The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10 The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications Here Neuser has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre Neuser then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah's and the Talmuds programs for the social order of Israel the doctrines of economics politics and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively Then come the two foci of discourse Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester England and Mayer Gruber of Ben Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California Berkeley has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis

The Transformation of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2011-03-31 Jacob Neusner describes analyzes and interprets the transformation of one system of the Israelite social order by a connected but autonomous successor system He characterizes the successive systems classifying the one as philosophical and the other as religious He explains the categorical account of each and sets forth the outcome of a number of topical studies on the category formations of Rabbinic Judaism with special attention to the social order politics philosophy and economics These systems emerged as 1 autonomous when viewed synchronically 2 connected when seen diachronically and 3 as a continuous construction when seen at the end of their formative age In their successive stages of categorical autonomy connection and finally continuity the three distinct systems may be classified respectively as philosophical religious and theological each one taking over and revising the definitive categories of the former and framing its own fresh generative categories as well The formative history of Judaism is the story of the presentations and re presentations of categorical structures In method it is the exegesis of taxonomy and taxic systems Now after more than two decades Neusner has decided to review the initial statement Since the book summarizes ten years of work from 1980 to 1990 on the Rabbinic category formations of social science politics philosophy and economics in the setting of the law and theology of Rabbinic Judaism from the Mishnah through the Bavli 200 600 C E it seemed well worth the effort to recapitulate the original work The revised introduction explains the omission of theology in his category formation philosophy religion theology Neusner's account of the Bavli produced the decade after this title was completed did not make possible the continuous description of the unfolding of the Rabbinic system The pattern that appealed to Neusner from philosophy to religion to theology has not yet come to a satisfactory account In the twenty years The Social Study of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1988 Twilight of the Machines John Zerzan, 2008 The mentor of the green anarchist and neo primitive movements is back with his first book in six years confronting civilisation mass society modernity and technoculture both the history of its developing crisis and the possibilities for its human and humane solutions As John Zerzan writes These dire times may yet reveal invigorating new vistas of thought and action When everything is at stake all must be confronted and superseded At this moment there is the distinct possibility of doing just that Max Weber Alan Sica, 2017-09-08 The most profound and enduring social theorist of sociology's classical period Max Weber speaks as cogently to concerns of the new century as he did to those of the past In Max Weber and the New Century Alan Sica demonstrated Weber's preeminent position and lasting vitality within social theory by applying his ideas to a broad range of topics of contemporary concern Max Weber A Comprehensive Bibliography is a companion volume that offers some 4 600 bibliographic listings of work on Weber making it the most complete guide to the literature in English and a testament to the continued vitality of Weber's thought Sica's work supersedes all previous bibliographical efforts covering the Weber literature both in the quantity and accuracy of its references and the clarity and convenience of its format In order to demonstrate the enormous variety of Weberiana in English Sica has adopted a liberal criterion for inclusion rather than a critical one choosing to mix the best with what may be more routine work Following a preface in which previous bibliographies and bibliographic problems are discussed the volume opens with a series of five specialized bibliographies The first lists Weber's works in English translation The second lists reviews of Weber's major works including those translated into English while the third covers reviews of recent books and other work on Weber The fourth section contains a selection of dissertations and theses relating to Weber or his ideas The fifth includes primary and secondary sources treating Weber on rationality and rationalization processes The last and largest section offers a comprehensive Weber bibliography of works in English This large scale endeavor attempts to identify with accuracy and completeness the entire universe of Weber scholarship in English It will be an essential scholarly tool for sociologists historians economists and students of cultural and intellectual history Journal of Biblical Literature, 1989

Method and Meaning in Ancient Judaism, Fourth Series Jacob Neusner,1989 Essays on Diverse Topics Kalman Dubov,2021-12-23 This revised and updated volume includes twenty two essays on timely topics The volume begins with topics on Judaism and Jewish Ideology the book reviews the multiplicity of languages Jewish people used throughout their history At last count these number 55 an amazing way to create a localized language for daily interaction rather than use Hebrew the sacred language reserved for prayer and study The brief review of Lurianic Kabbalah follows together with a discussion of human suffering The mystery of Ashkenazic Jewry follows offering a serious question to this dilemma What follows is an exposition on the Jewish law of mosur the informer and the many issues affecting sexual predation in ultra Orthodox Judaism both in the United States and Australia as in Israel The Cairo Genizah reviews how two Scottish sisters brought the Book of Ecclesiasticus to Cambridge and the vast treasure of Cairo brought to Cambridge and other universities to examine this ancient repository The issue of Apostate Rabbis follows discussing several rabbis who converted to Christianity I then discuss the Radhanites the mysterious group of super merchants who traveled from France to China and back for about 500 years centuries before Marco Polo I then discuss Chabad Messianism a topic of interest as Chabad expands its message across the globe Several topics follow Medieval Blood Libel the mystery of Jews in Sri Lanka today a minimal number but in earlier centuries numbering several thousand I then discuss several topics on the human condition essays designed to reflect on Man's ethical dilemma of life in the post World War Two era I then discuss the two original ideas regarding religion One of these is attributed to the Patriarch Abraham whose reflection on Deity and how to relate to spirituality predominates in the three great Western religions The other original thought is found in Hinduism reflecting an entirely different way to relate to Deity Because Hinduism is a Far Eastern phenomenon not readily accessible in the West I've included an overview of Hinduism so that the Western and Jewish views can be appreciated A new topic reflects on the Atrocity Soul and its counterpart reflecting of the Son of Darkness and the Son of Light each bringing messages one of despair and darkness and the other of hope and redemption While these persons may be religious it is not a primary matter to the Son of Light but their message of hope predominates I conclude the book with a discussion on Calculating Zero an advancement only made twice in human history in the New World by the Maya and by the ancient Mesopotamians Each of the essays and reviews reflects my understanding of these and other diverse topics Each essay provides grist for discussion and reflection

Scripture and Midrash in Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1994 Building Blocks of Rabbinic Tradition Jacob Neusner, 2008 This book responds to a question that came to the author from Professor Maren Niehoff of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Have you written a simple introduction to your documentary theory and method which can serve as a starting point for my students In this book are gathered eight of the more fundamental items of documentary theory and practice _three in theory five in practice_ for Professor Niehoff's students and anyone else who takes an interest in the formative history of Judaism The documentary thesis of Rabbinic literature holds that the document _the Mishnah Sifra Lamentations Rabbah the Bavli for example_ forms the basic building block of the Rabbinic tradition Excluded by that definition are sayings attributed to and stories told about named sages These cannot serve in the reconstruction of the Rabbinic tradition its literature history religion and theology Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01 The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history literature and religion and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves Under this premise Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details
