Bardis, 2023-08-09 The institution of the family is by far the most important of all the societal networks in which the lives of men women and children are involved Nowhere is this more true than in the less developed countries of Asia Originally published in 1979 The Family in Asia aimed to provide a series of comprehensive survey chapters which described traditional family patterns in a selection of Asian countries at different stages of economic development These range from a rapidly expanding and highly developed industrial nation Japan through modernising and developing countries India Pakistan Iran China South Korea and the Philippines to more underdeveloped countries such as Thailand and Afghanistan Each chapter is written by a senior country specialist and covers an integrated series of topics within a uniform framework in order to facilitate inter country comparisons Valuable description and statistical material is provided on the literature and on the effects of industrialisation urbanisation and modernisation but perhaps more important is a theoretical framework and the editors review of some basic characteristics of social modernisation These include the degree of equalitarian family relations and sexual divisions in society emphasis on individualism and independence the differentiation and specialised functioning of social institutions urban life birth control and family planning social mobility marital disruption and divorce neglect and care of the elderly formal education for children and government intervention and influence on family activities Read in its historical context this title will interest specialists in development and Asian studies in demography sociology and in anthropology Students in particular will value the tight analytical framework in which the book has been written The Mothers' Journal and Family Visitant Eliza Crosby Allen, Ira M. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
