transmedial narratology on the one hand and unnatural narratology on the other The articles deal with films graphic novels computer games web series the performing arts journalism reality games music musicals and the representation of impossibilities The essays demonstrate how new media and genres as well as unnatural narratives challenge classical forms of narration in ways that call for the development of analytical tools and modelling systems that move beyond classical structuralist narratology The articles thus contribute to the further development of both transmedial and unnatural narrative theory two of the most important manifestations of postclassical narratology Project of Crisis Marco Biraghi, 2013-08-30 An examination of the influential Italian architectural historian Manfredo Tafuri's historical construction of contemporary architecture The influential Italian architectural historian Manfredo Tafuri 1935-1994 invoked the productive possibilities of crisis writing that history is a project of crisis progetto di crisi In this entry in the Writing Architecture series Marco Biraghi explores Tafuri's multifaceted and often knotty oeuvre using the historian's concept of a project of crisis as a lens through which to examine his historical construction of contemporary architecture Mindful of Tafuri's statement that there is no such thing as criticism only history Biraghi carefully maps the influences on Tafuri's writing Walter Benjamin Karl Krauss Massimo Cacciari and the architect Ludovico Quaroni among others in order to create a portrait of one of the most complex minds in twentieth century architecture and architectural history Tracing an arc from Tafuri's first articles in the magazine Contropiano to the idea of contradiction at the center of the project of crisis Biraghi cites Tafuri's writing on some of his contemporaries including Louis Kahn Le Corbusier Robert Venturi Aldo Rossi and the Five Architects Peter Eisenman Michael Graves Charles Gwathmey John Hejduk and Richard Meier Tafuri's historical construction of the contemporary Biraghi explains is based on the idea that the past is open providing the present with ever changing and indeterminate form There is no contradiction between Tafuri the historian and Tafuri the contemporary critic only the greatest possible integration The importance of Tafuri's interpretation of architecture goes beyond mere academic or historiographic interest Biraghi argues Tafuri's notion of the project of crisis is fundamentally important in understanding our present day architectural condition Cultural Writings of Franz Rosenzweig Barbara E. Galli, 2000-06-01 Published here in English for the first time these essays offer a glimpse into the cultural and social dimensions of Franz Rosenzweig's thought an aspect of his philosophy that has too often been ignored by an overemphasis on his status as a religious thinker The editor provides a broader context for Rosenzweig's concepts especially his orientation in the modern world and concerns regarding modernity and technological developments Grand Pursuit Sylvia Nasar, 2011-05-10 From the author of A Beautiful Mind a sweeping history of the invention of modern economics that takes you from Dickens London to modern Calcutta

South East of Europe was fought by people from a multitude of different nationalities most of them dressed in the uniforms of three imperial armies Russian German and Austro Hungarian In this first volume of Forgotten Wars the authors chart the origins and outbreak of the First World War the early battles and the war's impact on ordinary soldiers and civilians through to the end of the Romanian campaign in December 1916 by which point the Central Powers controlled all of the Balkans except for the Peloponnese Combining military and social history the authors make extensive use of eyewitness accounts to describe the traumatic experience that established a region stretching between the Baltic Adriatic and Black Seas

Gaslight Joachim Kalka, 2017-06-06 A one of a kind exploration of the 19th century that ties the time period to our own through essays on a variety of topics in music film literature and art In Gaslight Joachim Kalka delves into the mythos of the nineteenth century exploring our fascination with its auratic gaslight its mingling of romanticism and modernity enlightenment and darkness Here we find the roots of our contemporary preoccupations gender roles and sexuality terrorism and technology mad scientists and serial killers kitsch and commodification Mustering a wealth of cultural references Kalka draws illuminating connections between Balzac and Billy Wilder Mickey Mouse and the arms race the cake fights of Laurel and Hardy and Madame Bovary's wedding cake He brings the nineteenth century to life with all its contradictions aspirations and absurdities inviting us to reexamine that era and our own and the stories we tell ourselves about history

The Evolutions of Modernist Epic Václav Paris, 2021-01-07 Modernist epic is more interesting and more diverse than we have supposed As a radical form of national fiction it appeared in many parts of the world in the early twentieth century Reading a selection of works from the United States England Ireland Czechoslovakia and Brazil The Evolutions of Modernist Epic develops a comparative theory of this genre and its global development That development was it argues bound up with new ideas about biological evolution During the first decades of the twentieth century a period known in the history of evolutionary science as the eclipse of Darwinism evolution's significance was questioned rethought and ultimately confined to the Neo Darwinist discourse with which we are familiar today Epic fiction participated in and was shaped by this shift Drawing on queer forms of sexuality to cultivate anti heroic and non progressive modes of telling national stories the genre contested reductive and reactionary forms of social Darwinism The book describes how in doing so the genre asks us to revisit our assumptions about ethnolinguistics and organic nationalism It also models how the history of evolutionary thought can provide a new basis for comparing diverse modernisms and their peculiar nativisms The Quest for Redemption Rares G. PiloIU,2018-09-15 The Quest for Redemption Central European Jewish Thought in Joseph Roth s Works by Rares PiloIU fills an important gap in Roth scholarship placing Roth s major works of fiction for the first time in the context of a generational interest in religious redemption among the Jewish intellectuals of Central Europe In it PiloIU argues that Roth s challenging often contradictory and ambivalent literary output is the result of an attempt to recast moral political and historical realities of an empirically observable world in a new religiously transfigured reality through the medium of literature This diegetic recasting of phenomenological encounters with the real is an expression of Roth s belief that since the self and the world are in a continuing state of crisis issuing from their separation in modernity a restoration of their unity is necessary to redeem the historical existence of individuals and communities alike PiloIU notes however that Roth s enterprise in this is not unique to his work but rather is shared by an entire generation of Central European Jewish intellectuals This generation disillusioned by modernity s excessive secularism rationalism and nationalism sought a radical solution in the revival of mystical religious traditions above all in the Judaic idea of messianic redemption Their use of the Chasidic notion of redemption was highly original in that it stripped the notion of its original theological meaning and applied it to the secular experience of reality As a result Roth s quest for redemption is a quest for a salvation of the individual not outside but within history Cataclysm 1914 ,2015-03-10 Cataclysm 1914 brings together a number of leftist scholars from a variety of fields to explore the many different aspects of the origins trajectories and consequences of the First World War The collection not only aims to examine the war itself but seeks to visualise the conflict and all its immediate consequences such as the Bolshevik Revolution and ascendancy of US hegemony as a defining moment perhaps the defining moment in 20th century world politics rupturing and reconstituting the modern epoch in its many instantiations In doing so the collection takes up a variety of different topics of interest to both a general reader those focused on Marxian theory and strategy and leftist and socialist histories of the war Contributors are Alexander Anievas Shelley Baranowski Neil Davidson Geoff Eley Sandra Halperin Esther Leslie Lars T Lih Domenico Losurdo Wendy Matsumura Peter D Thomas Adam Tooze Alberto Toscano and Enzo Traverso
