Text & Presentation, 2006 Stratos E. Constantinidis, 2009-12-21 Text Presentation is an annual publication devoted to all aspects of theatre scholarship. It represents a selection of the best research presented at the international interdisciplinary Comparative Drama Conference. This anthology includes papers from the 30th annual conference held in Los Angeles, California. Topics covered include Beckett, Brecht, Goethe, Tom Stoppard, dance performance, staged violence, the Comedie Francaise and Greek and Japanese drama. Reviews of selected books are also included. Harold Pinter Graham Saunders, 2023-06-05 Harold Pinter provides an up to date analysis and reappraisal concerning the work of one of the most studied and performed dramatists in the world. Drawing extensively from The Harold Pinter Archive at the British Library as well as reviews and other critical materials, this book offers new insights into previously established views about his work. The book also analyses and reappraises specific key historical and contemporary productions, including a selection of Pinter's most significant screenplays. In particular, this volume seeks to assess Pinter's critical reputation and legacy since his death in 2008. These include his position as a political writer and political activist, from disassociation and neutrality on the subject until relatively late in his career when his drama sought to explicitly address questions of political dissent and torture by totalitarian regimes. The book revisits some familiar territories such as Pinter's place as a British absurdist and the role memory plays in his work, but it also sets out to explore new territories such as Pinter's changing attitudes towards gender in the light of MeToo and queer politics, and how, in particular, a play such as The Caretaker (1960) through several key productions has brought the issues of race into sharper focus. Part of the Routledge Modern and Contemporary Dramatist series, Harold Pinter provides an essential and accessible guide to the dramatist's work. The Oxford English Literary History: Volume 12: The Last of England? Randall Stevenson, 2005-11-10 English Literature in the 1960s soon threw off its post-war weariness and the tepid influences of the previous decade. New voices, new visions and new commitments profoundly reshaped writing during the 60s and throughout the rest of the century. Drama thrived on its rapidly rebuilt foundations. New freedoms of style and form revitalised fiction. Poetry too gradually recovered the variety and inventiveness of earlier years. As well as comprehensively charting these changes in the literary field, Randall Stevenson persuasively pinpoints their origins in the historical, social and intellectual pressures of the times. Literary developments are revealingly related to the wider evolution and profound changes in English experience in the late twentieth century: to shadows of war and loss of empire, declining influences of class, shifting relations between the genders, emergent minority and counter cultures, and the broadening democratization of contemporary life in general. Analyses of the rise of literary theory, of publishing and the book trade, and of the pervasive influences of modernism and postmodernism, contribute further to an impressively thorough, insightful description of writing in the later twentieth century, a literary period Stevenson shows to be far more imaginative and exciting than has yet been recognised. Lucid, accessible and engaging, this volume of the Oxford
