Slower Than Butterflies Eddie Askew, 1997-07-01      Low Altitude Large Scale Reconnaissance James W. Walker, 1993      Elax and the White Witch Zsolt Zsemba, 2021-08-13 Budi and Putri's life takes a wild and crazy turn on their 10th birthday. They find out that they are not just friends but in fact twins. For their birthday they receive two identical wooden boxes filled with mysterious trinkets. While they try to figure out what's happening they get swept down the river to a strange new magical world. During their exploration they meet a wise old wizard named Elax who informs them that they are not here by accident. When Budi and Putri learn that they must unite the Water People and the Fire People to defeat the White Witch they cannot believe that this is a task that they can take on. With Elax's help they learn magic and set out on a journey to save their world. The magical world tests Putri and Budi mentally and physically as they learn more about their past.

Literary Landscapes of Time Jobst Welge, Juliane Tauchnitz, 2022-11-07 The volume asks how the literatures of the Americas and the Caribbean present multiple or internally differentiated spaces and how these are distinguished or traversed by different temporalities. The historical and post colonial experiences of these areas turns them into especially fertile ground for the exploration of the connections between landscape geography and historical temporal palimpsests as well as the specificities of literary form. The contributions are dedicated to individual yet conceptually interconnected studies of staggered multiple non simultaneous temporalities in modern and contemporary literature. The volume adopts a comparative perspective throughout and intends to foster the dialogue between the study of Latin American and Caribbean literatures in Spanish Portuguese French and English. Therefore the individual essays are not grouped according to geographical or linguistic areas but follow a trajectory from spatiotemporal constellations of the 19th century to ruined catastrophic landscapes and the geopoetic inscriptions of time in regions. The essays should appeal to all readers interested in World Literature Hemispheric Studies as well as temporal approaches to space and geography.

The Saint John's Bible and Its Tradition Jack Baker, Jeffrey Bilbro, Daniel Train, 2018-10-08 In an age of e books and screens it may seem antiquated to create a handwritten illuminated Bible. The Benedictine monks at Saint John's Abbey and University however determined to produce such a Bible for the twenty first century a Bible that would use traditional methods and materials while engaging contemporary questions and concerns. In an age that largely overlooks the physical form of books The Saint John's Bible foregrounds the importance of a book's tactile and visual qualities. This collection considers how The Saint John's Bible fits within the history of the Bible as a book and how its haptic qualities may be particularly important in a digital age.

Love Always Bobby Luckan,2016-10-31 Life is a Mystery Life is a mystery We get up every day not knowing We are sad happy sick healthy we lose some friends and we also make new ones We are surprised disappointed and often we fall but the best part of life is that we have the opportunity and ability to get up and dust ourselves We are often told not to look at the past as it cannot be changed This is true and also not true Look at the past but do not dwell on it and become stagnant We should not look at it with regret and anger for having fallen but rather at what made us fall Look at it as an experience and a lesson and learn from it to change Challenges will always be confronting and every one of them should be taken with your head held up high You may or may not succeed but either way it is something that is to be faced No institution or literature will ever replace what life teaches for lifes experiences are different to every one of us Learn from the past so you can change the future to make it a better place not only for you but for everyone else if possible Smile for thats one of the only things you can give and get for free and always walk with hope and determination if you want final victory for Love Is All

The Empire Trilogy J.G. Farrell, 2010-12-01 The Empire Trilogy consisting of the Lost Booker Prize winning Troubles the Booker Prize winning The Siege of Krishnapur and The Singapore Grip is Farrell s re examination of the legacy and limits of British imperial rule The three volumes connected by theme rather than character and above all by their shared wit brio and daring range in setting from the India of the Great Mutiny of 1857 to Ireland immediately after the Great War to the besieged Singapore of World War II Together the books constitute not only a spectacular entertainment but also an ambitious refashioning of the traditional historical novel to meet the tragic realities of the modern world The Siege of Krishnapur India 1857 the year of the Great Mutiny when Muslim soldiers turned in bloody rebellion on their British overlords This time of convulsion is the subject of J G Farrell s The Siege of Krishnapur widely considered one of the finest British novels of the last fifty years Farrell s story is set in an isolated Victorian outpost on the subcontinent Rumors of strife filter in from afar and yet the members of the colonial community remain confident of their military and above all moral superiority But when they find themselves under actual siege the true character of their dominion at once brutal blundering and wistful is soon revealed Troubles 1919 After surviving the Great War Major Brendan Archer makes his way to Ireland hoping to discover whether he is indeed betrothed to Angela Spencer whose Anglo Irish family owns the once aptly named Majestic Hotel in Kilnalough But his fianc e is strangely altered and her family s fortunes have suffered a spectacular decline The hotel s hundreds of rooms are disintegrating on a grand scale its few remaining guests thrive on rumors and games of whist herds of cats have taken over the Imperial Bar and the upper stories bamboo shoots threaten the foundations and piglets frolic in the squash court Meanwhile the Major is captivated by the beautiful and bitter Sarah Devlin As housekeeping disasters force him from room to room outside the order of the British Empire also totters there is unrest in the East and in Ireland itself the mounting violence of the troubles The Singapore Grip Singapore 1939 life on the eve of World War II just isn t what it used to be for Walter Blackett head of British Singapore s oldest and most powerful firm No matter how forcefully the police break one strike the natives go on strike somewhere else His daughter keeps entangling herself with the most unsuitable beaux while her intended match the son of Blackett s partner is an idealistic sympathizer with the League of Nations and a vegetarian Business may be booming what with the war in Europe the Allies are desperate for rubber and helpless to resist Blackett s price fixing and market manipulation but something is wrong No one suspects that the world of the British Empire of fixed boundaries between classes and nations is about to come to a terrible end
