Roston, 2006-07-31 In Narrative Strategies, Roston focuses upon the Greene's texts themselves and their manipulation of reader response, highlighting the innovative strategies that Greene developed to cope with the mid-century invalidation of the traditional hero. This title argues that this is a false dichotomy created by a narrowly prescriptive understanding of the Catholic genre and obscures the impact of Greene's religious imagination on his literary art. The Language of Ethics and Community in Graham Greene's Fiction Paula Martín Salvan, 2016-04-29 A study of Graham Greene's fiction from the perspective of ethics and community, focusing on the narrative pattern that emerges from the author's idiosyncratic use of keywords like peace, despair, compassion, or commitment. This book explores their potential for the textual articulation of narrative conflict and the dramatization of the ethical. Graham Greene A. F. Cassis, 1981 Covers fifty years of criticism of Graham Greene, a leading man of letters on the English literary scene. Innocence in Graham Greene's Novels Shoko Miyano, 2006 Graham Greene once wrote that Innocence is a kind of insanity. This book examines the many shades of innocence in Greene's characters: the blank innocence, depraved innocence, and absurd innocence of Anthony Farrant; the piteous innocence of Pinkie; the simple innocence of Raven; the pure innocence of Father Quixote; the paradoxical innocence of the Whisky Priest; the inverted innocence of Sarah Miles; the faithful innocence of Father Rivas the Dog Ears Priest the intrusive innocence of Doctor Fischer and the playful innocence of Harry Lime The complex concept of innocence is found to be a prevailing theme in Greene s novels Graham Greene's Childless Fathers Daphna Erdinast-Vulcan,1988-06-18 A Common Spring Nadya Aisenberg,1979 Nadya Aisenberg discusses the potentialities of the crime novel its implications principles and scope and its analogy of myth and the fairy tale She proposes that the detective story and the thriller have made an unacknowledged contribution to serious literature Her discussion of Dickens Conrad and Green indicate that each borrowed many important ingredients from the formulaic novel

Graham Greene Robert Hoskins,2004-11-23 This study reveals Greene in a dual role as author one who projects literary experience into his view of life and subsequently projects both his experience and its literary interpretation into his fiction and it defines two phases of Greenes novels through the changing relationship between writer and protagonists The first phase progresses from acutely sensitive self divided young men somewhat like the young Greene to embittered alienated characters ostensibly at great distance from their creator The second phase 1939 includes a series of portraits of the artist through which Greene confronts more directly the tensions and conflicts of his private life Miracles & Sacrilege William Bruce Johnson,2008-01-01 Tracing the development of the Church in the United States Johnson discusses the reasons it found The Miracle sacrilegious and how it attained the power to persuade civil authorities to ban it Made in Mexico Luis I. Reyes,2024-03-26 For more than a century directors from both sides of the border have chosen Mexico as the location to create their cinematic art leaving an indelible imprint on the imaginations of moviegoers and filmmakers worldwide Now for the first time Made in Mexico Hollywood South of the Border presents a comprehensive examination of more than one hundred Hollywood theatrical feature films made in Mexico between 1914 and the present day Lavishly illustrated throughout Made in Mexico examines how Hollywood films depicted Mexico and how Mexico represented itself in relation to the films shot on location It pulls back the curtain on how Hollywood filmmakers influenced Mexican films and Mexican filmmakers influenced Hollywood Listed chronologically and featuring cast credits synopsis and contemporary reviews along with a production history for each entry this book highlights the concept of crossing borders in which artists from both nations collaborated with one another Made in Mexico also provides a brief historical perspective on the aesthetics economics and politics of the film industries in each country giving readers a glimpse of the external forces at play in the production of these films With motion pictures permeating the cultural and historical landscape of both Mexico and the United States this compulsively readable compendium demonstrates the far reaching influences of the featured films on the popular culture of both nations Visible Nations Chon A. Noriega,2000 Wandering through Guilt Paola Di Gennaro,2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene's The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen's Death in Rome and Oka Sh. Hei's Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths

The Power and the Glory Graham Greene, 2003 A tormented alcoholic priest is pursued by an idealistic lieutenant during an anti clerical persecution in Mexico
