Development and Disaster Management Amita Singh, Milap Punia, Nivedita P. Haran, Thiyam Bharat Singh, 2018-06-15 This book highlights the relationship between disasters and development through a socio cultural study of human geography and governance institutions It studies the cause context and consequences of disasters in one of the most fragile Himalayan regions in India The book establishes the fact that disaster management is built within the framework of good governance without which it has no meaning For lack of effective and responsive governance development has lagged behind and even though the frequency of disasters has been increasing little is being done to redesign developmental frameworks to prevent ensuing losses Besides the near absence of governmental support during recurrent disasters communities have cumulatively become reservoirs of innovations to cope up with disasters The resilience plans need not follow implanted models but may be cost effective only if they apply a bottom up approach Just as the region is culturally diverse so are the challenges encountered by local communities in terms of generating resilience to every disaster Despite more than a decade of the Disaster Management Act DMA of 2005 most of the states in this northeastern fringe of India continue to wait for its implementation beyond mere structures and offices The book suggests that urgent action is required in accordance with the DMA 2005 towards inter agency coordination proactive participation of local governance mobilization of Community based Organizations CBOs and curriculum based training in every academic and technical institution Governments of these northeastern states of India should establish accountability of State Disaster Management Authorities and inspire them to participate proactively with communities for an effective resilience building in the region

The Resilience of Indigenous Religion Samson Kamei,2022-12-22 This book is a sociological study of the resilience of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak one of the indigenous religions of the Rongmei people of Manipur It examines the underlying factors contributing towards the ability of the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak to continue with their religion despite stigmatisation conversion and persecution by sections of Christians This book reflects the contemporary relevance of the legacies of the religious movements under Jadonang Malangmei and Rani Gaidinliu Thus the book also examines the continuity between the past and the present religious movements with complex underlying factors contributing to the resilience of an indigenous religion The Rongmei people following Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak a reformed religion are seen to be not shying away from changes in their religious beliefs and practices Interestingly however despite all the reformations consciously heralded the idea of primordiality in the sense of unchanging is a sincere atavism among the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak Methodologically speaking the emphasis of the book is on theoretical and methodological triangulation Both social change theory and social identity theory are used to understand the resilience of the indigenous faith of the Rongmei people amidst dominant Hindus and tribal Christians It is observed that the idea of change is indispensable in understanding the resilience of an indigenous faith despite the commonly held belief in the essentiality of primordiality in a religion The book is intended to serve the academic interests of researchers working on indigenous religions Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print version of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
