Spiritual Sobriety Elizabeth Esther, 2016-04-19 It s easy to get high on God in America But is this good religion In a compelling follow up to her memoir Girl at the End of the World Elizabeth Esther explores how religious fervor can become religious addiction The evidence is everywhere In families who inexplicably choose to harm their children in order to abide by cultic church doctrine But in ordinary believers too who use God the same way addicts use drugs or alcohol to numb pain alter their mood or simply to escape the realities of this messy unpredictable thing called life If you ve ever wondered how a religion that preaches freedom and love can produce judgmental and unkind followers if you ve ever felt captive to the demanding God of your own childhood if you've struggled to find contentment without needing another emotional hit from a life-changing conference or mountain top experience then Spiritual Sobriety is for you. The author who grew up in a hyper-controlling church cult will help you find hope and rebirth in the ruins of disillusioned faith. Filled with stories and warm practical advice, Spiritual Sobriety offers a gentle path out of the desperate cycles of craving, euphoria, hangover, and into a freer, clean, and sober faith practice.

Chemical Addiction & Family Members Robert W. Bailor, 2015-12-23 This small book is for all those noble souls who have endured the trials and tribulations of being family members of an addict or alcoholic and have continued to love them. It is offered as a lifeline so that family members can survive the struggle and even thrive in spite of it. This book explains chemical addiction and its traumatic effects on family members but mostly it shows family members how to successfully navigate the challenges they face. Family members need help to heal just as much as their addicts/alcoholics do because chemical addiction is a family disease. The insight that drives this small book is the same as the insight that drives the recovery of every addict/alcoholic: If you work a program, it works for you. It will not be easy but in the end, all can be well.

50 After 50 Maria Leonard Olsen, 2018-06-15 At age 50, Maria Leonard Olsen drank her way out of a 25-year marriage. She had, against advice, put all her eggs in the motherhood basket, willfully derailing her successful law career. As teenagers, her precious children did not need her in the hands-on way they previously had. Her husband and she had grown apart because among other things, they failed to nurture that important relationship. She was depressed and stuck. When she turned 50, she had the distinct feeling that she was on the downward slope of her life. Actuarially speaking, she was. So when she turned 50, her gift to herself was to go on a crusade to make the most of whatever time she had left. She set out to do 50 new things that were significant at least to her. The list spanned physical challenges, adventure travel, and lifestyle changes. Each taught her something about herself and about how she wanted to lead the next years of her life to come. This work follows the work she did to accomplish those 50 new things and shows readers how to make their own action lists, whether it be joining a knitting club or hiking the Himalayas; every item has significance for each individual and speaks to her needs and desires. The list is the match to spark the fire that will light the years after 50. Readers will hear about Maria's adventures and the rewards of each. Accomplishing new things, learning new skills, deepening personal and spiritual relationships, and seeking out challenges will add the spice to a life that may feel repetitive, insignificant, inauthentic, or just plain boring.

Chesnut, 2017-01-04 Father Ralph Pfau was one of AA's four most published and most formative authors along with Bill Wilson, Richmond Walker, and Ed Webster during the new movement's earliest thirty years, during which it grew from only 100 members to almost 300,000. In the first ten years, Pfau spent working to spread AA; he said, "I have traveled nearly 750,000 miles, I have spoken before nearly two hundred thousand members of AA at retreats, meetings, and conventions, and personally discussed problems with more than ten thousand alcoholics."
