Story of St. Paul's Parish, Embodying Numerous Reminiscences of the Social and Political Life of the Town of Peoria, Illinois, from 1834 to 1882 Benjamin Cowell, 1929 Megachurches and Social Engagement Mark J. Cartledge, Sarah Dunlop, Heather Buckingham, Sophie Bremner, 2019-06-07 This book is the first detailed academic study of megachurches in the UK In particular it explores the nature and significance of social engagement by megachurches in the context of London The research contains empirical case studies of two Anglican and three African diaspora Pentecostal churches As well as exploring the range of social engagement activities provided by these churches the study offers explanations in term of theological motivations and the influence of globalisation Subsequently the book outlines the importance of the findings for the relationship between church and society in the contemporary context addressing the implications for social policy and practice The book advances discussions in public theology megachurch studies Pentecostal and Charismatic studies and ecclesiology Culture, Philanthropy and the Poor in Late-Victorian London Geoffrey A. C. Ginn, 2017-04-21 2018 Choice Outstanding Academic Title The Late Victorian cultural mission to London s slums was a peculiar effort towards social reform that today is largely forgotten or misunderstood The philanthropy of middle and upper class social workers saw hundreds of art exhibitions concerts of fine music evening lectures clubs and socials debates and excursions mounted for the benefit of impoverished and working class Londoners Ginn s vivid and provocative book captures many of these in detail for the first time In refreshing our understanding of this obscure but eloquent activism Ginn approaches cultural philanthropy not simply as a project of class self interest nor as fanciful missionary aestheticism Rather he shows how liberal aspirations towards adult education and civic community can be traced in a number of centres of moralising voluntary effort Concentrating on Toynbee Hall in Whitechapel the People s Palace in Mile End Red Cross Hall in Southwark and the Bermondsey Settlement the discussion identifies the common impulses animating practical reformers across these settings Drawing on new primary research to clarify reformers underlying intentions and strategies Ginn shows how these were shaped by a distinctive diagnosis of urban deprivation and anomie In rebutting the common view that cultural philanthropy was a crudely paternalistic attempt to impose rational recreation on the poor this volume explores its sources in a liberal minded social idealism common to both religious and secular conceptions of social welfare in this period Culture Philanthropy and the Poor in Late Victorian London appeals to students and researchers of Victorian culture moral reform urbanism adult education and philanthropy who will be fascinated by this underrated but lively aspect of the period s social activism

A Community of Voices on Education and the African American Experience Hazel Arnett Ervin, Lois Jamison Sheer, 2016-02-29 This book offers a history of African American education while also serving as a companion text for teachers students and researchers in cultural criticism American and African American studies postcolonialism historiography and psychoanalytics Overall it represents essential reading for scholars critics leaders of educational policy and all others interested in ongoing discussions not only about the role of community family teachers and others in facilitating quality education for the citizenry but also about ensuring the posterity of a society via equal access to and attainment of quality education by its constituents of color Particularly this volume fills a void in the annals of African American history and African American education by addressing the vibrancy of an education ethos within Black America which has unequivocally served as cultural historical political legal and theoretical references

Experience of School Transitions Stephen Billett, Greer Johnson, Sue Thomas, Cheryl Sim, Stephen Hay, Jill Ryan, 2012-06-22 Leaving school whether to move on to training work or education is a fundamental rite of passage the world over This volume draws on a wealth of international sources and studies in its analysis of the transitions young students make as they move on from their secondary schooling It identifies how these transitions are planned for by policymakers enacted by school staff and engaged with by students themselves With data from a range of nations with advanced industrial economies the book delineates how the policies relating to these transitions need to be conceived and implemented how the transitions themselves are negotiated by young people and how they might be shaped to meet the varied needs of the students they are designed to help The authors argue that the relationship often complex between what schools provide in the way of preparation and the ways in which students take up what is on offer is the crucial nexus for understanding the experience of transitions by young people and for enhancing that experience With a host of case studies of transition policies themselves as well as evaluative data on how they were received by the school leavers whom they were designed for this valuable addition to the educational literature deserves to be read by all those with roles in preparing the young for their
