The contributions of scholars like Yehezkel Dror, Thomas Dye, Bruce Doern and others have helped to examine the style and approaches that have added to our understanding of public policies. In this collection of fourteen essays, public policy is examined in ranging environments: Greece, Zimbabwe, Nigeria and South Africa. The policies of these countries and some other issues relating to social security, poverty, welfare, consumer rights are covered. The first paper introduces us to the differences between public and private policies and shows the importance of giving the right place to the former in the orderly society. Population Growth and the Provision of Social Services in Nigeria Andrew G. Journal of the Historical Society of Nigeria, 2005 Aging Across Cultures Helaine Selin, 2022-01-01 This volume brings together chapters about aging in many non-Western cultures from Africa and Asia to South America from American Indians to Australian and Hawaii Aborigines. It also includes articles on other issues of aging such as falling dementia and elder abuse. It was thought that in Africa or Asia elders were revered and taken care of. This certainly used to be the case. But the Western way has moved into these places and we now find that elders are often left on their own or in institutions as younger people have migrated to other cities and even countries. Grandparents often find themselves being parents to their grandchildren a far cry from the kind of life they believed they would have as they aged. This book will explore all these issues and will be of use to students and researchers in this relatively new field. The International Journal of African
