The Last Museum:

The Last Museum Brion Gysin, 1986-01 Beyond the Glass Case Nick Merriman, 2016-09-16 The book is the result of a nationwide survey in the UK that measured public use of and attitudes to the past archaeology and collecting The author reviews this research in the light of contemporary theory on ideology and representation and goes on to develop a convincing explanation for the failure of museums and similar institutions to connect with the majority of the public Merriman marshals the empirical and theoretical work to make a powerful case for a new approach to attract the under served populations one which encourages a view of the museum as a service helping its public to see understand and engage with its own personal local and multi faceted past The Museum , 1925 Museum publications Jan 1929 v 2 p 28 32 How to Build a

Museum Tonya Bolden, 2016-09-06 Smithsonian s National Museum of African American History and Culture is truly groundbreaking The first national museum whose mission is to illuminate for all people the rich diverse complicated and important experiences and contributions of African Americans in America is opening And the history of NMAAHC the last museum to be built on the National Mall is the history of America The campaign to set up a museum honoring black citizens is nearly 100 years old building the museum itself and assembling its incredibly far reaching collections is a modern story that involves all kinds of people from educators and activists to politicians architects curators construction workers and ordinary Americans who donated cherished belongings to be included in NMAAHC s thematically organized exhibits Award winning author Tonya Bolden has written a fascinating chronicle of how all of these ideas ambitions and actual objects came together in one incredible museum Includes behind the scenes photos of literally how to build a museum that holds everything from an entire segregated railroad car to a tiny West African amulet worn to ward off slave traders Museum Development in

China Gail Dexter Lord, Guan Qiang, An Laishun, Javier Jimenez, 2019-06-15 The growth of the number and scale of Chinese museums in the 21st century from about 1 400 at the turn of the century to over 5 000 to date reflects the government s Museum Development Plan for 2011 2020 to open one museum per 250 000 inhabitants with the goal of attracting one billion visitors at the end of the decade It is not just the numbers but the speed of development of Chinese museums that takes our breath away with nearly one new museum per day being opened or expanded in this huge country What are the motivations for the rapid development of museums in China How is the public responding Who pays for these museums and how What has been the impact of china s urbanization How do Chinese museums balance education scientific research social cohesion cultural diplomacy and tourism both internal and external These are issues that continue to be discussed and debated among western museum professionals in the context of our 200 year history of modern museology How are these debates evolving in China which has its own history of museology over that same period from colonialism to communism and from isolation to opening up to the world This book explores these issues while introducing English language readers to a sample of the new Chinese museums in case studies and photographs To accomplish this goal Lord Cultural Associates partnered with the Chinese Museums Association who engaged leading Chinese museologists museum directors academics and architects to provide chapters and case studies on the history of museums in China on evolving national museum policies museum exhibitions and cultural diplomacy the role of private museums and the impact of museums on society The four sections of this book build our knowledge of the roles of China's museums through social and political changes the systems of governance the complex relationships between private and public sectors and many levels of government Section One places the current building boom in context Section Two addresses how China's rapid urbanization has fueled the museum building boom framed it formed it and in some cases financed it Section Three analyzes how Chinese exhibitions are tools for cultural diplomacy and key elements of soft power The six case studies in Section Four provide perspectives on the diversity of innovative approaches in the sector Museum Development in China a beautiful full color book is the product of an international collaboration to discover how much East and West can learn from each other about museum roles our publics how we preserve what we conserve and our future sustainability even as we marvel at the accomplishments of China's museum building boom

Designing for the Museum Visitor Experience Tiina Roppola, 2013-03-05 Exhibition environments are enticingly complex spaces as facilitators of experience as free choice learning contexts as theaters of drama as encyclopedic warehouses of cultural and natural heritage as two three and four dimensional storytellers as sites for self actualizing leisure activity But how much do we really know about the moment by moment transactions that comprise the intricate experiences of visitors To strengthen the disciplinary knowledge base supporting exhibition design we must understand more about what goes on as people engage with the multifaceted communication environments that are contemporary exhibition spaces The in depth visitor centered research underlying this book offers nuanced understandings of the interface between visitors and exhibition environments Analysis of visitors meaning making accounts shows that the visitor experience is contingent upon four processes framing resonating channeling and broadening These processes are distinct yet mutually influencing Together they offer an evidence based conceptual framework for understanding visitors in exhibition spaces Museum educators designers interpreters curators researchers and evaluators will find this framework of value in both daily practice and future planning Designing for the Museum Visitor Experience provides museum professionals and academics with a fresh vocabulary for understanding what goes on as visitors wander around exhibitions
