

The Kingdom of God and The Kingdom of Heaven

THE KINGDOM OF GOD

The kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. (Rom 14:17)

The Kingdom of Heaven on Earth

The earthly kingdom is a "mystery" promised in the Scriptures, and David (eventually, foretold) in Matthew's faith, revealed as a coming kingdom by God, and guaranteed God—because God is faithful to keep and fulfill all His promises.

*Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering
(for he is faithful that promises) Heb 10:23*

*For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
as the waters cover the sea.
Hab 2:14*

Wenell, 2024-08-22 This book offers a new multidisciplinary way of thinking about the Kingdom of God which fully recognises its sociological and spatial significance in performing boundaries of the sacred Though spatial critical perspectives have been increasingly recognised as important across many disciplines the significance of non physical religious spaces and their correspondence to boundaries of the sacred has not been explored fully and never using the specific example of the Kingdom of God Wenell considers the diverse and sometimes contradictory articulation of the Kingdom in the gospels as well as the ways that Kingdom language frames contemporary ethical debates Her study of the Kingdom is located within the wider study of religion affording the opportunity to investigate connections between space belonging and the sacred Wenell structures her investigation in four key areas that engage with the Kingdom in different but theoretically interconnected ways She begins by setting out a theory of sacred space that is capable of including the Kingdom and establishing key concepts such as boundary performance physical non physical spatiality spokespersons and controversy Wenell then focuses on the synoptic gospels and the origins of the Kingdom noting aspects of uncertainty as well as areas of agreement and controversy over boundaries of the sacred in these uniquely interrelated texts The third and fourth areas of investigation move into cultural reception considering instances where the Kingdom is formative for identity and ethical relationships both in individual and wider group belonging terms Specific reference is made to issues of ethical consuming and displacement placing the Kingdom in dialogue with Bauman s discussion of a society of consumers and Arendt s notion of equitable co habitation of the earth If Christ Were King Albert Edward Waffle, 1912 If Christ Were King Albert
