Collective Investment Scheme Transactions in ASEAN+3 Asian Development Bank,2022-09-01 This report explores how the central securities depository and real time gross settlement CSD RTGS linkage model could be applied to collective investment scheme CIS passporting frameworks in Asia to enhance the post trade efficiency of the region s bond markets In Asia there are a number of multilateral CIS passporting frameworks but little attention has been given to how delivery versus payment settlements can be facilitated under such frameworks The report finds that the CSD RTGS linkage model has considerable potential to be applied in Asia as a settlement engine for the cross border transactions of bonds as well as for other financial instruments It outlines how this can be achieved by interlinking the region s CIS central platforms and delivery versus payment settlements infrastructure under the CSD RTGS model

Evaluation of the International Finance Corporation's Global Trade Finance Program, 2006-12 The World Bank,2013-09-04 As part of its strategy to support global trade the World Bank Group seeks to enhance trade finance in emerging markets In 2005 the International Finance Corporation IFC part of the Bank Group introduced the Global Trade Finance Program GTFP to support the extension of trade finance to underserved clients globally This IEG evaluation found that overall the GTFP was a relevant response to the demand to reduce risk in trade finance in emerging markets The program significantly improved IFC s engagement in trade finance by introducing an open network of banks and a quick flexible response platform to support the supply of trade finance IEG s evaluation covers the program s operations from its inception in 2005 through FY2012 The program grew from a 500 million annual commitment to 5 billion in FY12 It accounted for 39 percent of total IFC commitments and has low costs it accounted for 2.4 percent of IFC s capital use and 1.2 percent of its staff costs and has had no claims to date It is profitable as well although not to the extent originally expected accounting for 0.6 percent of IFC s net profit IEG found that the GTFP has particular additionality among higher risk countries In its early years it was concentrated in these countries particularly in Africa During the global crisis the program risk mitigation instrument became relevant in much broader markets Client feedback on the program has been positive In its evaluation IEG does offer several recommendations to enhance its effectiveness including on issues of transparency and reporting methods as well as expanding the share of the program in needier markets For development professionals the lessons in this evaluation can be applied to private sector development situations particularly mitigation of financing risks in emerging markets

Women-Owned SMEs in Emerging Markets Shabnam Shalizi,2021-11-03 This book investigates women as business owners in emerging markets documenting the structural difficulties they face as a result of their seeking access to global supply chains and demonstrating the ways in which they are rewriting norms and challenging market assumptions Although women own an estimated one third of all small and medium sized enterprises SMEs in emerging markets they are deeply underrepresented in global supply chains In what the author refers to as the Women in Trade Deficit women owned enterprises earn less than 1% of all money spent on vendors by large corporations and governments worldwide Drawing on an in depth empirical investigation of a range of SMEs in Bangladesh Nigeria and Sri Lanka this book investigates how women enter the supply chains of major global firms and multinational corporations and the challenges they face in doing so Overall the book argues that these business owners are rewriting norms and rearranging markets through networked enterprises to advance what the author calls prosocial industrialism Whilst many studies focus on women at the micro enterprise or laborer level this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of their role at the helm of SMEs that trade internationally As such it will be of interest to researchers across business studies economics sociology and development studies and to donor agencies policymakers and the global private sector

Euro Area Policies International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2014-07-14 This 2014 Article IV Consultation highlights that the euro area recovery is taking hold Real output has expanded for four consecutive quarters and financial market sentiment has improved markedly Complementary policy actions have supported demand boosted investor confidence and eased financial conditions At the national level governments have made further progress repairing sovereign and bank balance sheets and implementing structure reforms to restore competitiveness At the area wide level the ECB has taken a wider range of measures to support demand and address fragmentation Over the medium term there is a risk of stagnation which could result from persistently depressed domestic demand owing to deleveraging insufficient policy action and stalled structural reforms SME Policy Index: Western Balkans and Turkey 2022 Assessing the Implementation of the Small Business Act for Europe OECD,2022-07-08 Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs are essential drivers of sustainable economic growth in the Western Balkans and Turkey where they make up 99% of all firms generate 65% value added and account for 75% of employment Nevertheless SMEs across the region continue to face obstacles such as difficulties accessing financing low levels of digital uptake regulatory barriers and relatively low participation in international trade
