cold April night Harvey Nash older filled with regrets sort of more charming and arousable than ever just in from the Coast where he s reinvented himself as Nash Harvey jingle composer and chronic bachelor has returned to the scene of his first romantic crime Despite the sisters scars and grudges despite his platinum tongue and roving eye this old flame becomes an improbable catalyst for the untried and the long overdue The refined and level headed Adele finds herself flirting with her boss on public television Entrepreneurial Kathleen is suddenly drinking cappuccino with Lorenz the handsome doorman at the luxury high rise where she owns a lingerie boutique And Lois the only sister to have embarked on the road to matrimony and subsequently divorce revives her long cherished notion that Harvey abandoned Adele rather than indulge his preference for another Dobbin Both comic and compassionate The Ladies Man has all of Lipman s trademark wit wattage and social mischief with an extra bite

Leitch,2022 New approaches to this most fluid of medieval genres considering in particular its reception and transmission Romance was the most popular secular literature of the Middle Ages and has been understood most productively as a genre that continually refashioned itself The essays collected in this volume explore the subject of translation both linguistic and cultural in relation to the composition reception and dissemination of romance across the languages of late medieval Britain Ireland and Iceland In taking this multilingual approach this volume proposes a re centring and extension of our understanding of the corpus of medieval Insular romance which although long considered extra canonical has over the previous decades acquired something approaching its own canon a canon which we might now begin to unsettle and of which we might ask new questions The topics of the essays gathered here range from Dafydd ap Gwilym and Walter Map to Melusine and English Trojan narratives and address topics from women and merchants to werewolves and marvels Together they position the study of romance in translation in relation to cross border and cross linguistic transmission and reception and alongside the generic re imaginings of romance both early and late that implicate romance in new linguistic cultural and social networks The volume also shows how even where linguistic translation is not involved we can understand the ways in which romance moved across cultural and social boundaries and incorporated elements of different genres into its own capacious and malleable frame as types of translatio in terms of learning or power or both
