The Kiss: A Romance of Two Children Driskill Horton, 2010-06-03 This book is a tribute to two precious people I called Mom and Dad by conveying their life story The book takes excerpt from Mother and Dad's diaries so they are obliquely able to convey their story Part of what of the story concerns Mother's self portrayal detailing experiences from birth until her young husband was leaving to fight in World War II It depicts Mom's tender loving attributes which those that knew her had the privilege of experiencing I honestly do not think she realized possessing such wonderful attributes which made them all the more enjoyable for those of us who crossed her path on the road of life Another portion is by Dad depicting his World War II story Then I fill in by describing what occurred as seen through my eyes which emerged from a lifetime of inspiration they

The Riddle of Christian Mystical Experience Paul Mommaers, 2003 A distinctive feature of mystical experience is that it is imageless Mystics of various traditions witness indeed to their going beyond all intermediaries so as to enjoy immediate union Understandably the idea of imageless immediacy is attractive and it is especially in vogue with those who hope to discover that different religious spiritualities converge if only the particularity of say the Christian way would be left behind However a crucial question arises here If mystical union consists in simply transcending what is part and parcel of the human condition where is its relevance Is the mystic as such in a position to be his or her human self thinking and loving enjoying and suffering Can he or she be active in the world of humankind Obviously it is especially in the Christian tradition that this matter comes to the fore as a radical difficulty For here there is the divine Image and Mediator so much so that the Humanity of Jesus ought to be integral to a person's union with God Perhaps the Christian mystic is such an extraordinary figure that the Humanity and all other images and intermediaries are for him or her at best a stepping stone that is bound to disappear The Riddle of Christian Mystical Experience aims to clarify this issue by analyzing the writings of such visionaries as Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila and Maria Petyt of the ecstasy minded masters Richard of Saint Victor Bernard of Clairvaux and Bonaventure describing Francis of Assisi's experience of the cream of the Flemish mystics namely Hadewijch and Jan van Ruusbroec Nevertheless the preference for the mystical text does not prevent the Riddle from drawing on the insights of modern philosophers such as Jean Paul Sartre and Jean Luc Marion when treating of images and idols or Michael Polanyi and Ludwig Wittgenstein when reflecting on intermediaries The main result of this procedure may come as a surprise Far from turning into a detached creature who forgets about the Humanity and the human the full fledged mystic is as a Flemish mystic puts it wholly in God where he rests in enjoyment and wholly in himself where he loves with works Experiencing union with intermediary and without intermediary the true Christian mystic is unimaged as well as imaged upon the humanity of our Lord through heartfelt affection
