Slavery, Colonialism and Economic Growth in Dahomey, 1640-1960 Patrick Manning, 2004-06-07 This book integrates into a single framework Dahomey's pre colonial colonial and post colonial economic history Slavery, Colonialism and Economic Growth in Dahomey, 1640-1960, 1982 Slavery and Colonial Rule in French West Africa Martin A. Klein, 1998-07-28 Martin Klein's book is a history of slaves during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in three former French colonies It investigates the changing nature of local slavery over time and the evolving French attitudes towards it through the phases of trade conquest and colonial rule The heart of the study focuses on the period between 1876 and 1922 when a French army composed largely of slave soldiers took massive numbers of slaves in the interior while in areas near the coast hesitant actions were taken against slave raiding trading and use After 1900 the French withdrew state support of slavery and as many as a million slaves left their masters A second exodus occurred after World War I when soldiers of slave origin returned home The renegotiation of relationships between those who remained and their masters carries the story into the contemporary world Witchcraft and Colonial Rule in Kenya, 1900-1955 Katherine Luongo, 2011-09-26 Focusing on colonial Kenya this book shows how conflicts between state authorities and Africans over witchcraft related crimes provided an important space in which the meanings of justice law and order in the empire were debated Katherine Luongo discusses the emergence of imperial networks of knowledge about witchcraft She then demonstrates how colonial concerns about witchcraft produced an elaborate body of jurisprudence about capital crimes The book analyzes the legal wrangling that produced the Witchcraft Ordinances in the 1910s the birth of an anthropo administrative complex surrounding witchcraft in the 1920s the hotly contested Wakamba Witch Trials of the 1930s the explosive growth of legal opinion on witch murder in the 1940s and the unprecedented state sponsored cleansings of witches and Mau Mau adherents during the 1950s A work of anthropological history this book develops an ethnography of Kamba witchcraft or uoi The Economic History of Colonialism Leigh Gardner, Tirthankar Roy, 2020-07-15 Debates about the origins and effects of European rule in the non European world have animated the field of economic history since the 1850s This pioneering text provides a concise and accessible resource that introduces key readings builds connections between ideas and helps students to develop informed views of colonialism as a force in shaping the modern world With special reference to European colonialism of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in both Asia and Africa this book critically reviews the literature on colonialism and economic growth covers a range of different methods of analysis offers a comparative approach as opposed to a collection of regional histories deftly weaving together different themes With debates around globalization migration global finance and environmental change intensifying this authoritative account of the relationship between colonialism and economic development makes an invaluable contribution to several distinct literatures in economic history The Shell Money of the Slave Trade Jan Hogendorn, Marion Johnson, 2003-09-18 A study of the role of cowrie shell money in West African trade particularly the slave

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum's Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

there developed a particular nexus in which it boomed This volume distinguishes between procurement and trade and the exploitation of settled slaves the subject of a separate volume in the series edited by Judy Bieber and underscores the importance of the slave trade as a factor in world history A rank redistribution of wealth and power it permitted the exploitation and reconstruction of much of the globe The articles address issues of the volume and flow of trade the various populations enslaved factors of sex age and ethnicity and its impact on economic change as in the monetization of Africa or economic growth in England

Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions Paul E. Lovejoy, 2016-11-30 In Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions a preeminent historian of Africa argues that scholars of the Americas and the Atlantic world have not given Africa its due consideration as part of either the Atlantic world or the age of revolutions The book examines the jihād movement in the context of the age of revolutions commonly associated with the American and French revolutions and the erosion of European imperialist powers and shows how West Africa too experienced a period of profound political change in the late eighteenth through the mid nineteenth centuries Paul E Lovejoy argues that West Africa was a vital actor in the Atlantic world and has wrongly been excluded from analyses of the period Among its chief contributions the book reconceptualizes slavery Lovejoy shows that during the decades in question slavery expanded extensively not only in the southern United States Cuba and Brazil but also in the jihād states of West Africa In particular this expansion occurred in the Muslim states of the Sokoto Caliphate Fuuta Jalon and Fuuta Toro At the same time he offers new information on the role antislavery activity in West Africa played in the Atlantic slave trade and the African diaspora Finally Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions provides unprecedented context for the political and cultural role of Islam in Africa and of the concept of jihād in particular from the eighteenth century into the present Understanding that there is a long tradition of jihād in West Africa Lovejoy argues helps correct the current distortion in understanding the contemporary jihād movement in the Middle East Afghanistan Pakistan and Africa
