Social Organization Of The Marri Baluch:

The Social Organization of the Marri Baluch Robert Niel Pehrson, 1966 Social Organization of the Marri Baluch.
By Robert N. Pehrson. Compiled and Analyzed from His Notes by Fredrik Barth. [With Illustrations.]. Robert Niel Pehrson, Fredrik BART, 1966 The Social Organisation of the Marri Baluch R. N. Pehrson, 1966 Kinship and Continuity
Alison Shaw, 2000 Kinship and Continuity is a vivid ethnographic account of the development of the Pakistani presence in Oxford from after World War II to the present day Alison Shaw addresses the dynamics of migration patterns of residence and kinship ideas about health and illness and notions of political and religious authority and discusses the transformations and continuities of the lives of British Pakistanis against the backdrop of rural Pakistan and local socio economic changes This is a fully updated revised edition of the book first published in 1988 Behind the Veil in Arabia Unni Wikan, 1991-05
The author examines the role of women in Oman culture Fredrik Barth Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2015-04-20 Fredrik Barth is one of the towering figures of twentieth century anthropology This intellectual history traces the development of Barth s ideas and explores the substance of his contributions In an accessible style Thomas Hylland Eriksen s biographical study reveals the magic of ethnography to professional anthropologists and non practitioners alike Exploring his six decade career it follows Barth from early ecological studies in Pakistan to political studies in Iran to groundbreaking fieldwork in Norway New Guinea Bali and Bhutan Eriksen argues that Barth s voracious appetite for fieldwork holds the key to understanding his remarkable intellectual development and the insights it produced The book raises many of the same questions that emerge from Barth s own work of unity and diversity of culture and relativism of art and science The Helmand Baluch Ghulam Rahman Amiri, 2020-11-01 In the 1970s in his capacity as government representative from the Afghan Institute of Archaeology Ghulam Rahman Amiri accompanied a joint Afghan US archaeological mission to the Sistan region of southwest Afghanistan The results of his work were published in Farsi as a descriptive ethnographic monograph The Helmand Baluch is the first English translation of Amiri s extraordinary encounters This rich ethnography describes the cultural political and economic systems of the Baluch people living in the lower Helmand River Valley of Afghanistan It is an area that has received little study since the early 20th Century yet is a region with a remarkable history in one of the most volatile territories in the world Blood and Water David Gilmartin, 2020-04-14 The book is a history of the political and environmental transformation of the Indus basin as a result of the modern construction of the world s largest integrated irrigation system Begun under British colonial rule in the 19th century this transformation continued after the region was divided between two new states India and Pakistan in 1947 Massive irrigation works have turned an arid region into one of dense agricultural population but its political legacies continue to shape the politics and statecraft of the region Provided by publisher Carved Flesh / Cast Selves Tone Bleie, Vigdis Broch-Due, I. Rudie, 2021-01-07 All the papers in this volume deal with the central theme of gender The social contexts they examine range widely from Melanesia and Southeast Asia to Africa

Europe and America yet in each case of these very diverse cases the concern is to analyse the ways in which gender is constructed

Area Handbook for Afghanistan Harvey Henry Smith, 1969 Atlas of World Cultures George Peter Murdock, 1981-05-15 The publication of Murdock's Ethnographic Atlas in 1967 marked the first time that descriptive information on the peoples of the world primitive historical and contemporary had been systematically organized for the purposes of comparative research In this volume Murdock has completely revised this work selecting 563 societies that are most fully and accurately described in ethnographic literature The identification of each society gives its geographical coordinates and date its identifying number in the Ethnographic Atlas and an indication of whether it is included in the Human Relations Area Files or the Standard Cross Cultural Sample In addition bibliographical references are offered for each society The information and suggested research techniques will be of value to comparativists in anthropology history political science psychology and sociology Most importantly it offers a simple method for choosing a valid sample of the world's known societies for cross cultural research

Migrants and Refugees Patricia Jeffery, 1976-07-08 This study analyses the immigration of Muslim and Christian Pakistani families coming into Britain

Work in Non-Market and Transitional Societies Herbert Applebaum, 1984-06-30 In industrialized cultures what we do to earn a living is usually divorced from what we do the rest of the time This contrasts with non market cultures where work is an intimate part of life People of such cultures perceive a unity between hunting and raising a family between making pots and training children between the building of houses and the practice of religion Often there is no separate word for work because work is such an all encompassing activity Work in Non Market and Transitional Societies is an overview of the organization of work in diverse societies the division of labor the notions of time that affect work and working and the kinds of adaptations people make when transplanted from one society to another The groundbreaking study encompasses pre industrial and non market societies as well as cultures in the process of change and modernization This double focus provides an unusual and stimulating perspective for both anthropology and the social sciences This book features a broad theoretical introduction delineating the major issues and aspects of investigation in this field It then presents twenty essays that show how work is carried on by women and men in varied societies and cultures The authors provide guidelines for understanding the different value systems and discuss why each approach to work is appropriate in its specific societal structure

