Pop Convergence James Gabrillo, 2024 What do the power rock band Aegis multimedia superstar Vice Ganda queer zombie film Zombadings and glocalized movement P Pop have in common These subjects of Philippine pop culture embody novel convergences in aesthetics style tone and thematic content culled from local regional and global ideas Pop Convergence explores the contemporary pop music and related multimedia cultures of Manila the center for commercial entertainment industries in the Philippines At the turn of the twenty first century the country was recovering from decades of political mayhem and economic turbulence against a backdrop of swelling class divide and the maturation of mass media Distinct from the somberness of nationalist anthems Western music covers and protest songs of prior years the creative industries of new

Participatory Media Anders Ekström, Solveig Jülich, FRANS LUNDGREN, Per Wisselgren, 2012-07-26 This book argues for a historical perspective on issues relating to the notion of participatory media Working from a broad concept of media including essays on the 19th century press early sound media photography exhibitions television and the internet the book offers a broad empirical approach to different modes of audience participation from the mid 19th century to the present Using the insights from the historical case studies the book also explores some of the key concepts in discussions on the politics of participation arguing for a theoretical perspective sensitive to the asymmetries that characterize the distribution of agency in the relationship between media and users Scholarly discussions on participatory media now occur in several fields This book argues that all of these discussions are all too often obscured by a rhetoric of newness assuming that participatory media is something unique in history radical and revolutionary By challenging the historiography implicit in this rhetoric the book also engages in a discussion of issues of more general relevance to the multidisciplinary field of media history collection points to the construction of racial others that elevates tolerates and incorporates difference the construction of valued and devalued ethnic others and the ambivalent construction of co ethnic others as sympathetic victims or marginalized threats Imagining the Global Fabienne Darling-Wolf, 2014-12-22 A focused multisited cultural analysis that reflects on the symbiotic relationship between the local the national and the global
