Report of the Social Security Advisory Committee Great Britain.

Social Security Advisory Committee,2000

Dealing with the Complexity of the Benefits System Great Britain: National

Audit Office,2005-11-18 The Department for Work and Pensions DWP and its agencies are responsible for administering around 40 social security benefits to the value of around 100 billion a year Many of these benefits are linked together hence some customers are in receipt of more than one benefit The need for equity and fairness in interpreting legislation is a cause of complexity Incentives e g to work and rewards e g for an individual s savings have been built into procedures Problems are caused by the interface between DWP benefits and tax credits which are administered by HM Revenue and Customs and by the constant flow of major and minor legislative and administrative changes Simplified procedures would enable both staff and customers to understand the system better and to avoid duplication of effort There would also be less scope for benefits fraud estimated at 2.6 billion in 2004/05 This NAO report also highlights the need for improved communication with customers and better use of new technology

Social Work, Immigration and Asylum Debra Hayes,Beth

Humphries,2004-01-19 The practical and ethical challenges facing human service professionals working with refugees asylum seekers and other people subject to immigration controls are discussed in this book. The contributors explore the tensions that exist between anti-oppressive values and the role professionals increasingly play as gatekeepers to services.