Ethnicity and Mobility Chandrashekhar Bhat, 1984 Men in Groups Lionel Tiger, 2017-07-12 When Men in Groups was first published in 1969 the New York Times daily critic titled his review The Disturbing Rediscovery of the Obvious What was so obvious was male bonding a phrase that entered the language The links between males in groups Tiger describes extend through many other primate species through our evolution as hunters gatherers and cross culturally Male bonding characterizes human groups as varied as the Vatican Council the New York Yankees the Elks and Masons the secret societies of Sierra Leone and Kenya The power of Tiger's book is its identification of the powerful links between men and the impact of females and families on essentially male groups While the world has changed much the argument of the book and its new introduction by the author suggest that a species specific pattern of female bonding continues to be part of the human default system Perhaps one day concrete evidence of its location will emerge from the startling work on the human genome just as the elaborate and consequential sex differences to which Men in Groups drew such pioneering attention have already become part of the common wisdom Meanwhile Men in Groups remains a measured and responsible but intrepid inspection of a major aspect of human social organization and personal behavior The book was controversial when it first appeared and often foolishly and unduly scorned But it has remained a fundamental contribution to the emerging synthesis between the social and natural sciences

Fieldnotes Roger Sanjek, 2019-06-30 Thirteen distinguished anthropologists describe how they create and use the unique forms of writing they produce in the field They also discuss the fieldnotes of seminal figures Frank Cushing Franz Boas W H R Rivers Bronislaw Malinowski and Margaret Mead and analyze field writings in relation to other types of texts especially ethnographies Unique in conception this volume contributes importantly to current debates on writing texts and reflexivity in anthropology

Comparing Muslim Societies Juan R. I. Cole, 2025-10-01 This book departs from stereotypes that often dominate Western discourse about Muslim societies The Muslim world encompasses a wide range of countries among them Turkey Iraq Egypt Senegal Saudi Arabia and Morocco each with a varying degree of religious stricture Generalizations therefore can be erroneous and misleading The contributors to this book prominent scholars in anthropology history sociology and political science examine such issues as the ideology and political practices of Iran's ruling Shi'ite clerics the impact of state policies on the status of women the controversy over parliamentary government in the Arab world the role of modern intellectuals and charisma and leadership in tribal societies The arguments the authors put forward often overturn conventional opinion about the Muslim world This original and important book reminds us that Muslim society is not a monolith but that it encompasses a rich variety of cultures

Handbook on Urban History of Early India Aloka Parasher Sen, 2024-10-23 This handbook addresses issues around urban growth in early India It provides theoretical and empirical insights from the perspective of the different regions of the subcontinent using various sources The book chapters discuss how early urban forms evolved transformed and survived on the subcontinent beginning with the third millennium BCE This volume also looks at how urban space gradually emerged in borderland areas of the subcontinent and hill areas which throw up relevant issues and questions of how we need to review elements of what we define as urban It includes chapters on both the early historic and early medieval periods The book provides a comprehensive view of early India's urban history insights into metallic money and cities the origin of cities and waterways geospatial and remote sensing techniques to reflect on the emergence of historic settlements and so on The contributors have presented the dialectical relationship between the city and the country in their chapters The book covers themes such as the Indus Valley civilization the rise of cities in the Ganges valley the cultural setting of the multi ethnic and multi lingual Kushan cities the dynamic of the growth of cities in the ancient

Tamilakam theories of urbanization archaeological and epigraphic material reflecting on the first cities in different regions of the subcontinent etc It is an invaluable resource for students researchers and scholars in history architecture and archaeology as well as scholars working on Indic studies Violence and Belonging Are J. Knudsen,2009 Honor and violence are major themes in the anthropology of the Middle East yet apart from political violence most studies approach violence from the perspective of honour By contrast this important study examines the meanings of lethal conflict in a little studied tribal society in Pakistan s unruly North West Frontier Province NWFP and offers a new perspective on its causes Based on an in depth study of local conflicts the book challenges stereotyped images of a region and people miscast as extremist and militant Being grounded in local ethnography enables the book to shed light on the complexities of violence not only at the structural or systemic level but also as experienced by the men involved in lethal conflict In this way the book provides a subjective and experiential approach to violence that is applicable beyond the field locality and relevant for advancing the study of violence in the Middle East and South Asia The book is the first ethnographic study of this region since renowned anthropologist Fredrik Barth s pioneering study in 1954 Kinship, Honour, and Solidarity Ladislav Holý,1989
