Stafford, the Selected Stories Of Stafford,1960-01-01 The Collected Stories of Jean Stafford Jean Stafford,2005-09-14

Written from the 1940s through the 1960s these stories represent the major short works of fiction by one of the most distinctively American stylists of her day Jean Stafford wrote of men and especially women alone and adrift in New York City in such stories as Children Are Bored on Sunday of children surrounded by the harshness of rural Colorado and of the adults around them in In the Zoo and of a young woman from Nashville bewildered and then angered by her first experience of petty French society in Maggie Meriwether's Rich Experience Employing a spare style that is sometimes distant sometimes ironic sometimes unexpectedly sharp or hilarious the writer communicates the small details of loneliness and connection the search for freedom and the desire to belong that not only capture the lives of her protagonists but also convey with an elegant economy of words the places and times in which they find themselves This volume also includes the story An Influx of Poets which has never before appeared in book form Adapted from page 4 of cover The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant,2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Debus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene Complete Short Stories of Joseph Conrad (Including His Memoirs, Letters & Critical Essays) Joseph Conrad,2024-01-09 Joseph Conrad's Complete Short Stories of Joseph Conrad is a distinguished collection that encapsulates the author's profound exploration of human experience and moral complexity Combining literary styles that range from meticulously detailed realism to impressionistic narratives this anthology invites readers into richly rendered worlds where psychological depth and existential themes intertwine The collection is further enriched by the inclusion of Conrad's memoirs letters and critical essays which provide invaluable context and insight into his narrative craft and philosophical inquiries positioning his work within the broader literary canon of the late 19th and early 20th centuries Joseph Conrad born on the fringes of Europe and a sailor by trade brings a unique perspective to his literary endeavors His diverse experiences including the harsh realities of maritime life and encounters with multiple cultures profoundly shaped his worldview and narrative style Deeply influenced by his personal trials and the moral uncertainties of his era Conrad's writing often reflects a search for meaning in an ambiguous and fragmented world which is poignantly illustrated in this comprehensive collection I recommend Complete Short Stories of Joseph Conrad to readers seeking a multi faceted exploration of human nature Whether you are a long time admirer of Conrad or encountering him for the first time this collection offers a rich tapestry of stories that not only entertain but also provoke introspection making it an essential addition to any literary library The Best American Short Stories of the Century John Updike, Katrina Kenison, 2000 Including one new story and an Index by author of every story that has ever appeared in the series this new volume offers a spectacular tapestry of fictional achievement Entertainment Weekly The Collected Works of J.
