Science Fiction, Canonization, Marginalization, and the Academy Gary Westfahl,George Slusser,2002-01-30 Science fiction occupies a peculiar place in the academic study of literature For decades scholars have looked at science fiction with disdain and have criticized it for being inferior to other types of literature But despite the sentiments of these traditionalists many works of science fiction engage recognized canonical texts such as the Odyssey and many traditionally canonical works contain elements of science fiction More recently the canon has been subject to revision as scholars have deliberately sought to include works that reflect diversity and have participated in the serious study of popular culture But these attempts to create a more inclusive canon have nonetheless continued to marginalize science fiction This book examines the treatment of science fiction within the academy The expert contributors to this volume explore a wide range of topics related to the place of science fiction in literary studies These include academic attitudes toward science fiction the role of journals and cultural gatekeepers in canon formation and the marginalization of specific works and authors by literary critics In addition the volume gives special attention to multicultural and feminist concerns In discussing these topics the book sheds considerable light on much broader issues related to the politics of literary studies and academic inquiry

Twilight's Reckoning Nora Erin, In a realm torn between luminous brilliance and enigmatic darkness an exiled hero and an unconventional rebel must join forces to prevent their world from plunging into eternal night Rhyland Solis once hailed as the radiant hope of the Sunstone Order returns to a land submerged in turmoil The fabric of light is unraveling fear and distrust spreading like wildfire among its denizens His fate intertwines with that of Lyra Umbra a shadow mage of phenomenal prowess who dares to question her people's descent into savagery Duty binds them scars from the past haunt them as they embark on a treacherous odyssey to form an improbable alliance Traversing a desolate city a murmuring forest and finally venturing into the enigmatic Architect's domain Rhyland and Lyra unearth ancient mysteries and confront forbidden powers Yet with each trial the darkness lurking within Lyra stirs threatening to taint her extraordinary abilities The Architect's true intentions loom ominously poised to obliterate all they cherish To endure this crucible Rhyland and Lyra must unravel the enigma of the fabled Sunstone Bloom and mend their fractured world Their audacious gambit hinges on embracing a novel perspective that fuses twilight's essence harmonizing light with shadow The destiny of their people and the entwined beats of their hearts teeter on a knife's edge Embark on an electrifying journey through realms teeming with magic and menace as Rhyland and Lyra confront their inner demons while striving to forge a future where unity blazes brighter than all consuming shadows
