across the United States The National Real Estate Journal ,1924 Garden Cities Sarah Rutherford,2014-02-10 Garden Cities the phrase is redolent of Arts and Crafts values and nineteenth century utopianism But despite being the culmination of a range of influential movements and having global influence themselves in fact there were only ever two true self contained Garden Cities in England far more numerous were Garden Suburbs and Villages Crystallised in England by social visionary Ebenezer Howard and executed in many cases by planners and architects Barry Parker and Raymond Unwin the concept arose from nineteenth century industrial settlements like Port Sunlight and earlier Saltaire and Akroyden and also from the City Beautiful movement in the US The settlements were designed to promote healthy and comfortable individual and community life as well as supporting commerce and industry and were and are instantly and attractively recognisable This book is a beautifully illustrated guide to the movement as a whole from its earliest influences through practical difficulties in implementation to the continuing vitality of the communities which are its legacy Handbook of Urban Studies Ronan Paddison,2001 The Handbook of Urban Studies provides the first comprehensive up to date account of the urban condition relevant to a wide readership from academics to researchers and policymakers It provides a theoretically and empirically informed account embracing all the different disciplines contributing to urban studies Leading authors identify key issues and questions and future trends for further research and present their findings so that where appropriate they are relevant to the needs of policymakers Using the city as a unifying structure the Handbook provides an holistic appreciation of urban structure and change and of the theories by which we understand the structure development and changing character of cities

Urban Allotment Gardens in Europe Simon Bell, Runrid Fox-Kämper, Nazila Keshavarz, Mary Benson, Silvio Caputo, Susan Noori, Annette Voigt, 2016-03-10 Although urban allotment gardening dates back to the nineteenth century it has recently undergone a renaissance of interest and popularity This is the result of greater concern over urban greenspace food security and quality of life This book presents a comprehensive research based overview of the various features benefits and values associated with urban allotment gardening in Europe The book is based on a European COST Action project which brings together researchers and practitioners from all over Europe for the first detailed exploration of the subject on a continent wide scale It assesses the policy planning and design aspects as well as the social and ecological benefits of urban allotment gardening Through an examination of the wide range of different traditions and practices across Europe it brings together the most recent research to discuss the latest evolutions of urban allotment gardening and to help raise awareness and fill knowledge gaps The book provides a multidisciplinary perspective including insights from horticulture and soil science ecology sociology urban geography landscape planning and design The themes are underpinned by case studies from a number of European countries which supply a wide range of examples to illustrate different key issues

Re-Imagining Resilient Productive Landscapes Carla Brisotto, Fabiano Lemes de Oliveira, 2022-03-09 This book explores how lessons from past urban planning experiences can inform current debates on urban agriculture Productive landscapes today have been posited as instruments for the positive transformation related to territorial fragility and abandonment promoting social cohesion food security and wider environmental and economic benefits The book will re map the way in which seeming landscape limitations and challenges can be turned into potential innovation and a new lease of urban rural life It does so by drawing on significant past urban agricultural experiences in planning as vectors for new critical reflections relevant to re igniting ideas for future envisioning of urban scenarios in which productive landscapes play fundamental transformative roles The focus is on planning ideas and the roles of key individual planners all of which have designed agricultural strategies for the city at some point in their careers It intends to help us today reimagine urban rural relationships and the transformation of under or mis used urban open spaces peri urban areas fringe conditions and in between spaces
