Creole in the Archive Roshini Kempadoo, 2016-10-24 The image of the Caribbean figure has been reconfigured by photography from the mid 19th century onwards Initial images associated with the slave and indentured worker from the locations and legacies associated with plantation economies have been usurped by visual representations emerging from struggles for social political and cultural autonomy Contemporary visual artists engaging with the Caribbean as a 21st century globalised space have focused on visually re imagining historical material and events as memories histories and dreamscapes Creole in the Archive uses photographic analysis to explore portraits postcards and social documentation of the colonial worker between 1850 and 1960 and contemporary often digital visual art by post independent postcolonial Caribbean artists Drawing on Derridean ideas of the archive the book reconceptualises the Caribbean visual archive as contiguous and relational It argues that using a creolising archive practice the conjuncture of contemporary artworks historical imagery and associated locations can develop insightful new multimodal representations of Caribbean subjectivities

The Palgrave Handbook of Queer and Trans Feminisms in Contemporary Performance Tiina Rosenberg, Sandra D'Urso, Anna Renée Winget, 2021-09-21 The purpose of this Handbook is to provide students with an overview of key developments in queer and trans feminist theories and their significance to the field of contemporary performance studies It presents new insights highlighting the ways in which rigid or punishing notions of gender sexuality and race continue to flourish in systems of knowledge faith and power which are relevant to a new generation of queer and trans feminist performers today The guiding question for the Handbook is How do queer and trans feminist theories enhance our understanding of developments in feminist performance today and will this discussion give rise to new ways of theorizing contemporary performance As such the volume will survey a new generation of performers and theorists as well as senior scholars who engage and redefine the limits of performance The chapters will demonstrate how intersectional queer and trans feminist theoretical tools support new analyses of performance with a global focus The primary audience will be students of theatre performance studies as well as queer gender studies The volume s contents suggest close links between the formation of queer feminist identities alongside recent key political developments with transnational resonances Furthermore the emergence of new queer and trans feminist epistemologies prompts a reorientation regarding performance and identities in a 21st century context

Anthropology Theoretically wide ranging and deeply personal and poetic Queer Freedom Black Sovereignty is based on more than three years of fieldwork in the Dominican Republic Ana Maurine Lara draws on her engagement in traditional ceremonies observations of national Catholic celebrations and interviews with activists from peasant feminist and LGBT communities to reframe contemporary conversations about queerness and blackness The result is a rich ethnography of the ways criollo spiritual practices challenge gender and racial binaries and manifest what Lara characterizes as a shared desire for decolonization Queer Freedom Black Sovereignty is also a ceremonial ofrenda or offering in its own right At its heart is a fundamental question How can we enable queer black life in all its forms and what would it mean to be free sovereign in the twenty first century Calling on the reader to join her in exploring possible answers Lara maintains that the analogy between these terms queerness and blackness freedom and sovereignty is necessarily incomplete and unresolved to be determined only by ongoing processes of embodied relational knowledge production Queer Freedom Black Sovereignty thus follows figures such as Sylvia Wynter Mar a Lugones M Jacqui Alexander douard Glissant Mark Rifkin Gloria Anzald a and Audre Lorde in working to theorize a potential roadmap to decolonization

Love and Liberation Lauren Carruth, 2021-10-15
 Lauren Carruth's Love and Liberation tells a new kind of humanitarian story The protagonists are not volunteers from afar but rather Somali locals caring for each other nurses aid workers policymakers drivers community health workers and bureaucrats The contributions of locals are often taken for granted and the competencies aspirations and effectiveness of local staffers frequently remain muted or absent from the planning and evaluation of humanitarian interventions structured by outsiders Relief work is traditionally imagined as politically neutral and impartial and interventions are planned as temporary extraordinary and distant Carruth provides an alternative vision of what humanitarian response means in practice not driven by International Humanitarian Law the missions of Western relief organizations or trends in the aid industry or academia but instead by what Somalis call samafal Samafal is structured by the cultivation of lasting relationships of care interdependence kinship and ethnic solidarity Samafal is also explicitly political and potentially emancipatory humanitarian responses present opportunities for Somalis to begin to redress histories of colonial partitions and to make the most out of their political and economic marginalization By centering Love and Liberation around Somalis understanding and enactments of samafal Carruth offers a new perspective on politics and intervention in Africa

Feenin Alexander Ghedi Weheliye, 2023-09-29
 In Feenin Alexander Ghedi Weheliye traces R B music's continuing centrality in Black life since the late 1970s Focusing on various musical production and reproduction technologies such as auto tune and the materiality of the BlackFem singing voice Weheliye counteracts the widespread popular and scholarly narratives of the genre's decline and death He shows how R B remains a thriving venue for the expression of Black thought and life and a primary archive of the contemporary moment Among other topics Weheliye discusses the postdisco evolution of house music in Chicago and techno in Detroit Prince and David Bowie in relation to appropriations of Blackness and Euro whiteness in the 1980s how the

BlackFem voice functions as a repository of Black knowledge the methods contemporary R B musicians use to bring attention to Black Lives Matter and the ways vocal distortion technologies such as the vocoder demonstrate Black music s relevance to discussions of humanism and posthumanism Ultimately Feenin represents Weheliye s capacious thinking about R B as the site through which to consider questions of Blackness technology history humanity community diaspora and nationhood

A Nimble Arc Emilie Boone,2023-08-28 While James Van Der Zee is widely known and praised for his studio portraits from the Harlem Renaissance era much of the diversity and expansive reach of his work has been overlooked From the major role his studio played for decades photographing ordinary people and events in the Harlem community to the inclusion of his photographs in the landmark Harlem on My Mind exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in 1969 Van Der Zee was a foundational Black photographer whose work illustrates the shifting ways photography serves as a constitutive force within Black life In A Nimble Arc Emilie Boone considers Van Der Zee s photographic work over the course of the twentieth century showing how it foregrounded aspects of Black daily life in the United States and in the larger African diaspora Boone argues that Van Der Zee s work exists at the crossroads of art and the vernacular challenging the distinction between canonical art photographs and the kind of output common to commercial photography studios Boone s account recasts our understanding not only of this celebrated figure but of photography within the arc of quotidian Black life
